

in us, or any portion thereof, should be conveyed in fee to the said rectory, nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution, provided that such stock or tithé, as the case may be, shall produce an annual sum equal, at the least, to the annual sum for which it shall be so substituted; and that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the said collegiate church or parish of Southwell, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them."

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Chapter of the collegiate church of Southwell, the Vicar of Southwell, and the Archdeacon of Nottingham, respectively; and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same shall take effect immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said last recited Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Lincoln.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, November 9, 1841.

Her Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Granville Charles Henry Somerset (commonly called Lord Granville Charles Henry Somerset), the Right Honourable William Ewart Gladstone, William Bingham Baring, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable William Bingham Baring), James Milnes Gaskell, Esq. and Alexander Pringle, Esq. to be Her Majesty's Commissioners for conducting and enquiry into the details of the Establishments of the several Departments of Customs, Excise, and Stamps and Taxes, with a view of ascertaining whether the existing Establishments are more than adequate to the efficient discharge of their several duties, and whether arrangements can be safely made, consistently with the due collection of the Revenue, for diminishing the expence of them, for facilitating the dispatch of business, and to relieve the trade and commerce of country from any inconvenient delay.
