TUESDAY, MAY 18, 1841.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 19, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Friday the 21st of May next, to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day, and on Thursday the 17th of June next, each day at two o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Friday the 21st of May next, it being a Collar-day.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's Palace,
May 14, 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Friday the 21st of May, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Wednesday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park, through Stable-yard, into the Ambassadors'-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

ERROLL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 8th day of May 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that the several ports therein in that behalf mentioned shall be free warehousing ports for all the purposes of the said Act; and it is thereby further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by Order in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for all or any of the purposes of the said Act, and that every port so appointed shall be, for all the purposes expressed in such Order, a free warehousing port, under the said Act, as if appointed by the same:

And whereas Her Majesty doth deem it expedient to appoint the port of Scarborough, in the island of Tobago, a free warehousing port under the said Act, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained:

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authorities in Her Majesty by the said Act in that behalf vested, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said port of Scarborough, in the island of Tobago, shall be a free warehousing port for all the purposes of the said Act:

Provided always, and it is hereby ordered, that nothing herein contained shall exempt any goods, wares, or merchandize imported from the said port of Scarborough, into any of the British possessions in the West Indies, or on the Continent of South America, or into the Bahama Islands, from the payment of the duties now chargeable thereon in such places under the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Whitehall, May 15, 1841.

The Queen has been graciously pleased to order a writ to be issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, for summoning Sir Jacob Astley, of Melton Constable, in the county of Norfolk, and of Seaton Delaval, in the county of Northumberland, Bart. to the House of Peers, by the name, stile, and title of Baron Hastings, he being one of the heirs of Sir John de Hastings, Baron Hastings, who was summoned to and sat in Parliament in the eighteenth year of the reign of King Edward the First.

Whitehall, May 18, 1841.

The Queen has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, nominating, presenting, and appointing the Reverend Thomas Vowler Short, D. D. to the bishoprick of the isle of Man and Sodor, void by the translation of the Right Reverend Father in God Doctor Henry Pepys to the see of Worcester.

Foreign-Office, May 15, 1841.

I THOMAS ROBINSON WILLIAMS, formerly of Norfolk-street, Strand, in the county of Middlesex, but now of No. 157, Blackfriars-road, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, hereby give notice, that I intend to apply to Her Majesty in Council, for a prolongation, for the further term of seven years (or such other term, not exceeding seven years, as Her Majesty shall please), of my term of sole using and vending my invention of improvements in the making of hats, bonnets, and caps, and in the covering of them with silk and other materials with the assistance of machinery, granted to me, my executors, administrators, and assigns, by certain letters patent, bearing date the 11th day of September 1828, within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, the dominion of Wales, and town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; and I, the said Thomas Robinson Williams, do hereby give further notice, that I intend to apply to the Right Honourable the Lords comprising the Judicial Committee of Her Majesty's Honourable Privy Council, on the 21st day of June next (if the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting on that day, or otherwise on the first day after the said 21st day of June next upon which the Judicial Committee shall meet or be sitting), for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of my said petition, for such prolongation of the said term, as hereinbefore mentioned; and all persons desirous of being heard, in opposition to the prayer of the said petition, are hereby required to enter caveats at the Privy Council-office on or before the said 21st day of June next.—Dated this 10th day of May 1841.

Thomas Robinson Williams.

Equivalent-Office, May 13, 1841.

THE Court of Directors of the Equivalent Company give notice, that the transfer-books of the said Company will be shut on Wednesday the 9th of June next, and continue so till Wednesday the 7th of July following, in order to settle the dividend due on the 5th of said month of July.

And they further give notice, that the warrants for the said dividend will be ready to be delivered out and paid on Wednesday the said 7th of July next, and afterwards every Wednesday, from one to three o'clock, at their House, No. 7, Dowgate-hill, London, and at the said Company's Office, in Edinburgh.

Thomas Gregory Smith, Secretary.

LONDON AND BLACKWALL RAILWAY.

WHEREAS the London and Blackwall Railway Company, under their Act of Parliament, passed in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making a railway from the Minories to Blackwall, with branches, to be called the 'Commercial Railway;'" and another Act, passed in the second and third years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for extending the line of the railway between London and Blackwall, called 'the Commercial Railway,' and for amending the Acts relating thereto;" and another Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act for granting further powers to the London and Blackwall Railway Company;" are authorised and required to contract for and to sell such superfluous lands as might be purchased by the said Company, or any estate or interest in such lands, first offering to sell the same to the person or to the several persons whose lands or premises shall immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, by notice to be inserted twice in the London Gazette, and twice in two London newspapers; now the said Company do hereby give notice, that they propose immediately to sell and dispose of the superfluous lands mentioned in the schedule hereto, and more particularly described in a plan which may be seen at the Office of the said Company, at No. 60, Fenchurch-street, in the city of London; and they do therefore hereby first offer to sell the same lands, with their respective appurtenances, to the person or to the several persons whose lands or premises immediately adjoin the lands so proposed to be sold, for such price or prices as may be agreed upon between such person or persons and the said Company, or (in case of disagreement as to price) as shall be ascertained by a jury in the manner directed by the said first mentioned Act; and that, unless such person or persons shall be desirous of purchasing such lands so proposed to be sold, and shall signify such his or their desire and intention in that behalf to the said Company, within thirty days after this offer of sale, the said Company will proceed to sell and dispose of such lands to any other person or persons in such manner as they shall think fit, and as they are or shall be authorised by their said Acts of Parliament or otherwise to do. — Dated this 15th day of May 1841.
