By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the twenty-first day of this instant December; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said twenty-first day of this instant December, to Thursday the third day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the third day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the third day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this tenth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing a Peer of Scotland.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Thomas Earl of Elgin was duly elected and returned to be one of the Sixteen Peers of Scotland to sit in the House of Peers in the present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and is since deceased; in order to the electing another Peer of Scotland to sit in his room, We do, by the advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holyrood-house, at Edinburgh, on Wednesday the nineteenth day of January next ensuing, between the hours of twelve and two in the afternoon, to nominate and choose another Peer of Scotland to sit and vote in the House of Peers in this present Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, in the room of the said Thomas Earl of Elgin, deceased, by open election and plurality of voices of the Peers that shall be then present, and of the proxies of such as shall be absent (such proxies being Peers, and producing a mandate in writing, duly signed before witnesses, and both the constituent and proxy being qualified according to law), and the Lord Clerk Register, or such two of the Principals Clerks of the Session as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his name, are hereby respectively required to attend such meeting, and to administer the oaths required by law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their votes; and, immediately after such election made and duly examined, to certify the name of the Peer so elected, and to sign and attest the same in the presence of the said Peers the electors, and return such certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain; and We strictly charge and command that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market-Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the county towns of Scotland, twenty-five days at least before the time hereby appointed for the meeting of the said Peers to proceed on such election.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, the tenth day of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, and in the fifth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by the late Act of Uniformity, which establisheth the Liturgy, and enacts, that no Form or Order of Common Prayer be openly used other than what is prescribed or appointed to be used in and by the said Book, it is notwithstanding provided, that in all those Prayers, Litanies, and Collects which do anywise relate to the King, Queen, or Royal Progeny, the names be altered and changed from time to time, and fitted to the present occasion, according to direction of lawful authority: Her Majesty was pleased this day in Council to declare Her Royal will and pleasure, that in all the Prayers, Litanies, and Collects for the Royal Family the words "The Prince of Wales" be inserted immediately after the words "The Prince Albert."

And Her Majesty doth strictly charge and command, that no edition of the Common Prayer be from henceforth printed but with this amendment; and that in the meantime, till copies of such edition may be had, all Parsons, Vicars, and Curates within this realm do (for the preventing of mistakes), with the pen, correct and amend all such Prayers in their Church Books, according to the foregoing directions: And for the better notice hereof, that this Order be forthwith printed and published, and sent to the several parishes; and that the Right Reverend the Bishops do take care that obedience be paid to the same accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable James Archibald Lord Wharnccliffe, the Lord President of the Council, to be Lord Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of the west riding of the county of York, his Lordship this day took the usual Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that the several duties set forth in figures in the table in the said Act contained should, in respect of such goods as are mentioned therein, be raised, levied, collected, and paid unto His Majesty, in the manner in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas the duties set forth in the said table, in respect of olive oil, are set forth as follows, that is to say:

OLIVE OIL, the ton,	4	4	0
the produce of, or imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, after thirty-first of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, the ton,	-	8	8 0

OLIVE OIL, imported in a ship belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, after thirty-first of August one thousand eight hundred and thirty-four, the tun, - - 10 10 0

And whereas, in and by the said Act, after a recital that, whereas in the table of duties thereinbefore contained, duties, higher than in other cases, are imposed upon olive oil, being the produce of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, or being imported from those dominions, and that it may become expedient to reduce the said duties, it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by His Order in Council, to reduce the said duties to any sum, not being less than the duty payable upon olive oil, the produce of, or imported from, other places :

Now, therefore, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority in that behalf vested in Her Majesty by the said recited Act, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said higher duties on olive oil shall be reduced, in the cases and in manner hereinafter mentioned (that is to say) :

From and after the publication of this Order, the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in British ships, shall be four pounds four shillings the tun ; and the duty which shall be raised, levied, collected, and paid in respect of olive oil, the produce of, and imported from, any part of the dominions of the King of the Two Sicilies, in ships belonging to any of the subjects of the King of the Two Sicilies, shall be six pounds six shillings the tun :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for rendering more easy the taking the poll at county elections," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, from time to time, on petition from the justices of any county, riding, parts, or division in England or Wales, in quarter sessions assembled, representing, that the number of polling places for such county, riding, parts, or division is insufficient, and praying, that the place or places mentioned in the said petition may be a polling place or polling places for the county, riding, parts, or division of the county within which such place or places is or are situate, to declare that any place or places mentioned in the said petition shall be a polling place or polling places for that county, riding, parts, or division ; and that the justices of the peace for such county, riding, parts, or division, in quarter sessions or some special sessions assembled, as mentioned in the Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to settle and determine the divisions of counties, and the limits of cities and boroughs, in England and Wales, in so far as respects the election of Members to serve in Parliament," shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide such county, riding, parts, or division into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place :

