

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1841.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of October 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the eleventh day of November next, to Tuesday the twenty-first day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of September 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, c. 77, intituled "An Act to authorize His Majesty, under certain circumstances, to regulate the duties and drawbacks on goods imported or exported in foreign vessels, and to exempt certain foreign vessels from pilotage," His Majesty is authorized, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, or by His Majesty's Order or Orders in Council to be published, from time to time, in the London Gazette, to authorize the importation into, or exportation from, the United Kingdom, or from any other of His Majesty's dominions, of any goods, wares, and merchandize which may be legally imported or exported in foreign vessels, upon payment of such and the like duties only, and with the like drawbacks, bounties, and allowances as are charged or granted upon similar goods, wares, or merchandize when imported or exported in British vessels; provided always, that before any such Order or Orders shall be issued, satisfactory proof shall have been laid before His Majesty and His Privy Council, that goods, wares, and merchandize imported into, or exported from, the foreign country in whose favour such remission of duties, or such drawbacks, bounties, or allowances shall be granted, are charged with the same duties, and are allowed the same drawbacks, bounties, or allowances when imported into, or exported from, such foreign country in British vessels, as are levied or allowed on similar goods, wares, and merchandize when imported or exported in vessels of such country:

And whereas by an Act, made in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to enable Her Majesty to carry into effect certain stipulations contained in a Treaty of Commerce and Navigation between Her Majesty and the Emperor of Austria, and to enable Her Majesty to declare, by Order in Council, that ports, that are the most natural and convenient shipping ports of states within whose dominions they are situated, may, in certain cases, be " considered, for all purposes of trade with Her Majesty's dominions, as the national ports of such states," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that, from and after the passing of the said Act, notwithstanding any thing contained in an Act, passed in the session of Parliament of the third and fourth years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled " An Act for the encouragement of British shipping and navigation," it should be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, to declare by Her Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, " that any port or ports to be named in such Order, being the most convenient port or ports for shipping the produce of any state to be also named in such Order, shall, although not situated within the dominions of such state, be port or ports for the use of the ships of such state in the trade of such ships with all parts of the British dominions, or with any part or parts of the same named and limited in such Order, in as full and ample a manner as if such port or ports were within the dominion of such state; and thereupon, and for so long a time as such Order shall be declared to be in force, or shall remain unrevoked, it shall be lawful to import into the British dominions, or into such parts of the same as shall be named and limited in such Order, from such port or ports, in the ships of such state, any goods which, by the laws in force at the time of such importation, might then be imported in such ships from a port of the country to which they belonged, and so to import such goods upon the like terms as the same could there be imported from the national ports of such ships:"

And whereas a Convention of Commerce and Navigation was entered into between Her Majesty and the Senates of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, on the third of August last, whereby British vessels, coming from countries not being part of the dominions of Her Britannic Majesty, shall henceforward, together with their cargoes, be admitted into the ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg; and such vessels shall, on their admission, pay dues not higher nor other than those which shall be paid in similar circumstances by vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamburg; and the duties to be paid upon the cargoes of such British vessels shall not be higher nor other than if such cargoes had been imported in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, or Hamburg:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased, in pursuance of the power and authority in Her vested by the said Statutes, to order and declare, and doth hereby order and declare, that all goods, wares, and merchandize, being the produce of the States of the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States comprised in the Germanic Union of Customs, and which may be imported in any foreign vessels from the ports of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, or from any port situated on the Elbe or Weser, into the ports of the British possessions abroad, including Gibraltar and Malta, shall also be permitted to be imported from the said ports of the Free Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, into the ports of the said British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), in vessels belonging to Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, built, owned, and navigated as stipulated in the fifth article of the Convention of Commerce and Navigation, concluded on the twenty-ninth of September one thousand eight hundred and twenty-five, between Great Britain, on the one part, and the Free Hanseatic Cities of Lubeck, Bremen, and Hamburg, on the other part; and such goods, wares, and merchandize, being the produce of the Free Hanseatic Republics, or of the other States of the Germanic Confederation, or of the States of the Germanic Union of Customs, and so imported in Hanseatic vessels into the ports of the said British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), and all goods, wares, and merchandize exported in Hanseatic vessels, built, owned, and navigated as aforesaid, from the ports of the British possessions abroad (including Gibraltar and Malta), to any foreign country whatever, shall pay no other or higher duties than if the same were imported or exported in British vessels:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of October 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fifth day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls in certain parishes, where such assistance is most required :

“ Whereas by reason of the suspension of certain canonries and prebends in several cathedral and collegiate churches, under the operation of the said Act, divers sums of money have already been paid to us, and have been by us carried over to a common fund, as by the same Act is directed ; and divers other monies will be yearly and every year, in like manner, payable to us, and will by us be carried over to the same fund :

“ And whereas it appears to us, after having carefully considered how the limited amount of monies, which are now in course of annually accruing to the said common fund, may be most usefully distributed according to the provisions of the said Act, that it will be most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church, to grant out of the said fund (in the first instance) such augmentations only as may be requisite to secure, as nearly as may be, an average annual net income of one hundred and fifty pounds, to the incumbent of every benefice or church with cure of souls ; being either a parish church, or a church or chapel with a district legally assigned thereto ; and having a population amounting to two thousand ; and being in the patronage either of your Majesty, or of some archbishop or bishop, dean and chapter, dean, archdeacon, prebendary or other dignitary or officer in some cathedral or collegiate church, or of some rector or vicar ; reserving to ourselves, nevertheless, the right of abstaining from recommending such augmentation in any case in which, from special circumstances, we shall be of opinion that it is not at present expedient :

“ And whereas we have satisfied ourselves, after due enquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed, fall within the class above defined, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that, in order to raise to the sum of one hundred and fifty pounds (as nearly as may be) the average annual net income of the several benefices and churches enumerated and described in the said schedule, there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, out of the common fund aforesaid, to the incumbent, for the time being, of each of such benefices and churches, the fixed annual sum which we have set opposite to the name thereof in the last column of the said schedule, by equal half yearly payments on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of November next ; and that whenever a vacancy in any of the said benefices or churches shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half yearly payment shall, in every such case, be apportioned between the incumbent making the vacancy, or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive ; and such proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation of any of such benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose ; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in course of payment by us to any benefice, or of any part of such sum, a sum of stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Reduced or Consolidated Bank Annuities should be appropriated thereto, or any land, tithe or other hereditament should be conveyed thereto in fee, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, provided that such stock, or such land, tithe or other hereditament, as the case may be, shall produce an annual sum not less than the annual sum for which the same shall be substituted ; and provided also that no such change shall take effect, except by the appropriation of stock as aforesaid, until the then next vacancy of the benefice affected thereby, without the written consent of the then existing incumbent thereof :

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing the augmentation of any other benefice which, upon further enquiry, shall appear to us to come within the said class, and to be fit for augmentation ; nor from extending augmentations to other classes, when the fund applicable thereto shall have sufficiently increased.”
