

New bills, bearing an interest of two pence one farthing by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 16th day of June, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal of the Exchequer Bills issued under the above-mentioned Act of 3 Victoria, cap. 12, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 9th day of June, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 17th day of June 1841.

The bills to be classed in separate lists, according to the Acts under which they have been issued.

The bills issued for carrying on public works and fisheries, and for relief of West India Islands, will be paid off in money.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to April 1840, have been advertised to be paid off.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the New Jerusalem Temple, situated at Heywood, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, in the district of Bury, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship; and that another building, named Saint Mary's Chapel, situated at Bury, in the parish and district aforesaid, being a building licenced and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic chapel exclusively, were, on the 5th day of May 1841, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 10th day of May 1841,

Wm. Harper, Superintendent Registrar.

HER Majesty's writ of ad quod damnum having issued to the Sheriff of the county of Kent, in the following words: "Victoria, by the grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, to the Sheriff of Kent, greeting, we command you that by the oath of honest and lawful men of your county, by whom the truth of the matter may be best known, you diligently enquire whether or no it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or any other, if we should grant to George Belshaw, of Herne-bay, in the parish of Herne, in the county of Kent, and of the Piazza, Covent-garden, in the county of Middlesex, wine merchant, his heirs and assigns, for ever, licence to have, hold, and enjoy an open and public market, on every day in the week (Sundays excepted), upon a certain close, piece, or parcel of land, situate, lying, and being at Herne-bay aforesaid, bounded on the north partly by the backs of houses in Saint Augustine-terrace, partly by the back of certain premises belonging to Mr. Bell and Mr. Fassell, and partly by the public highway fronting the sea; on the south by Mortimer-street; on the east partly by premises belonging to Mr. Cobb, and partly by premises belonging to Mr. Crundell; and on the west by Beach-street, or some part thereof, for buying and selling all and all manner of fish, flesh, fowl, vegetables, roots, herbs, and other provisions of victual for mankind; also all and all manner of corn, grain, hay, and straw, and other provisions of victual for cattle; together with all goods, wares, and merchandizes, and other commodities usually bought and sold in markets, together with reasonable toll, stallage, piccage, and all other liberties, privileges, emoluments, remedies, and incidents for the full enjoyment of the said market; and if it will be to the damage or prejudice of us, or of any other, or to the hurt of the neighbouring markets or fairs, then to what damage or prejudice of us, or of any other, or to what hurt of the aforesaid markets or fairs, and of whom and how and in what manner, and that you return the inquisition thereof distinctly and plainly made, without delay, into our Chancery, under your seal and the seals of those by whom it shall be taken, together with this writ.—Witness ourself, at Westminster, the 17th day of May, in the fourth year of our reign.

Bentall."

Notice is hereby given, that an inquisition will be taken, by virtue and in execution of the said writ, on Friday the 11th day of June next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon of the same day, at the house of Thomas Mytton Skrymsher, commonly called or known by the name or sign of the Pier Hotel, at Herne-bay, in the parish of Herne, in the county of Kent, when and where all and every persons and person who may consider themselves, himself, or herself, or their, his, or her estate likely to be injured or affected by the aforesaid licence, are to attend.—Dated this 24th day of May 1841.

Roche, Plowman, and Roche, Charles-street, Covent-garden.

CONTRACT FOR LIGNUM VITÆ.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, May 19, 1841.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Thursday the 3d June next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying Her Majesty's Dock yard at Portsmouth with 30 tons of Lignum Vitæ, of from 6½ to 7½ inches in diameter.

A form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Lignum Vitæ," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £200, for the due performance of the contract.