And whereas the justices of the peace for the county of Chester, at a general quarter session of the peace, holden at Nether Knutsford, in and for the said county, on Monday the eighteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, have presented their petition to Her Majesty, representing that the number of polling places for the southern division of the said county is insufficient, and therefore praying that Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, severally situate in the said southern division, may henceforth be polling places for the southern division of the said county :

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, having taken the said petition into consideration, doth, pursuant to the said Act of the seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, declare, order, and direct, that the said places mentioned in the said petition, namely, Audlem, Tarporley, and Frodsham, shall be polling places for the southern division of the said county of Chester; and further, that the justices of the peace for the said county of Chester, assembled at the general quarter session or some special sessions, as mentioned in the said Act of the third year of His late Majesty's reign, shall, conformably to the said last-mentioned Act, divide the said southern division of the said county of Chester into convenient polling districts, and assign one of such districts to each polling place.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1841.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the Police Courts in the metropolis," it was, amongst other things, enacted, that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of the Privy Council, to alter the number of the Police Courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the metropolitan police district, as should be found expedient, and every such Court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed:

Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the Police Court now established in the street called Hatton-garden, running from Holborn-hill to the northward thereof, and known by the name of Hatton-garden Police Court, shall, from and after the fifteenth day of December instant, be removed therefrom to a certain building lately erected in Bagnigge-wells-road, in the parish of St. James, Clerkenwell, and within the metropolitan police district, and shall be thenceforth there holden, by the name of Clerkenwell Police Court, for the same police court division as was assigned to Hatton-garden Police Court aforesaid, by an Order of Her Majesty made in Council, at Windsor, on the tenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty:

And the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

Published by order of the Court of Directors of the East India Company, in pursuance of the Act of the 55th Geo. 3, cap. 84, sec. 5.

