

“venient port or ports for shipping the produce of any state to be also named in such Order, shall, although not situated within the dominions of such state, be port or ports for the use of the ships of such state in the trade of such ships with all parts of the British dominions, or with any part or parts of the same named and limited in such Order, in as full and ample a manner as if such port or ports were within the dominion of such state; and thereupon, and for so long a time as such Order shall be declared to be in force, or shall remain unrevoked, it shall be lawful to import into the British dominions, or into such parts of the same as shall be named and limited in such Order, from such port or ports, in the ships of such state, any goods which, by the laws in force at the time of such importation, might then be imported in such ships from a port of the country to which they belonged, and so to import such goods upon the like terms as the same could there be imported from the national ports of such ships:”

And whereas a Convention of Commerce and Navigation was entered into between Her Majesty and the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, on the third of August last, whereby British vessels, coming from countries not being part of the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, shall henceforward, together with their cargoes, be admitted into the ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh; and such vessels shall, on their admission, pay dues not higher nor other than those which shall be paid in similar circumstances by vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamburgh; and the duties to be paid upon the cargoes of such British vessels shall not be higher nor other than if such cargoes had been imported in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamburgh:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in pursuance of the power and authority in Her vested by the said Statutes, to order and declare, and doth hereby order and declare, that all goods, wares, and merchandize, being the produce of the States of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States comprised in the Germanic Union of Customs, and which may be imported in any foreign vessels from the ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, or from any port situated on the Elbe or Weser, into the ports of the British possessions abroad, including Gibraltar and Malta, shall also be permitted to be imported from the said ports of the Free Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, into the ports of the said British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, built, owned, and navigated as stipulated in the fifth article of the Convention of Commerce and Navigation, concluded on the twenty-ninth of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, between Great Britain, on the one part, and the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburgh, on the other part; and such goods, wares, and merchandize, being the produce of the Free Hanseatic Republics, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States of the Germanic Union of Customs, and so imported in Hanseatic vessels into the ports of the said British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), and all goods, wares, and merchandize exported in Hanseatic vessels, built, owned, and navigated as aforesaid, from the ports of the British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), to any foreign country whatever, shall pay no other or higher duties than if the same were imported or exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
