MEMORANDUM.

The promotion of Captain Simon William Mayne, on half-pay 19th Light Dragoons, to be Major in the Army (which was inserted, by mistake, in the Supplement to the Gazette of 23d November 1841), has been cancelled.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Forfar.

John Carnegie, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 30th October 1841.

Whitehall, November 25, 1841.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Samuel Tillet, Esq. of Colchester, in the county of Essex, Conveyancer, to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Baptist Chapel, situated at Lutterworth, in the parish of Lutterworth, in the county of Leicester, in the district of Lutterworth, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 18th day of November 1841, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 23d day of November 1841, Stephen Mash, Superintendent Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for continuing the term, and altering, amending, and enlarging the powers, of an Act, passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing the road from Haslingden, through Newchurch and Bacup to Todmorden, and for making and maintaining several branches therefrom, all in the county palatine of Lancaster;" or for repealing the said Act (except the powers therein contained to make, complete, and maintain all the lines of road thereby authorized to be made) and granting further, better, and more effectual powers and provisions for making, amending, widening, diverting, repairing and improving the said road and branches; which said road, from Haslingden to Todmorden, passes through part of the township of Haslingden aforesaid, in the parish of Whalley, in the said county, and through the several booths, townships, or districts of Oakenhead Wood, Rawtenstall, Newchurch, Deadwen Clough, Wolfenden Booth, Tunstead, and Bacup, all within the forest of Rossendale, and in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, and through part of the township of Todmorden and Walsden, in the parish of Rochdale, in the said county; and one of the three branches or roads leading from or connected with the said first mentioned road, commences at or near a place called Stacksteads, and passes through or into the several booths, townships, or districts of Tunstead and Wolfenden Booth, in the forest of Rossendale aforesaid, in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, Lenches, in the parish of Bury, in the said county, Deadwen Clough, Rawtenstall, New-hall-bey, and Oakenhead Wood, all in the forest of Rossendale aforesaid, and in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, and through part of the township of Haslingden aforesaid, and communicates with the turnpike road leading from Haslingden aforesaid to Bury aforesaid, at or near a place called Lane Side; another of the said three branches or roads commences at or near a place called Waterfoot, on the said last-mentioned branch, and passes through or into the several booths, townships, or districts of Wolfenden, and Wolfenden Booth, both in the forest of Rossendale aforesaid, and in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, and through part of the township of Cliviger, in the same parish, and communicates with the turnpike road leading from Burnley aforesaid to Rochdale aforesaid, at or near a place called Hitchon Dams; and the other of the said three branches or roads commences at or near a place called Fearn's, in Wolfenden Booth aforesaid, in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, and passes through part of that booth to Edgeside, in the same booth; and another branch or road authorized by the said Act (of the 5th of George 3rd) to be made and maintained commences, or is intended to commence, at or near a place called Slate Pit Hill, in the township of Todmorden and Walsden aforesaid, in the parish of Rochdale aforesaid, and passes, or is intended to pass, through part of that township, and through or into the township of Cliviger aforesaid, in the parish of Whalley aforesaid, and communicates, or is intended to communicate with the said turnpike road leading from Burnley to Rochdale, at or near Deerplay Hill, in the said township of Cliviger; and in the said intended Act provision will be made for increasing or altering the tolls granted by the said first-mentioned Act. — Dated at Blackburn the first day of November 1841.

