

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Robert Field, of Cartmell, in the county of Lancaster, Banker, Money Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Thursday the 19th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Commercial Inn, in Kendal, in the said county of Westmorland, in order to assent to or dissent from the assignee accepting a proposal which has been submitted to him, on the part of the bankrupt, for the purchase of the real estate, and the book debts and outstanding personal estate of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Danford, late of Battersea-fields, in the county of Surrey, and of George-yard, Lombard-street, in the city of London, Money Scrivener, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of August next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding for, paying off, or otherwise satisfying and discharging certain claims, or alleged claims, and liabilities upon or affecting certain estates and property, or the reversion and reversions therein, to which the said bankrupt is entitled; and also to the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part or parts of the said estates and property, or of the bankrupt's interest therein, either by public sale or private contract; and to the said assignees entering into and executing or taking such agreement or agreements, deed or deeds of assignment, conveyance, release, or other assurance, as shall be necessary and shall be deemed expedient for carrying into effect any arrangement to be entered into by the said assignees relating to such estate and property, part of the said bankrupt's estate (the particulars of which estates and property, and of the alleged claims thereon, will be stated at such meeting), for such sum or sums of money, or other good consideration, and upon and under such terms and conditions as the said assignees in their discretion shall think advisable either to accept or take, or to give, as or for the consideration for making and entering into any such agreement or agreements, deed or deeds of assignments, conveyance, release, or other assurance, as shall be necessary for assigning, conveying, releasing, or otherwise assuring the same estate and property, or any part or parts thereof accordingly, or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or releasing any account or accounts, debt or debts, claims, transactions, matters, or things whatsoever relating to the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Milne, of High Crompton, within Crompton, in the county of Lancaster, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 18th day of August next, at ten of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the Queen's Head Inn, in Shaw, within Crompton aforesaid, to ratify and confirm the acts and dealings of the said assignee relating to the said bankrupt's estate since his appointment; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of the freehold and leasehold estates, and chattels real, of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and to any person or persons whomsoever, and for ready money or upon credit, or partly for ready money or upon credit, and upon, under, and subject to such conditions as he shall deem advisable, and to his buying in, or causing to be bought, any part or parts of the said bankrupt's property that may be so put up for sale, and to resell the same, either by public auction or private contract, and either for ready money or on credit, with like powers to buy in and resell the same in manner aforesaid, as to the said assignee shall seem expedient, and to his taking such security or securities for the purchase money, or any part thereof, as he shall deem proper, without being liable to account or bear any loss which may happen by reason of the selling on credit, and taking any such security or securities, or which may happen by reason of such resale or resales as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending, at the risk and expence of the said bankrupt's estate, any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or in the Court of Review of Bankruptcy, or any other proceedings which may at any time hereafter become necessary for or concerning the recovery or protection of any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee compounding any debt or debts, or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise settling and agreeing any matter, claim, or dispute now existing, or which may at any time hereafter arise, respecting or in anywise concerning the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, on such terms as the said assignee shall think expedient; and to authorise the said assignee generally to take such measures in the arrangement and settlement of the affairs, estate, and effects of the said bankrupt as he, from time to time, shall think expedient and necessary for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 24th day of July 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by GEORGE ANTON and GEORGE DUNCAN MITCHELL, of No. 56, Corn Exchange, Mark-lane, in the city of London, Corn Factors and Copartners, that they are in insolvent circumstances, and are unable to meet their engagements with their creditors.

WHEREAS a Fiat in Bankruptcy, bearing date on or about the 23d day of March 1841, was awarded and issued forth against John Harlow, of Macclesfield, in the county of Chester, Ironmonger, Dealer and Chapman; this is to give notice, that the said Fiat is, by an order of the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, bearing date the 9th day of June 1841, and duly confirmed by the Lord High Chancellor, annulled.
