

terest which has accrued thereon, amount to the sum of nine hundred and seventy pounds eighteen shillings and twopence.

“ And whereas by the said first recited Act, the rectory of the said parish of Saint John became and was permanently annexed and united to the canonry in the said collegiate Church of Saint Peter, Westminster, then held by John Jennings, Clerk, Master of Arts; and it was enacted that, when and so often as according to the statutes or usages of the chapter of the said collegiate church, any division should be made of any profit or emoluments, from whatever source accruing, or any stipend or other sum of money should become payable to the members of the said chapter, as such members, the share of such profits and emoluments which, according to such statutes or usages, should be found to belong to the said canonry or the incumbent thereof, and every such stipend or other sum of money so payable to such incumbent, instead of being paid to such incumbent, should, by the treasurer, for the time being, of the said chapter, be divided into twelve equal parts, and eight only of such parts should be paid to or for the use of the incumbent, for the time being, of the said canonry, and the remaining four parts should be paid in such manner, and to such uses, as should by the authority hereinafter provided be directed.

“ And whereas by the said secondly recited Act, it was enacted that it should be lawful to apply such last mentioned moneys towards making a better provision for the cure of souls in the said parish of Saint John, in such manner as by the authority in the said first recited Act provided should be deemed best for the spiritual interests of the said parish; and that it should also be lawful, by the like authority, in the same manner, to apply the moneys so paid over to us by the Treasurer of the Bounty of Queen Anne, as aforesaid.

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that we shall be authorized and empowered to appropriate the said sum of nine hundred and seventy pounds eighteen shillings and twopence, being such principal and interest as aforesaid, toward erecting and building a house of residence for the minister of the district church of Saint Mary, within the said parish of Saint John, upon a site, the leasehold interest in which has been lately purchased by the said John Jennings out of his own proper moneys, and the reversion of which has been duly assigned by the said Dean and Chapter for such house of residence.

“ And we further recommend and propose, as to the said four twelfth parts of the profits and emoluments of the said canonry, as well those which have already accrued, as those which may hereafter accrue, that the treasurer, for the time being, of the said chapter, do forthwith, and from time to time, pay two of such four parts to the minister, for the time being of the said district church of Saint Mary, and the other two of such parts, to the minister, for the time being, of the church now about to be erected in the district of Peter-street, in the said parish, so soon as such last mentioned church shall have been completed, and a district legally assigned thereto; and in the mean time, to the said John Jennings and his successors, as rectors of the said parish of Saint John, to be by him and them paid to such spiritual person, as shall be duly licensed by the Lord Bishop of London, for the time being, to officiate within such district of the said parish, as the said Bishop shall define and describe in the licence.

“ And we recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the matters to which this scheme relates, or any of them in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them.

And whereas, notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, pursuant to the provisions of the said Act herein first recited, and no objection has been made thereto.

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct, that the same shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the Diocese of London.
