AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 23d day of June 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

1. WHEREAS it is expedient to alter and amend a certain Order made by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, for the management and collection of His said Majesty's revenues at Gibraltar, and bearing date at the Court at Saint James's, on the fourth of February one thousand eight hundred and thirty-three; it is, therefore, hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the schedule annexed to the said Order of His late Majesty be abolished and rescinded, and that the schedule to this Order annexed, marked A, and intituled "Schedule of Rates and Duties referred to and established by the foregoing Order," be substituted in lieu thereof; and that all the provisions in the said Order of His late Majesty, which apply to the schedule to the said Order annexed, shall apply to the schedule annexed to this Order save and except such provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty as are hereby repealed.

2. And it is hereby further ordered, that no spirits, strong waters, or cordials, of a greater strength than nine in one hundred over proof by Sykes's hydrometer, shall be admitted for consumption within the garrison or territory of Gibraltar, save and except rums and spirits the produce of Great Britain, British colonies or plantations; provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect spirits to be infused into wines.

3. And it is hereby further ordered, that a quantity, not exceeding the proportion of seven gallons of spirits to one pipe of wine, shall be allowed free of duty, to be infused into a pipe of wine under the following regulations, that is to say, two hours' notice of the intention to infuse must be given to the Master or to the Clerk of the Porters, under the superintendence of one of which Officers the infusion must be made; if the whole of the spirits is not at any one time infused, the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall ascertain the strength and quantity of the spirits that remain uninfused, which may be left in the custody of the owner, for a period not exceeding three days; and, if not used for infusion during that period, the spirits must be removed to the Queen's stores, at the expence and risk of the owner thereof, in the original cask or package from which the quantity for infusion was taken, or the duty mentioned in the schedule for spirits consumed in the garrison and territory must be paid thereon; if the Master or the Clerk of the Porters shall, during the period of three days above mentioned, discover any alteration in the strength or quantity of the remaining uninfused spirits, or if there shall have been any removal thereof from the original cask or package from which the quantity
