PRESENT

Her Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixth day of July one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for the endowment of the archdeaconry of Craven, in the diocese of Ripon:

Whereas by virtue of an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to the episcopal dioceses, benefices, and patronage," and by an Order of His said Majesty in Council, dated the fifth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty-six, ratifying a scheme which we prepared and laid before His said Majesty in Council, under the provisions of the same Act, the archdeaconry of Craven was duly founded in the diocese of Ripon, and a district was assigned thereto:

"And whereas the Venerable Charles Musgrave, Doctor in Divinity, was thereupon duly collated to the same archdeaconry, and has since been, and now is, Archdeacon thereof, and is resident within the said diocese, but no endowment has been, or is possessor enjoyed by him as such Archdeacon:

We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, testified by his having signed and sealed this scheme, that the said archdeaconry of Craven, in the diocese of Ripon, shall be endowed by augmentation, out of the common fund in the first recited Act mentioned, and that accordingly there shall be paid by us to the said Charles Musgrave, and his successors archdeacons of Craven, for the time being, so long as he and they respectively shall continue to hold the office of archdeacon of Craven, and shall duly reside within the said diocese, according to the provisions of the said first recited Act, the annual sum of one hundred and eighty pounds, out of the moneys from time to time carried over to such common fund, on the first day of January in every year, on production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the bishop of the said diocese for the time being, that such archdeacon has duly resided during the preceding year, and that the effect of such payments shall be made on the first day of January next ensuing; and that whenever a vacancy in the said archdeaconry shall happen on any other day than the first day of January, the next yearly payment shall be apportioned between the archdeacon making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry according to the time which shall have elapsed on the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive, and such proportion shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly:

And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure relating to the endowment of the said archdeaconry of Craven, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council, now, therefore, Her