J. Hargreaves, Solicitor.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, for an Act to alter, amend and enlarge some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts, relating to the South Eastern Railway, viz. an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and intituled "An Act for making a railway from the London and Croydon Railway, to Dover, to be called 'The South Eastern Railway';" another Act passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and intituled "An Act to alter and extend the line of the South Eastern Railway, and to amend the Act relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts relating to the South Eastern Railway;" another Act also passed in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act, to alter and divert the line of the South Eastern Railway from a point thereon, in the parish of Chiddingstone, in the county of Kent, so as to join the London and Brighton Railway, at or near Redstone-hill, in the parish of Reigate, in the county of Surrey;" and another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to alter and divert a portion of the line of the South Eastern Railway, in the county of Kent;" and it is intended, by the Act so to be applied for, to enable the said South Eastern Railway Company to increase their capital, as limited by the first of the said recited Acts, and to renew the powers, and extend the period limited by the said Acts, for the compulsory purchase by the said Company of such lands, situate within the parishes, townships, town lands, and extra parochial places of Reigate, Nutfield, Bletchingley, Godstone, Tandridge, Crowhurst, Oxted, and Limpsfield, or some or one of them, in the county of Surrey; and Edenbridge, Brasted, Hever, Chiddingstone, Penshurst, Leigh, Tunbridge, Tudeley, Tudeley Upper or West Hamlet of Tudeley, Middle Hamlet of Tudeley, Capel, Brenchley, Yalding, Mereworth, Marden, Staplehurst, Headcorn, Smarden, Pluckley, Bethersden, Little Chart, Hothfield, Great Chart, Ashford, Willesborough, Sevington Mersham, Brabourne, Smeeth, Aldington, Sellinge, Standford, Saltwood, Postling, Newington, Cheriton, Folkestone Parish, Folkestone Township, Capel-le-Ferne, and Hougham, in the county of Kent, or some or one of them, as shall not have been purchased by the said Company, at the date of the said intended application to Parliament, and as shall be specified in the schedule to the Act so to be applied for; and also to extend the period by the said Acts, or any of them, limited for completion of the said railway.

And it is further intended, by the said Act so to be applied for, to alter or repeal the 13th section of the first above recited Act; and all enactments in the said recited Acts, or in any of them contained, which compel the said Railway Company to charge their rates and tolls equally, and after the same rate per ton, per mile, throughout the whole of the said railway, and which, restrict the said Company from making any reduction or advance of rates and tolls on any particular part of the said railway, or with reference to any particular persons, companies, or articles; and to enable the said Company to enter into mutual arrangements with any person, or with any other company or companies, with regard to the use of the said South Eastern Railway, or of any other railway in connection therewith, or in extension thereof, under such regulations and conditions, and subject to such tolls, rates and charges, as may be agreed on between them.

And notice is hereby further given, that it is proposed by the said intended Act, to repeal and extinguish, or to alter and reduce, any customs, impositions, tolls, rates, duties, or charges, which would or might be recognised by, or be, or become payable under any existing Act or Acts of Parliament, or otherwise on any coals, coke, culm, splint, cinders, or stone landed, carried, delivered in, or brought or conveyed into, or through the ports or harbours or towns of Folkestone and Dover, or either of them, or the liberties thereof, or any part thereof, or within a mile of any part thereof, for the purposes of consumption by the said South Eastern Railway Company, or of being conveyed on their said railway, and, with that object, to alter and amend or repeal so much of the several Acts hereinafter mentioned, as would authorise the levying or demanding of any such customs, impositions, tolls, rates, duties, or charges, that is to say; an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the support and preservation of the parish church of Folkestone, and the lower part of the town of Folkestone, in the county of Kent;" also an Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving, repairing, and cleansing the highways, streets, and lanes, in the town of Folkestone and liberty thereof, in the county of Kent, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein;" and also an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for constructing a pier and harbour at or near the town of Folkestone, in the county of Kent;"—an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the forty-seventh year of His present Majesty, for constructing a pier and harbour at or near the town of Folkestone, in the county of Kent, for varying the limits, and improving and rendering more commodious the said pier and harbour, for raising a further sum of money for completing the same, and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act;"—an Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the streets and lanes, in the town of Dover, in the county of Kent, and in the several parishes of St. Mary the Virgin and St. James the Apostle, in the said town and county; and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein;" also an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act made in the eighteenth year of His present Majesty, for paving, cleansing, lighting, and watching the town of Dover, and for removing and preventing nuisances and annoyances therein;" also an Act passed in the eleventh year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to management, to be invested with such independent power and authority as may be desirable for the efficient management and government of the affairs of the said three companys at the said station, and the traffic and business connected therewith, in such manner as best to secure the public safety and convenience; and also to enable the said three companys to enter into such mutual arrangements as may seem expedient to them, for the purposes aforesaid, or for any other purposes connected with the traffic of their respective railways.

