FRIDAY, OCTOBER 29, 1841.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 21st day of October 1841,

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued from Thursday the eleventh day of November next, to Tuesday the twenty-first day of December next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 6th day of October 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, on the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine,
an Order was made by Her Majesty in Council, confirming and allowing, with certain exceptions, and subject to certain rules and qualifications, an Ordinance enacted, on the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, by the Acting Lieutenant Governor of Trinidad, by and with the advice and consent of the Council and Government thereof, for the encouragement of immigration, and for the protection of persons immigrating into that colony:

And whereas it is thereby, amongst other things, ordered, that the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of the colony aforesaid shall not give effect to the above recited Ordinance, in so far as it encourages immigration, unless it be under such circumstances and with such precautions as shall ensure an equality in numbers between the male and female immigrants annually introduced under its provisions:

And whereas it hath appeared to Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, expedient to revoke the provision last aforesaid of the said recited Order:

It is, therefore, hereby ordered by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the provisions last aforesaid of the said recited Order in Council, of the thirtieth day of September one thousand eight hundred and thirty-nine, shall be, and the same are hereby, revoked:

And it is hereby ordered, that it shall and may be lawful for the Governor or Lieutenant Governor of Trinidad, after the passing of this present Order, to give effect to the above recited Ordinance, in so far as it encourages immigration, provided that in every case where immigrants are imported, under the provisions of the above recited Ordinance, one third, at least, of such immigrants shall consist of females:

And the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Grocers'-Hall,
October 29, 1841.By Authority of Parliament, HENRY BICKNELL, Clerk of the Grocers' Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable a company, called "The Indemnity Mutual Marine Assurance Company," to sue and be sued in the name of the Chairman, Deputy Chairman, or of any one of the Directors, or of the Secretary, for the time being, of the said Company; and to grant other powers to the said company.—Dated this twenty-third day of October 1841.

Allon and Son, No. 1, Frederick's-place, Old Jewry, London, Solicitors to the Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill to extend the term, and to alter and amend the powers and provisions, of an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Birmingham, through Stratford-upon-Avon, to Stratford Bridge, in the county of Warwick," or to repeal the said Act, and to grant further and other powers and provisions instead thereof.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is the intention of the parties applying for leave to bring in the said Bill to alter the existing tolls, and also to vary and extinguish the exemptions from tolls granted by the said Act, and to confer other exemptions, rights and privileges in lieu thereof.—Dated this 16th day of October 1841.

Lea and Gibbs, Henley-in-Arden, Solicitors for the Bill.

Kington Turnpike Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to continue the term, and to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions, of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned; that is to say, an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for repairing and widening the roads leading from the town of Kington, in the county of Hereford, through the Welch Hall-lane, as far as the same county extends, and the several roads leading from Kington aforesaid to Brilley's Mountain, to Eardisley, to Almeley, to Eckley's-green, to Eardisland, to Staple-bar, and to Milton-house, in the said county of Hereford;" another Act, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers granted by an Act passed in the twenty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty, for repairing and widening the roads leading from the town of Kington, in the county of Hereford, through the Welch Hall-lane, as far as the same county extends, and the several roads leading from Kington aforesaid to Brilley's Mountain, to Eardisley, to Almeley, to Eckley's-green, to Eardisland, to Staple-bar, and to Milton-house, in the said county; and for amending the road from the turnpike road, in the parish of Eardisley, to Willersley Turnpike-gate, in the said parish;" another Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for enlarging the term and powers of two Acts of the twenty-ninth year of King George the Second, and the thirteenth year of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening several roads, leading from the town of Kington, in the county of Hereford, and other roads within the said county; and also for making, amending, widening, and keeping in repair, certain other roads within the said county, adjoining, or lying near to, the roads comprised in the said Acts;" and another Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing and amending three Acts of His late and present Majesty, for repairing several roads, leading from the town of Kington, in the county of Hereford, and for repairing several other roads in the said county, communicating with the roads comprised in the said Acts;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to obtain further and other powers and provisions in lieu thereof; and in which Bill powers will be contained for altering the existing tolls, and also for varying and extinguishing the exemptions from tolls granted by the said Acts, or some of them; and for conferring other exemptions, rights, and privileges in lieu thereof.—Dated this eighteenth day of October 1841.
