

14. And it is hereby further ordered, that all bottles contained in any one package, and in which wines, spirits, strong waters, and cordials, liable to the payment of duty, shall be imported or introduced into the garrison and territory of Gibraltar, shall be of one uniform size and shape.

And it is hereby further ordered, that the Imperial gallon shall be the standard of measure in all cases wherein the term gallon is used in this Order.

15. And it is further ordered, that the Collector of Her Majesty's Revenues for the time being, shall frame and make such rules and regulations as to him, from time to time, shall appear expedient, for the management and collection of Her Majesty's Revenues at Gibraltar; such rules and regulations, nevertheless, not to be binding, until the same shall be approved of by the person administering the Government of Gibraltar for the time being, and shall be published by proclamation within the said garrison and territory.

16. And it is hereby further ordered, that, if any person or persons shall have in his, her, or their custody or possession any wines, or any spirits, strong waters, or cordials, on which the duty mentioned in the schedule hereunto annexed shall not have been paid, or which shall have been introduced, landed, or removed, contrary to the provisions of this Order, such person or persons shall forfeit a sum not exceeding ten pounds, together with all such wines and such spirits, strong waters, and cordials.

17. And it is hereby further ordered, that no person or persons shall carry on or exercise, within the said garrison and territory, the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or let to hire any truck or cart, or keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or public billiard table, without taking out a licence for such purpose; and the said licence shall be granted under the hand and seal of the Police Magistrate for the time being, and shall be in such form, and contain such particulars as to the said Police Magistrate shall, from time to time, appear fit and proper, and no such licence as aforesaid shall be granted till the person or persons applying for the same shall enter into a bond, with two sufficient sureties, to Her Majesty, her heirs, and successors, in such penal sum as to the said Police Magistrate shall seem expedient, conditioned for the full and faithful observance of the rules and regulations as mentioned in the said Order of His late Majesty, to be, from time to time, framed and made.

18. And it is hereby further ordered, that if any person or persons shall keep any public tavern, wine house, spirit store, or eating house, or any public billiard table, or shall carry on or exercise the trade, business, occupation, or calling of a tobacconist, broker, hawker, pedlar, or porter, or shall let to hire any cart or truck, within the said garrison and territory, without such licence as is hereinbefore described, such person or persons shall forfeit and pay for every such offence a sum not exceeding ten pounds.

19. And it is hereby further ordered, that all penalties or forfeitures incurred or imposed by the said Order of His said late Majesty, or by this Order, not exceeding the sum of ten pounds, shall and may be sued for, prosecuted, and recovered, either in the manner and form prescribed for that purpose in the said Order of His late Majesty, or by oath of one credible witness before any Justice of the Peace of the said garrison and territory, and shall be levied, if not immediately paid, by warrant, under the hand and seal of such justice, upon the goods and chattels of the offender; and, in case no such goods or chattels can be found, then and in that case such person or persons shall and may be imprisoned, in the provost of the said garrison and territory, for any period not exceeding three months, any thing in the said Order of His late Majesty to the contrary notwithstanding.

20. And it is hereby further ordered, that all and singular the provisions of the said Order of His late Majesty, touching and concerning the possession of things illegally imported, introduced, or removed, the seizing of things, the custody, condemnation, and disposal of things seized, the mitigation of penalties, and the division thereof, and of the proceeds of things seized or the value thereof, the person to whom rates and duties shall be paid, the interrupting or opposing of Revenue Officers or injuring things seized, the person on whom proof of certain things shall lie with respect to things seized, and the period within which certain actions shall be brought, shall apply to this Order and all matters and things herein contained, save and except as it is herein otherwise ordered.
