

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring a Bill for altering, extending, and amending the powers and provisions of an Act of Parliament, which passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for lighting and watching certain parts of the liberties, hamlets, or districts of Camberwell and Peckham, in the parish of St. Giles Camberwell, in the county of Surrey;" and to enable the trustees, under the said Act, to rate and assess the landlords of small tenements within the limits of the said Act, to the rates for lighting the same, and to allow the said trustees to compound for such rates; also to give power to the said trustees better to enforce the payment of rates to be levied under the said Act; and likewise to alter the clause in the existing Act relating to the election of trustees, and to give fuller powers to the trustees, under the said Act, to light the said certain parts of the said liberties, hamlets, or districts, and for other purposes relating or incidental thereto; and generally carrying the powers and provisions of such intended Act into effect.

Peckham, 13th November 1841.

Samuel I. Lilley.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to incorporate a certain company, to be called or known by the name or style of the "Legal Club Chamber Company," to enable such company to purchase and take certain houses, lands, and premises in and near Fleet-street, in the parish of St. Dunstan in the West, in the city of London, known as numbers 180, 181, 184, and 185, on the north side of Fleet-street aforesaid, and certain premises on the east side of Hen and Chickens-court, in the rear of No. 184 in Fleet-street aforesaid; and also certain houses, lands, and premises on the west side of Fetter-lane, in the said parish, extending from the rear of No. 180, Fleet-street aforesaid, northward to Clifford's-inn Chambers; and also to rent or purchase and take the houses, lands, and premises numbered 182 and 183 in Fleet-street aforesaid; to limit the responsibility of the members of such company; to enable such company to sue and be sued in the name of the secretary or other officer; and to grant other powers and privileges to the said company.—Dated this fifteenth day of November 1841.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for erecting, building, and maintaining a bridge over the river Tyne, and over lands and hereditaments adjoining the same; and which said bridge will extend from a street called Castle-street, in the parish of St. Nicholas, in the borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to or near to a close or parcel of ground late belonging to Edmund Graham, Esquire, and now to the Brandling Junction Railway Company, situate in the borough and parish of Gateshead, in the county of Durham; with proper and convenient roads, avenues, and approaches to the said bridge; one of such roads, avenues, and approaches to communicate with the north end of the said bridge, at or near to the said street called Castle-street, and to extend therefrom to a street or place called St. Nicholas'-square, within the said borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and another of such roads, avenues, and approaches to communicate with the south end of the said bridge, at or near to the said close or parcel of ground late of the said Edmund Graham, and to extend therefrom through the said close or parcel of ground, and to terminate at a street, lane, or chare, called Bailey-chare, near to the north end of a street called West-street, in the said borough and parish of Gateshead; and which said bridge, roads, avenues, and approaches are intended to pass from, through, or into, or to be made within, the parish of St. Nicholas, and the parish or parochial chapelry of St. John, in the said borough and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and the said parish of Gateshead, in the said county of Durham, or some of them, or some part or parts thereof.

And it is intended, by the said Act, to incorporate a company for the purposes aforesaid, and to take powers for purchasing messuages, lands, tenements, buildings, and other hereditaments, and other powers requisite or necessary for the purposes aforesaid; and also powers to raise money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by the creation of shares, or by some other mode, to be authorized and provided for in and by such intended Act; and it is further intended to take powers, by the said Act, to levy, collect, and take tolls, rates, and duties, for passing and repassing over and along the said bridge.

And, that it is intended to obtain powers, by the said Act, to deviate to any extent, not exceeding ten yards, on each or either side of the said intended bridge, roads, avenues, and approaches, according to the lines thereof, as at present laid out upon the plans hereinafter mentioned.

And notice is hereby further given, that duplicate plans and sections of the proposed bridge, roads, avenues, and approaches, with books of reference thereto, as required by the standing orders of Parliament, will, in pursuance of such standing orders, be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, at his office, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne aforesaid, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county of Durham, at his office, in or near the city of Durham, in the said county of Durham, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and that a copy of so much of the said plans and sections as relates to each of the said parishes and parochial chapelry, together with a book of reference thereto, will be deposited with the parish clerk of each such parish and parochial chapelry, at their respective places of abode, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1841.
