Whitehall, January 24, 1842.

The Queen has been pleased to order a congé d'elire to pass the Great Seal of the United Kingdom, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of Chichester to elect a Bishop of that see, the same being void by the death of Doctor Philip Nicholas Shuttleworth, late Bishop thereof; and Her Majesty has also been pleased to recommend to the said Dean and Chapter, Ashhurst Turner Gilbert, Doctor in Divinity, to be by them elected Bishop of the said see.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Cromarty.

Major-General Sir Hugh Fraser, K. C. B. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated August, 1839.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Presbyterian Meeting, situated at Hinckley, in the parish of Hinckley, in the county of Leicester, in the district of Hinckley, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 19th day of January 1842, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, chap. 85.

Witness my hand this 20th day of January 1842,
Benjamin Law, Superintendent Registrar.

Guildhall, January 20, 1842.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for improving the approaches to London-bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the city of London, in Common Council assembled; notice is hereby given; that it is their intention to redeem the annual sum of £ 92, the remaining part of an annuity or annual sum of £200, granted in respect of the sum of £5000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 19th of January 1832, and numbered No. 10—10; and also the sum of £600, the annuity granted in respect of the sum of £15,000, secured by three bonds or obligations of £5000 each, and numbered 11, No. 1 to 11, No. 3, both inclusive, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date 3d of May 1832; and also the annual sum of £100, part of the annuity granted in respect of the sum of £5000, secured by one bond or obligation, numbered 11—4, under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 3d of May 1832; and I do hereby give notice, that (in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act), at the end of six calendar months next after the date hereof, upon payment or tender of the sums of £4800, £15,000, and £2500, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £192, £600, and £100, up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my Office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sums of £192, £600, and £100, will cease and determine; nevertheless, such person or persons at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration in writing, of his, her, or their intention to receive the same shall have been delivered at the said Office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon), to be paid at the said Office, the said sums of £4800, £15,000, and £2500, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sums of £192, £600, and £100, up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £192, £600, and £100, will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

Jas. Shaw, Chamberlain.

