

tor, in Dudley aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the real and personal estate of the said bankrupt, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by one mode and partly by the other, or by valuation, and either together or in parcels, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without security for the purchase money, or any part thereof, and at the entire risk and expence of the estate, and at such price or prices as may be offered for the same, or any part thereof, and upon such conditions and restrictions, in regard to the title and in all other respects, as the said assignees may think proper; and in the event of the said property, or any part thereof, being offered for sale by public auction, then to the said assignees, from time to time, as often as they may think proper, buying in the property offered by auction, or any part thereof, and reselling the same, or any part thereof, at any future auction or by private contract, in such manner as they shall think fit, at the entire risk and loss (if any) of the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making any arrangement they may think proper with the mortgagees, both legal and equitable, of any part thereof of the said bankrupt's estate, and to concur with such mortgagees in selling and disposing thereof in such way and manner as the said assignees shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the assets which shall come to their hands belonging to the said bankrupt's estate, the costs, charges, and expences incurred by certain of the creditors of the said bankrupt, previous to the issuing of the said fiat, in endeavouring to effect an arrangement of the said bankrupt's affairs; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting a suit or suits, in Her Majesty's High Court of Chancery, against a certain person, who will be named at such meeting, for the purpose of setting aside, as fraudulent, a certain deed of mortgage made and executed by the said bankrupt to a certain person to be named at such meeting, of certain leasehold property at Dudley aforesaid, the full particulars whereof will be stated at such meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees settling, compromising, arranging, agreeing, and discontinuing such suit or suits when commenced, at any time they may think proper or be advised, and upon such terms and in such manner as they may deem most advantageous for the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees being at liberty and being empowered either to pay or compromise, and to compound with any person or persons claiming any charge or lien on the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees making to any accountant, or any other person to be employed by them in the making up of the accounts of the said bankrupt, or in collecting any debts owing to the said estate, such remuneration and allowance for his trouble, time, and expences as the said assignees may think proper; and also to the said assignees, compounding or submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, and finally arranging any claims, matters, and things whatsoever from, by, upon or relating to the said bankrupt's estate and effects; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the estate of the said bankrupt in such way and manner as they shall, from time to time, think proper; and on other special business.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Bragge Winter, of the city of Bristol, Builder and Dealer in Timber, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 30th day of August instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the offices of Mr. Edward Hutchins, Solicitor, Stephen-street, Bristol, in order to a sent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and a loving to certain persons, to be named at such meeting, certain costs, charges, payments, and expences in and about calling and attending certain meetings of creditors, and for preparing and getting executed a certain deed of assignment, for the benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupt, previous to the issuing of the said fiat, as to such assignees may seem reasonable and proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting the same; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting, or defending and opposing, at the risk of the said bankrupt's estate, any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, for the recovery, protection, or defence of any of the debts, estate, or effects of the said bankrupt as they shall think advisable and proper, or to the assignees compounding for, and taking less than the whole of any debt or debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring any disputes to arbitration, or otherwise compromising or settling any dispute, debt, claim, or demand whatsoever, which may exist or arise between the said assignees and any other person or persons whomsoever, or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of, either by public sale or private contract, at a valuation or otherwise, the said estates and property, such said estates and property of the said bankrupt as at the time of such meeting may remain unsold, either by public auction or private contract, or otherwise, as the said assignees shall deem expedient; also to the said assignees paying off or making such arrangements with the mortgagees or other persons or person having or claiming to have, any mortgage or lien, or charge, upon all or any part of such freehold, leasehold, and personal estate as the said assignees shall think most expedient and beneficial, or to their resisting and disputing any such mortgage, lien, or charge; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees sanctioning and confirming any sale or sales which may have been made before such meeting, of all or any part of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, or to reject and disallow the same; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act in and about the affairs of the said bankrupt for the benefit of the said bankrupt's estate in such a manner as to such assignees shall seem prudent and advisable; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intitled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 6th day of August 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by CHARLES TRAPPS, of Abridge, in the parish of Lambourne, in the county of Essex, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.