And it is further proposed by the said intended Act, to amend, enlarge, and renew some of the powers and provisions of the several Acts, relating to the London and Croydon Railway, passed in the fifth year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His said late Majesty, in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty, in the second year of the reign of Her present Majesty, and in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, or to consolidate the said Acts, or some of them. - Dated this ninth day of November 1841.

Ewens, and Omindey; J. P. Feuron;*
Joint Solicitors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fortieth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for amending, widening, improving, and keeping in repair, the road leading from the south end of the Moor-lane, in the township of Great Bolton, into the turnpike road from Manchester to Wigan, near Westhoughton Chapel, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and another Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for continuing the term, and altering and enlarging the powers, of an Act of His late Majesty's reign, for amending the road leading from the south end of the Moor Lane, in the township of Great Bolton, into the turnpike road from Manchester to Wigan, near Westhoughton Chapel, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" or to repeal the said Acts and grant more effectual powers instead thereof; and in the said Bill provision is intended to be made to alter or increase the existing tolls authorized to be collected by the said Acts, and to levy additional tolls upon the said road, and to vary or extinguish certain exemptions from payment of toll contained in the said Acts, and to adopt wholly, or in part, the exemptions, rights, and privileges contained in the Acts now in force, relating to turnpike roads in England; and also to make certain alterations in the application of the tolls and sums of money collected upon, or in respect of the said road.

Dated this second day of November 1841.

Watkins and Longshaw, Solicitors for the said Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill,

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for the more effectual preservation and increase of the breed of salmon, and for the better regulating, maintaining, and improving the fisheries in the River Tyne, and the rivers, streams, and waters running into the same, and on the sea coast or shores adjacent to or within the mouth or entrance of the said river, in the several counties of Northumberland, Durham, and Cumberland, and the town and county of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne; and in which said Bill provisions are intended to be made for defraying the expences of establishing and maintaining the said fisheries, by levying and collecting tolls, rates, or duties on the owners and occupiers of such fisheries, or of the lands and grounds adjacent thereto, or persons affected thereby, or by some other means to be provided by the said Bill.—Dated the thirtieth day of October 1841.

Cuthbert U. Laws, Solicitor for the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of a certain local Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 88, intituled "An Act for paving and repairing certain streets, lanes, and other public passages and places, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for paving and regulating such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" and of another local Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Second, c. 26, intituled "An Act for cleansing and enlightening the open places, streets, and other passages, and regulating the nightly watch and beatles, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex;" and of another local Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 113, intituled "An Act for the better relief and maintenance of the poor, and for making a more adequate provision for the rector of the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex; and for more effectually lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the streets, and other public places, of and within the said parish;" and also, of a general Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, c. 50, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the highways of that part of Great Britain called England."

So that the execution of the several provisions in the aforesaid Acts, respectively, may be vested in a certain number of trustees, for carrying out all the powers thereof, instead of being entrusted to commissioners, trustees, and surveyors (as the law now is), for managing the paving, lighting, and cleansing the parish of Bethnal-green, and superintending the highways thereof. And so that all the powers and provisions for effecting the several purposes aforesaid, may be granted by, and contained and consolidated in, one Act of Parliament, under the management of a single board, under one set of trustees or commissioners; and for such other powers, alterations, and provisions as may be deemed expedient, or as Parliament in its wisdom may ultimately direct.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1841.

Henry Stratton, Clerk to the Commissioners and Trustees for Paving, Lighting, and Cleansing the said Parish.

Polbreen Tin and Copper Mining Company.

London, November 22, 1841.