Prothero and Towgood, in the town of Newport, in the said county of Monmouth, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignee commencing and prosecuting a suit in equity against one John Watkins, either alone or together with any other person or persons who may be necessary parties to the suit, to compel him to complete a contract entered into by him with the said assignee for the purchase of a certain messuage and premises, situate in Frogmore-street, Abergavenny, formerly the property of the said bankrupt, or to relinquish the said contract and the possession of the said premises to the said assignee; and to assent to or dissent from the said assignee submitting to arbitration (if he shall deem it advisable so to do) the matters in dispute between him and the said John Watkins, or compromising the said suit when brought, on such terms as he shall deem expedient; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Ward, of the town and county of Nottingham, Victualler, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Wednesday the 16th day of February next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the George the Fourth Inn, in Nottingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding, releasing, or otherwise adjusting any debt or debts due and owing from the said bankrupt's estate from certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, and paying certain expences relative thereto, incurred or to be incurred; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees consenting and agreeing to, or for any persons or person, the holders of any bills or bill of exchange drawn by the said bankrupt upon, and accepted or indorsed by certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, or any or either of them, or by any other persons or person, to accept of any composition from such parties, or any of them, or from any other person or persons, for or on account of the said bills or bill of exchange, and to release such parties or any of them, or any other person or persons from the same, without relinquishing the said bankrupt or his estate, and without relinquishing the right of the holders or holder of the said bills or bill of exchange to prove upon and to receive a dividend or dividends from the estate of the said bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE joint and separate creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth and now in prosecution against William Hague, Samuel Hague, and William Shatwell, by the name and description of William Hague, Samuel Hague, and William Shatwell, all of Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, Commission Agents, Merchants, Dealers, Chapman, and late Copartners, trading under the firm of W. and S. Hague and Co., the said William Shatwell; then and now also carrying on the trade of a Manufacturer and Merchant, at Manchester aforesaid, on his separate account, and the said William Hague and Samuel Hague now carrying on the trade of Commission Agents, in partnership together, under the firm of W. and S. Hague, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, par-particularly as assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, on the same day, the 16th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Hitchcock, Solicitor, in Brown-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, as such assignees and as the assignees of the separate estate and effects of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, commencing and prosecuting, at the expence and risk of the said bankrupts' estate, joint or separate, or otherwise, a suit or other proceedings in equity, or an action or actions at law, or any other proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, against a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, for enforcing the performance by such person of a certain contract entered into by him with the said assignees, as the assignees of the estate and effects, real and personal, of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, on the 18th day of November last, for the purchase on the sale by auction by them that day of all their estate and interest as such assignees of the separate estate, real and personal, of the said William Shatwell, of and in £70 per annum, part of a certain yearly chief or ground rent of £74. 10s. which estate and interest, and the yearly chief or ground rent, is particularly mentioned and described in the conditions produced at such sale, signed by the said purchaser, and to enforce and compel payment from and by such persons, so to be named at the said meeting as aforesaid, of the residue of the purchase money contracted to be paid by him to the said assignees on such sale as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, if they think fit or expedient, but not otherwise, to submit any question, matter, or thing touching, relating, or concerning the said sale and contract with the said person, so to be named at the said meeting as aforesaid, or touching and concerning the title of the said assignees, or of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, to the interest, to the opinion of counsel, or to submit to arbitration all matters in difference between the said assignees and the said person, so to be named as aforesaid, concerning the matters aforesaid, as the said assignees shall in their discretion think fit; or to the said assignees compounding, arranging, or otherwise settling with such person in any way they shall think proper, and for all or any of the purposes and matters aforesaid, to give all necessary powers and authorities; and to assent to or dissent from their taking, instituting, commencing, and prosecuting any suit, action, or proceeding at law, in equity, in bankruptcy, or in arbitration, as they may think fit, expedient, or necessary, and generally in the premises to do every lawful act and acts which they shall think necessary or shall be advised, in or about the premises; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Bisshopp, of Westburton, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Sussex, Market Gardener, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Monday the 21st day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the White Horse Inn, at Bury aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, or giving time or taking security for the payment of such debt, or submitting any dispute between the said assignees and any person or persons concerning any matter relating to such bankrupt's estate to arbitration, as to the said assignees may seem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity for the recovery or protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also in case of the said assignees submitting the estate and effects, real and personal, of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, to auction, that they may have full power and authority to buy in and resell, by public auction or private contract, any lot or lots for which an adequate price shall not in the judgment of the said assignees be bidden or offered for the same; and also to take such security or give such time for payment of any money arising from the sale of the personal estate of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such manner as they shall from time to time think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Gibb, of Alawick, in the county of Northumberland, Carrier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 17th day of February next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Turk's Head Inn, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the real estate which the said bankrupt was possessed of, either as owner or mortgagee, or otherwise, and of the stock in trade, goods, furniture, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation, or partly by all or any of the said modes, and either together or in lots, and at one time or at several times, and either for ready money or on credit, and for such sum or sums, and subject to such conditions or stipulations as to title or otherwise, and either subject to or discharged from such incumbrances as may affect the same respectively, as the said assignees may think expedient or proper; and if sold on credit to take such security for payment of the purchase money as they in their judgment shall think fit, without being answerable for any loss which may arise thereby, with power to the said assignees to rescind or abandon any contract, and to buy in the same premises, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being liable for any loss which may arise thereby; and in case the aforesaid real estate, or any part thereof, shall be sold, discharged from all or any of the incumbrances which may affect the same, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees applying such part of the purchase money arising therefrom as they shall think reasonable and proper in or towards payment and satisfaction of the same incumbrances; and in case the said assignees shall, before the said meeting, have already sold and disposed of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof as aforesaid, then to confirm the said sale as aforesaid, and to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done previous to such meeting in or about the sale and disposition of the said bankrupt's estate or effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, and allowing him or them a fair and reasonable remuneration for his or their time, trouble, and services, in making up and adjusting the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and collecting and getting in the outstanding debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said assignees of an adequate remuneration to such persons as have been employed in preparing, dressing, and rendering fit for sale, certain parts of the said bankrupt's estate, and in adjusting and making up the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, all or any part of the wages due to the servants of the said bankrupt, before and subsequent to the date of the said fiat, not exceeding three months' wages; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the sum of 7s. 6d. per share, which has been called for in respect of certain shares held by the said bankrupt in a certain company, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange or promissory notes (in which the bankrupt is liable), to compound with, release, or discharge any other person also liable in the same bills or notes, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding certain debts, to be mentioned at the said meeting, and any other debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate which they may think bad or doubtful, and taking part of such debts in full satisfaction of the whole, and releasing therefrom the debtors to be named at the said meeting; or any other debtors, or giving time to such debtors for payment, by instalments or otherwise, and with or without security, and executing any deed of composition, deed of assignment, or letter of licence, between any debtors to the said estate and their creditors; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to take such measures in the sale and management, and for the benefit and protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as to the said assignees may seem beneficial and expedient, and to wind up the affairs of the said bankrupt, as the said assignees shall deem most advantageous to the creditors; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that Declarations were filed on the 22d day of January 1842, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
