

Gentleman, the assignees of the estate and effects of the said Aysford Wise, William Searle Bental, and Robert Farwell, on Friday the 21st day of January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the Seymour Hotel at Bridgetown, near Totnes, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, settling, and adjusting certain debts due to the said bankrupts from certain persons to be then named; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits at law or in equity, or other proceedings in bankruptcy, against certain persons to be then named, for the recovery of all or any part of the said bankrupts' debts, estate, or effects as they the said assignees may think fit; and generally to authorise and empower the said assignees to take such measures for the disposal, arranging, and winding up the affairs of the said bankrupts as the said assignees in their judgment may deem most advantageous and beneficial to the creditors of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Richard Halford, William Henry Baldock, and Osborn Squilten, of the city of Canterbury, Bankers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the said bankrupts' estate and effects, on Wednesday the 19th day of January next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Guildhall Tavern, in the city of Canterbury, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting a proposition which will be then submitted to the creditors for compounding a debt due to the said bankrupts' estate; and on other special matters.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Burbey, Richard Loe, and James Loe, all of Portsmouth, in the county of Southampton, Copartners, Bankers; and Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on the 19th day of January 1842, at one o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, at the George Inn, in Portsmouth aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of to the said bankrupts, or to any or either of them, or any other person or persons whomsoever, the whole or any part or parts of the real or personal estate of the said bankrupts, or any or either of them, or any interest which the said bankrupts, any or either of them, may have in any real or personal property, or any part thereof, either by public auction or private contract, and either together or in lots, and subject to such special or other conditions of sale as the said assignees may think fit, or upon a valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price as to them shall seem beneficial for the creditors of the bankrupts, and with power to buy in all or any part or parts of the said real and personal estate, property, and effects, at any auction, or to rescind or vary the terms of any contract for sale thereof, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being answerable for any loss occasioned thereby; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees joining and concurring with the mortgagee or mortgagees, annuitant or annuitants, of any part of the said estate of the said bankrupts, any or either of them, in a sale or sales in like manner, and with the like powers and authorities, and to the assignees allowing payment of any such mortgages, or of the value of any such annuities, and with power to agree upon the value of such annuities, out of the purchase moneys to be received from any such sale, or allowing such mortgagee or mortgagees, annuitant or annuitants, to receive the whole of the purchase money, in case there shall not be sufficient to discharge the mortgages and interest, or the value of the annuities so to be agreed upon by the said assignees; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing any of such mortgagees or annuitants to prove for the residue against the said bankrupts' estate; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees releasing and conveying, upon such terms as they may deem expedient, to any of such mortgagees or annuitants, upon such terms as they may think best, the equity of redemption in all or any part of the said mortgaged premises, or premises charged with the annuity, to any mortgagee or annuitant who may wish to become the purchaser thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange, or promissory notes, on which the said bankrupts, any or either of them, are or is liable to compound, release, or discharge any other party also liable on the same bill or notes, on such terms and for such sums, by way of composition or otherwise, as may appear to the said assignees most advantageous to the said bankrupts' estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, any or either of them (and particularly for the recovery of certain effects, or the value thereof, which were seized by and under a certain distress warrant issued against the goods of the said Richard Loe, by certain justices of the peace acting in and for the borough of Portsmouth, in the said county of Southampton, to recover certain moneys alleged to have been received by him, the said Richard Loe, as high constable of the said borough, the particulars of which will at the said meeting be more fully detailed; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees accepting compositions from or giving time for payment of their respective debts to any debtors to the said bankrupts' estate, any or either of them; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees referring to arbitration, settling, or adjusting all disputes, differences, accounts, claims, or demands whatsoever relating to the said bankrupts' estate and effects, any or either of them; and to confirm, ratify, and allow, or to dissent from and disallow, any acts, proceedings, matters, and things of any sort, kind, or nature which may heretofore have been done, transacted, or performed by the said assignees, or any or either of them; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 27th day of December 1841, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by RICHARD WATERS, of Newport, in the county of Monmouth, Iron and Tin Plate Manufacturer and Money Scrivener, that he is in insolvent circumstances, and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.
