*Church Commissioners' Office,
August 7, 1841.*

THE following is a copy of an amended Order of Her Majesty in Council, for assigning a district to St. Peter's Chapel, in the parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3, cap. 134, and revoking a previous Order, dated the 11th of September 1840, in consequence of the description therein of the boundaries being inaccurate:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 4th day of June 1841, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until, after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council; and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the ninth of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that they did, on the nineteenth day of August last, represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was held, the parish of Maidstone, in the county of Kent and diocese of Canterbury, contained a population of 15,387 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which afforded accommodation to 2500 persons, there were two chapels in the said parish, one called Trinity Chapel, recently erected by your Majesty's said Commissioners, which afforded accommodation to 1840 persons, and the other, called St. Peter's Chapel, which afforded accommodation to 676 persons, including 220 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor:

"That the said last-mentioned chapel had been consecrated, and divine service was regularly performed therein:

"That your Majesty's said Commissioners having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appeared to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, called St. Peter's Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named "The Saint Peter's District," with boundaries as follows:

"This district is bounded on or towards the west by the parishes of Barming and Aylesford, on or towards the north by the said parish of Alesford, and on or towards the east and south east, and north east, by the river Medway, which divides it from the remaining part of the parish of Maidstone and the parish of East Farleigh, as the same was more particularly delineated in the plan thereunto annexed, and therein tinted green:

"That baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Maidstone, be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

"That the consent of His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Archbishop had signed and sealed that instrument:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners, therefore, begged leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly prayed that your Majesty would be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom should seem meet:

"That your Majesty was graciously pleased, by and with the advice of Your Majesty's Privy Council, by your Majesty's Order in Council, dated the eleventh of September, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, to order and direct, that the proposed assignment should be accordingly made and effected, which was accordingly done, and notified, registered, and enrolled, pursuant to the said Acts:

"That your Majesty's said Commissioners have since discovered that, in the description of the said district, there is error in this, that the parish of Aylesford is stated to form part of the boundary of the said district, on the west and on the north, instead of the parish of Allington, which adjoins to the said proposed district on the west and north, which the parish of Aylesford does not:

"That by reason of this mistake your Majesty's said Order in Council for the assignment of the said district is erroneous:

"That the facts stated in the said representation, with the exception above-stated, remain the same:

"That your Majesty's said Commissioners are of opinion that baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said chapel, and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Maidstone, be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel:

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to revoke your Majesty's said Order in Council, and to make such further Order for the assignment of the said district according to the boundary now stated, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts, as to Your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the premises into Her royal consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Order in Council of the eleventh of September one thousand eight hundred and forty-one be cancelled and revoked, and made null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever; and Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the assignment of the said district, according to the boundary stated in the said representation of the ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, be made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