J. D. DICKINSON, Deputy Secretary.

East India House, October 27, 1841.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Taylor, of Leicester, in the county of Leicester, Hosier, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on the 5th day of January next, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at the Castle of Leicester, in Leicester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting a certain debt due to the said bankrupt, from certain persons to be named at such meeting; and also in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and allowing, out of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, certain costs, charges, and expences which have been incurred in an action at law commenced and prosecuted to judgment against the said bankrupt, by a certain person to be named at such meeting, and in opposing the discharge of the said bankrupt under the Act for relief of insolvent debtors; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Henry Sidebotham and Thomas Lewis, both of Haughton, in the county of Lancaster, and of Manchester in the said county, Cotton Manufacturers and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on the 5th day of January next, at eleven of the clock in the forenoon precisely, at the office of Messrs. Humphrys, Cunliffes, Charlewood, and Bury, in Princess-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to allow, ratify, and confirm the acts and proceedings of the said assignee in relation to the said bankrupts' estate since their bankruptcy; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee selling and disposing of or offering for sale all or any part of the real, leasehold, and personal estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or of either of them, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either in one entire lot or in several lots, at such time and place or times and places, and in such manner, and to any person or persons whomsoever, and upon such terms and conditions as the said assignee may deem most advantageous, and either for ready money or on credit, and if on credit with such security for payment or otherwise as the said assignee may think proper; and also to the said assignee buying in the same premises, or any part thereof, at such auction, or withdrawing the same from sale and again offering the same for sale at any subsequent auction or by private contract, without being answerable for any loss or damage which may be sustained thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee's accepting a proposal which has been made to him by the mortgagee thereof for the purchase of the estate and interest of the said assignee of and in the mill, buildings, and premises situate at Haughton aforesaid, and the machinery, fixtures, and utensils therein, and of and in the lands, buildings, and premises situate in the county of Flint, the particulars of which proposal will be explained to the meeting; or to assent to or dissent from the said assignee joining or concurring with the mortgagee or other person or persons interested therein in selling and disposing either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in parcels, and upon such terms as the assignee and mortgagee shall think proper, and with such like power of buying in and reselling as hereinbefore mentioned, all and such part and parts of the real and personal estate of the said bankrupts, or either of them, as is or are in mortgage as aforesaid, or to assent to or dissent from the said assignee making such settlement or arrangement with the said mortgagee, and upon such terms as to the said assignee shall seem reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, or other proceedings for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them; and also to the said assignee compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting, agreeing, settling, and arranging any debts, claims, matters, or things whatsoever of, upon, or relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignee to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate in such way as he shall from time to time think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Samuel Chadwick, James Chadwick, and John Chadwick, of Heywood, in the county of Lancaster, Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 4th day of January 1842, at half past ten o'clock in the forenoon, at the house of Mr. Robinson, the Old Boar's Head, in Hanging-ditch, in Manchester, in the said county, in order to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts, proceedings, transactions, and accounts of the provisional assignees under the said fiat, from the time of their appointment until the choice of the said assignees; and also to sanction, ratify, and confirm the acts and proceedings of the provisional and other assignees appointed under the separate fiat issued against the said Samuel Chadwick; and to confirm and adopt the purchases and sales made by the said assignees, and the payments made, and the matters and things done or transacted by them in or about the carrying on the business of the said bankrupts, or otherwise; in relation to the joint estate of the said bankrupts; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of to the said bankrupts, or to any or either of them, or any person or persons whomsoever, the whole or any part or parts of the real and personal estate of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, or any interest which the said bankrupts, any or either of them, may have in any real or personal property, or any part thereof, and of the machinery, implements of trade, and stock of the said bankrupts, in and about their cotton spinning and manufacturing concerns, or elsewhere, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, and either together or in lots, and subject to such special or other conditions of sale as the said assignees may think fit, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors of the said bankrupts; and either for ready money or upon credit, and with or without security for the price or purchase money thereof, respectively, with liberty to take bills of exchange or promissory notes in payment, as to the said assignees shall appear proper and expedient, and at the risk of the said bankrupts' estate; and to endorse and pay away the same bills and notes without rendering themselves answerable or accountable for the amount thereof; and with power to buy in all or any part or parts of the said real and personal estate, property, and effects at any auction, or to rescind or vary the terms of any contract for sale thereof, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable for any loss occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with the mortgagee or mortgagees of any part of the said estate of the said bankrupts, any or either of them, in a sale or sales in like manner, and with the like powers and authorities; and to the assignees allowing payment of any such mortgages out of the purchase moneys to be received from any such sale, or allowing such mortgagees to receive the whole of the purchase money in case there shall not be sufficient to discharge the mortgages and interest; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing any of such mortgagees to prove for the residue against the said bankrupts' estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and keeping down out of the said bankrupts' estate, or the rents and proceeds arising therefrom, the interest upon any mortgage until a sale of the premises may be effected as aforesaid; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying, upon such terms as they may deem expedient, to any of such mortgagees, upon such terms as they may think best, the equity of redemption in all or any part of the said mortgaged premises, to any mortgagee who may wish to become the purchaser thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining or concurring with any of such mortgagees, in making a transfer of any mortgage, or to such mortgagees exercising all or any powers of sale contained in their mortgage securities; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing and giving up or abandoning any leases, or agreements for leases, or purchases granted, or agreed to be granted, to or made with the said bankrupts, or any or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, if they shall deem it expedient, continuing to work the said machinery for the spinning and manufacturing of cotton, and carrying on the trade or business late of the said bankrupts, at the entire risk and cost, and for the benefit of the said bankrupts' estate, for such time as may be deemed expedient, or until the sale of the said machinery, and with power for the assignees to buy all necessary materials, articles, and things, and to employ, at the expence of the said estate, the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, and also such other workmen, agents, and others, as shall be necessary for the efficient carrying on and working of the said cotton spinning and manufacturing concern; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying and discharging, out of the estate of the said bankrupts, the salaries and wages due or to become due to any agents, workmen, servants, and others employed by the said bankrupts, or by the provisional assignees, or by the said assignees, and also all rents, damages, taxes, rates, and outgoing whatever now due and to become due by reason of the carrying on of the same trade or business, or otherwise; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing the said bankrupts, any or either of them, to retain possession, and to have and enjoy as their or his own property, the household goods and furniture now in and about their respective dwelling-houses in which the said bankrupts reside; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupts' estate, the costs and expences which John Mills, of Heywood aforesaid, Joiner and House Builder, has incurred, or been ordered to pay, in consequence of any proceeding or proceedings in the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, to which the said John Mills has been a party, the particulars of which proceedings and costs will be explained at the said meeting; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange, on which the bankrupts are liable, to compound, release, or discharge any other party also liable on the same bills or notes, on such terms and for such sums, by way of composition or otherwise, as may appear to the said assignees most advantageous to the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, any or either of them; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting compositions from, or giving time for payment of their respective debts to any debtors to the said bankrupts' estate, or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, referring to arbitration, settling, or adjusting all disputes, differences, accounts, claims, or demands whatsoever, relating to the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and to confirm, ratify, and allow, or to dissent from and disallow, any acts, proceedings, matters and things of any sort, kind or nature which may heretofore have been done, transacted, or performed by the said assignees, or any or either of them; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall " have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country."—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 13th day of December 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by

FRANCIS SHERWIN, of No. 14, Bruton-street, Berkeley-square, in the county of Middlesex, Dentist, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

TAKE NOTICE.

I. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, until the last day for entering opposition inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 70, or 1 and 2 Vict. c. 110, sec. 105, as the case may be.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

Insolvent Debtor.—Proof of Debts.

ALL claimants on the estate of Sir Hugh Evelyn, Bart. No. 47,353 T., now in the Queen's Bench for debt, are required to prove their debts before a Commissioner, at the
