NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of a certain local Act, passed in the thirty-fourth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 88, intituled "An Act for paving and repairing certain streets, lanes, and other public passages and places, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for paving and regulating such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein; and of another local Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Second, c. 26, intituled "An Act for cleansing and enlightening the open places, streets, and other passages, and regulating the nightly watch and beatles, in the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex;" and of another local Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 113, intituled "An Act for the better relief and maintenance of the poor; and for making a more adequate provision for the rector of the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex; and for more effectually lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the streets, and other public places, of and within the said parish;" and also of a general Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, c. 50, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the highways of that part of Great Britain called England."

So that the execution of the several provisions in the aforesaid Acts, respectively, may be vested in a certain number of trustees, for carrying out all the powers thereof, instead of being entrusted to commissioners, trustees, and surveyors (as the law now is), for managing the paving, lighting, and cleansing the parish of Bethnal-green, and superintending the highways thereof. And so that all the powers and provisions for effecting the several purposes aforesaid, may be granted by, and contained and consolidated in, one Act of Parliament, under the management of a single board, under one set of trustees or commissioners, and for such other powers, alterations, and provisions as may be deemed expedient; or as Parliament in its wisdom may ultimately direct.—Dated this thirteenth day of November 1841.

Henry Stratton, Clerk to the Commissioners and Trustees for Paving, Lighting, and Cleansing the said Parish.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for improving, paving, cleansing, watering, widening, maintaining, repairing, and keeping in repair the highways, roads, streets, lanes, squares, ways, paths, passages, and places within the extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park, in the county of Lancaster, and for the removal and future prevention of nuisances, annoyances, encroachments and obstructions therein, and for the general regulation of the same; and for the severage of the several streets and highways in the said extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park; and for the appointment of commissioners for the purpose of carrying the powers and authorities of the said Act into execution; and also for the purchase or erection of public offices for the use of the said township or place; and for authorizing the raising of money for the purposes aforesaid, by rates, duties, or assessments, and also by way of loan on the security of the property of the said commissioners, and of such rates, duties or assessments.

And application will also be made for leave to take powers, by the said Act, for maintaining and repairing, as turnpike roads, a certain road lying and being in the said extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park, called the Park road, commencing at the northern boundary between the said extra-parochial place or township and the parish of Liverpool, in the said county, at or near Saint James's Church, and running thence to the southern boundary, between the said extra-parochial place or township and the township of Garston, in the parish of Childwall, in the said county, at or near a certain gate there, called the Aigburth-gate; and also a certain other road lying and being in the said extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park, called Smeathom, otherwise Smithdown-lane, commencing at the point where the boundaries of the said extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park, and of the townships of West Derby, in the parish of Walton-on-the-Hill, in the said county, and of Wavertree, in the parish of Childwall aforesaid, meet, near a certain messuage called Woodcroft, in the occupation of Richard Rathbone, Esquire, and running thence in a south easterly direction to the eastern boundary, between the said extra-parochial place or township and the township of Wavertree aforesaid, at or near a certain dwelling-house there, now in the occupation of John Montgomery, Esquire; and also a certain other road, lying and being in the said extra-parochial place or township of Toxteth-park, called Lodge-lane, commencing at the northern boundary between the said extra-parochial place or township and the township of West Derby aforesaid, at the point where the same road joins that part of Smeathom otherwise Smithdown-lane aforesaid, which lies in the said township of West Derby, and running thence in a southerly direction along the Parliamentary boundary of the borough of Liverpool to the point where the said road joins a certain lane in the said extra-parochial place, called Ullet-lane, near a certain dwelling-house there, called the Higher Lodge, in the occupation of Samuel Lafone, Esquire.

And it is intended, by the said Act, to take powers for the raising money by tolls or duties, and also by way of loan on the security of such tolls or duties, for maintaining and repairing such roads; and also for the purchase of lands and hereditaments within the said extra-parochial place or township, for the erection of toll-houses, and for widening, diverting, and improving certain parts of the said roads; a plan of which said roads will be deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the said county, at his office in Preston, in the said county, on or before the thirtieth day of November instant; and copies of such plan will be deposited with the clerk of the parish church of Walton-on-the-Hill, at Walton-on-the-Hill aforesaid, and with the clerks of Saint James's Church, Saint John, the Baptist's Church, and Saint Michael's Church, in Toxteth-park aforesaid, on or before the thirty-first day of December next.—Dated this twelfth day of November 1841.
