

to the said chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that district should comprize the whole of the township of Shadforth, and a part of the township of Sherburn, lying to the west of the said township of Shadforth, and should be named "St. Cuthbert's District, Shadforth."

"The boundary thereof to commence on or towards the south of the lane or road leading from Sherburn-house to or towards Hartlepool; thence proceeds in a north westerly direction along the boundary, dividing the township of Cassop and Shadforth, to the place at which the township of Cassop joins the township of Sherburn-house; from thence runs in a northerly direction to a stream of water called Shadforth Beck, where a bounder stone is, or is intended to be, erected or placed, denoting the boundary of the said chapelry of Saint Cuthbert's; from thence continues in a straight line in a north easterly direction on the west side of the village of Sherburn-hill to a point in the lane leading from Sherburn to Low Haswell, where another bounder stone is, or is intended to be, placed, denoting the boundary of the said chapelry; and from thence in a south easterly direction to the boundary which divides the townships of Pittington and Low Haswell-house, in a south easterly direction along the boundary line which divides the said township of Shadforth from the several townships of Low Haswell, High Haswell, and Shotton; and from thence in a westerly direction along the boundary line which divides the said township of Shadforth from the townships of Wingate and Thornley until it reaches the said lane leading from Sherburn-house to or towards Hartlepool, at which the boundary commences, as the same is more particularly delineated in the plan hereunto annexed, and therein coloured yellow:

"That marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

"Your Majesty's Commissioners therefore beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.

C. C. Greville.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named St. Chad's Cathedral, situated at Bath-street, in the parish of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 3d day of July 1841, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein (and substituted for the registered building, now disused, named St. Chad's Chapel, in Shadwell-street, in the parish of Birmingham, in the county of Warwick), pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Henry Knight, Superintendent Registrar.

Boston Harbour and River Welland Dues.

NOTICE is hereby given, that it is intended, in the ensuing session of Parliament, to renew the application to Parliament made in the last session, for "A Bill for making better provision for effecting improvements in the river Welland, and the port and harbour of Boston, in the county of Lincoln, and amending the several Acts relating to the same;" by which Bill it is intended to repeal an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to extend the powers of the several Acts now in force for improving the port and harbour of Boston, in the county of Lincoln," and to make provision for transferring, and making payable to the trustees of the river Welland, the tonnage and lastage rates or duties, payable in respect of ships or vessels entering the port and harbour of Boston, for the purpose of navigating or using the river Welland, and for otherwise amending and extending some of the powers of the several Acts relating to the said port and harbour and river Welland respectively. Dated this 28th day of June 1841.

By order, Cha. Bonner.
