

particularly as assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, on the same day, the 16th day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the office of Mr. Hitchcock, Solicitor, in Brown-street, in Manchester aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, as such assignees and as the assignees of the separate estate and effects of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, commencing and prosecuting, at the expence and risk of the said bankrupts' estate, joint or separate, or otherwise, a suit or other proceedings in equity, or an action or actions at law, or any other proceedings at law or in equity, or otherwise, against a certain person, to be named at the said meeting, for enforcing the performance by such person of a certain contract entered into by him with the said assignees, as the assignees of the estate and effects, real and personal, of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, on the 18th day of November last, for the purchase on the sale by auction by them that day of all their estate and interest as such assignees of the separate estate, real and personal, of the said William Shatwell, of and in £70 per annum, part of a certain yearly chief or ground rent of £74. 10s. which estate and interest, and the yearly chief or ground rent, is particularly mentioned and described in the conditions produced at such sale, signed by the said purchaser, and to enforce and compel payment from and by such persons, so to be named at the said meeting as aforesaid, of the residue of the purchase money contracted to be paid by him to the said assignees on such sale as aforesaid; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, if they think fit or expedient, but not otherwise, to submit any question, matter, or thing touching, relating, or concerning the said sale and contract with the said person, so to be named at the said meeting as aforesaid, or touching and concerning the title of the said assignees, or of the said bankrupt William Shatwell, to the interest, to the opinion of counsel, or to submit to arbitration all matters in difference between the said assignees and the said person, so to be named as aforesaid, concerning the matters aforesaid, as the said assignees shall in their discretion think fit; or to the said assignees compounding, arranging, or otherwise settling with such person in any way they shall think proper, and for all or any of the purposes and matters aforesaid, to give all necessary powers and authorities; and to assent to or dissent from their taking, instituting, commencing, and prosecuting any suit, action, or proceeding at law, in equity, in bankruptcy, or in arbitration, as they may think fit, expedient, or necessary, and generally in the premises to do every lawful act and acts which they shall think necessary or shall be advised, in or about the premises; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against James Bisshopp, of Westburton, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Sussex, Market Gardener, Dealer and Chapman, are desired to meet the assignees of his estate and effects, on Monday the 21st day of February next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the White Horse Inn, at Bury aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor to the bankrupt's estate, and taking any reasonable part of the debt in discharge of the whole, or giving time or taking security for the payment of such debt, or submitting any dispute between the said assignees and any person or persons concerning any matter relating to such bankrupt's estate to arbitration, as to the said assignees may seem advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any suit or suits in equity for the recovery or protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and also in case of the said assignees submitting the estate and effects, real and personal, of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, to auction, that they may have full power and authority to buy in and resell, by public auction or private contract, any lot or lots for which an adequate price shall not in the judgment of the said assignees be bidden or offered for the same; and also to take such security or give such time for payment of any money arising from the sale of the personal estate of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to act for the benefit and protection of the said estate, in such manner as they shall from time to time think proper; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against William Gibb, of Alawick, in the county of Northumberland, Carrier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on the 17th day of February next, at one o'clock in the afternoon precisely, at the Turk's Head Inn, in Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the real estate which the said bankrupt was possessed of, either as owner or mortgagee, or otherwise, and of the stock in trade, goods, furniture, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof, by public auction or private contract, or at a valuation, or partly by all or any of the said modes, and either together or in lots, and at one time or at several times, and either for ready money or on credit, and for such sum or sums, and subject to such conditions or stipulations as to title or otherwise, and either subject to or discharged from such incumbrances as may affect the same respectively, as the said assignees may think expedient or proper; and if sold on credit to take such security for payment of the purchase money as they in their judgment shall think fit, without being answerable for any loss which may arise thereby, with power to the said assignees to rescind or abandon any contract, and to buy in the same premises, or any part or parts thereof, at any auction, and to resell the same in manner aforesaid, without being liable for any loss which may arise thereby; and in case the aforesaid real estate, or any part thereof, shall be sold, discharged from all or any of the incumbrances which may affect the same, then to assent to or dissent from the said assignees applying such part of the purchase money arising therefrom as they shall think reasonable and proper in or towards payment and satisfaction of the same incumbrances; and in case the said assignees shall, before the said meeting, have already sold and disposed of the stock in trade, furniture, goods, chattels, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part thereof as aforesaid, then to confirm the said sale as aforesaid, and to confirm and allow whatsoever shall have been done previous to such meeting in or about the sale and disposition of the said bankrupt's estate or effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing any person or persons they may think proper, and allowing him or them a fair and reasonable remuneration for his or their time, trouble, and services, in making up and adjusting the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and collecting and getting in the outstanding debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the payment by the said assignees of an adequate remuneration to such persons as have been employed in preparing, dressing, and rendering fit for sale, certain parts of the said bankrupt's estate, and in adjusting and making up the books and accounts of the said bankrupt, and to the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, all or any part of the wages due to the servants of the said bankrupt, before and subsequent to the date of the said fiat, not exceeding three months' wages; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying, out of the said bankrupt's estate, the sum of 7s. 6d. per share, which has been called for in respect of certain shares held by the said bankrupt in a certain company, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees giving consent and power to the holders of bills of exchange or promissory notes (in which the bankrupt is liable), to compound with, release, or discharge any other person also liable in the same bills or notes, as the said assignees may deem most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding certain debts, to be mentioned at the said meeting, and any other debts owing to the said bankrupt's estate which they may think bad or doubtful, and taking part of such debts in full satisfaction of the whole, and releasing therefrom the debtors to be named at the said meeting; or any other debtors, or giving time to such debtors for payment, by instalments or otherwise, and with or without security, and executing any deed of composition, deed of assignment, or letter of licence, between any debtors to the said estate and their creditors; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignees to take such measures in the sale and management, and for the benefit and protection of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, as to the said assignees may seem beneficial and expedient, and to wind up the