

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Benjamin Jacques, of Standard-hill, within the liberties of the Castle of Nottingham, John Cotton, of Nottingham-park, in the county of Nottingham, and Thomas Barfoot Oliver, of Quorndon, in the county of Leicester, carrying on business in copartnership, in the town of Nottingham, as Hosiery, Dealers and Chapman, may receive a further Dividend of seven shillings in the pound, by applying at the office of Messrs. W. and S. Parsons, junr. in Nottingham aforesaid, on Tuesday the 8th day of June instant, and on every succeeding Tuesday, between the hours of eleven and one o'clock.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Cole, late of No. 6, Jeffrey's-square, Saint Mary Axe, in the city of London, and afterwards of No. 3, Basinghall-street, in the said city, Scrivener, Picture Dealer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees on Wednesday the 30th day of June instant, at twelve of the clock at noon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting an offer of compromise in satisfaction of all claims upon the estate of John Wells Bozon, and the trustees thereof.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Charles Hepper, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Hotel Keeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 6th day of July next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Clarendon-rooms, in South John-street, in Liverpool aforesaid, in order to assent to, or dissent from the assignees paying, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain costs, charges, and expences, which were incurred by the petitioning creditors, with reference to the said bankrupt's affairs prior to the issuing of the said Fiat, the nature, particulars, and amount of which will be explained at the said meeting; and also to assent to, confirm, ratify, and allow, or to dissent from and disallow, any other acts, matters, or things of any nature or kind soever which have heretofore been done, transacted, or performed by the provisional assignee, or by the said assignees, or any of them, which shall be submitted to them at the said meeting.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Rebecca Drewry, of Penrith, in the county of Cumberland, Banker, Grocer, Coal Miner, Dealer and Chapwoman, are desired to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 30th day of June instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Crown Hotel, in Penrith aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignees carrying on and working the colliery leased by the said bankrupt at Weary Hall, for the benefit of and at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, until such time as the same shall be sold; and also to their employing proper persons to work and manage the said colliery, until the same can be sold, and allowing such wages and compensation as to the said assignees may appear reasonable; and also to the said assignees paying and discharging all such rents, taxes, wages, duties, and other outgoings, incurred previously to and after the issuing of the said fiat, and to become due and payable during such time as the said assignees may continue in the possession of and carry on the said colliery, for the purposes aforesaid, but so as that the said assignees shall not be liable for any loss during such continuance therein; or to assent to or dissent from the assignees selling and disposing of the said colliery, and all materials for working the same, as well those now in use as not in use, by public auction or private contract, for such price or prices as they may be able to obtain for the same, and giving time for payment, or taking security for the same, at the risk of the estate; and also to assent to or dissent from certain proposals which have been made concerning the said colliery to be explained at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or equity, concerning the said colliery, to be explained at the meeting, or making any application to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, for deferring, recovering, or concerning any part of the said estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from certain proposals made by the parties claiming to have an equitable mortgage upon the Greengill estate, to be explained at the meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees abandoning and giving up the possession of all the real estate of the said bankrupt to the several mortgagees, or to the said assignees carrying on the farm at Greengill for the benefit and at the risk of the bankrupt's estate, until it can be sold or disposed of by the said assignees; and also to sanction all such matters and things as the said assignees shall and may do, or have done, prior or subsequent to the said meeting, in and about or concerning the said bankrupt's estate, or trade, or business; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing any matter or thing relating to the bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to authorise the said assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said bankrupt in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special matters.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 7th day of June 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by SAMUEL HAMNETT, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Licenced Victualler, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

GEORGE MOBBS, of Newland, Northampton, in the county of Northampton, Plumber, Glazier, and Painter, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy is awarded and issued forth against Emile Moriniere Demaisse and Henry Thomas Wooler, of Bucklersbury, in the city of London, Merchants and Copartners, and they being
