Lord Chamberlain's Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Levees at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Wednesday, April 13th.
 Wednesday, May 4th.
 Wednesday, June 1st.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees at St. James's-Palace, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty.

Those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to present them (not that of the Lord in Waiting), should be sent to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Levee, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levees, but in conformity with the above regulations ; and further, that no person shall be admitted, on any pretence whatever, who has not been so presented.

It is particularly requested, that Gentlemen who are to be presented at the Levees will have their names distinctly written upon the card to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, in order that there may be no mistake in announcing them to the Queen.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of Company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all persons, having Petitions or Addresses to present to Her Majesty at the Levees, are to write on two cards, with their names, a statement of the object of such Petitions or Addresses, and of the persons from whom they come ; one card to be delivered to the Page in the Ante-Room, and the other to the Lord in Waiting, who will read its contents, at the time of presentation, to Her Majesty ; and, on these occasions, no other statement is to be addressed to Her Majesty.

A Deputation to present an Address is not to exceed four persons.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, February 28, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold Drawing-Rooms at St. James's-Palace, on the following days, at two o'clock :

Thursday, April 7th.

Thursday, April 28th.

Thursday, May 19th, { to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

Thursday, June 16th.

N. B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room on Thursday the 19th of May next.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING-ROOMS.

The Ladies, who purpose attending Her Majesty's Drawing-Rooms, are requested to bring with them two cards, with their names legibly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to Her Majesty :

And those Ladies, who are to be presented, are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, together with the names of the Ladies who are to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office, before twelve o'clock on the day but one previous to each Drawing-Room, in order that they may be submitted for the Queen's approbation ; it being Her Majesty's command, that no presentation shall take place unless the name of the Lady presenting, together with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered, as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, April 1, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 7th of April, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on Monday next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock ; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park, through Stable-yard, into the Ambassadors'-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called ; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance ; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

LIVERPOOL, Lord Steward.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of March 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council, bearing date the fifth day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did order, that certain parishes and places in the county of Middlesex, therein expressly mentioned, described, and set forth, should constitute a police court division, and that a police court for such division should be holden at Kensington, in the county of Middlesex, until the erection of a police court at Hammersmith, in the same county, and that, immediately upon the completion of such court-house at Hammersmith, the said police court should thenceforth be holden therein at Hammersmith aforesaid; and that certain other parishes and places in the county of Surrey therein particularly mentioned, described, and set forth, should constitute a police court division, and that a police court for such division should be holden at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey; and Her Majesty, by the said Order in Council, did order, that the magistrates thereafter to be appointed for the said divisions respectively should attend at the said respective police courts on the days, and at the times, and in the manner therein particularly expressed and set forth:

And whereas Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, has deemed it expedient to rescind and vacate the said Order, and to make and give such other Order in lieu thereof as is hereinafter contained, ordered, and set forth:

Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the said Order in Council hereinbefore particularly mentioned be vacated, revoked, and rescinded:

And Her Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the parishes of Fulham and Kensington (including so much of Brompton as has not been assigned by any Order in Council to the police court called "Queen-square Police Court," and such part of the parish of Saint Margaret, Westminster, as adjoins the parish of Hammersmith, and also that portion of the parish of Chelsea, commonly called "Kensal-green," situate to the north of the said parish of Kensington), the parish of Hammersmith, and the parishes of Acton and Chiswick, all in the county of Middlesex, and within the metropolitan police district, shall henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Kensington, in the said parish of Kensington, until the erection of a police court at Hammersmith, in the said parish of Hammersmith, in the county and district aforesaid, and that, immediately upon the completion of such court-house at Hammersmith, the said police court shall thenceforth be holden therein at Hammersmith aforesaid:

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice of the said Council, is pleased further to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the parishes of Wandsworth, Putney, Battersea, Tooting-Graveney (sometimes called Tooting), Merton, Wimbledon, Barnes, and Clapham, and the hamlet of Roehampton, all in the county of Surrey, and within the said metropolitan police district, together with so much of the parish of Streatham as comprizes Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the same county and district, shall from henceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court shall be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth, in the said parish of Wandsworth:

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates who shall have been, or shall hereafter be, appointed for the said divisions shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the said Wandsworth Police Court from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the said Kensington Police Court (until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammersmith Police Court) from two of the clock in the afternoon until five of the clock in the afternoon and longer if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business:

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and from the twenty-eighth day of March instant.

And the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Dickson and Overbury, for execution by such creditors as have not yet executed the same; and unless they forthwith execute the same, or consent thereto, they will be excluded all benefit to arise therefrom.—Dated this 31st day of March 1842.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Frederick Edward Turner, of Holywell, in the county of Flint, Chymist, Druggist, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on the 26th day of April instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the King's Arms Inn, in Holywell aforesaid, in order to testify their assent to or dissent from an offer of composition, which will then and there be made by the said bankrupt, or his friends, upon the respective debts of such creditors.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against George Brown, of Carlisle, in the county of Cumberland, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Monday the 25th day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Coffee-house, Carlisle, for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from allowing and paying certain expences and costs incurred by the petitioning creditor previously to and after the issuing of the said Fiat; and also of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee commencing any action at law or suit in equity against the Sheriff of the county of Cumberland and certain other persons, then to be named, for recovery of part of the said bankrupt's estate, or compromising with the said Sheriff or such other person for the same; and also for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or in bankruptcy, for the recovering, getting in, defending, or protecting any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any bad or doubtful debt or debts due to the said bankrupt's estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Jonathan Nash and Robert Lucas Nash, both of the city of Bristol, Brewers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Tuesday the 26th day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Commercial-rooms, in the city of Bristol aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the allowance of certain costs and expences incurred in investigating the accounts of the said bankrupts, and preparing a deed of assignment previous to issuing the said fiat, and other charges relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the household furniture, brewing utensils, plant, stock in trade, and other effects belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, either by public auction or private contract, or partly by public auction and partly by private contract, at a valuation put on them, or at such other price or prices, or in such manner as the said assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees arranging, compromising, and settling the accounts of the commission agent or agents of the said bankrupts, upon such terms and conditions as they may think proper; and also employing and paying such commission agent or agents, or other person or persons, for arranging, collecting, and recovering the debts due to the said bankrupts' estate; and the said assignees compromising, compounding, submitting to arbitration, disposing of, or otherwise agreeing and settling any debt or demand due or belonging to the said bankrupts' estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to empower the said assignees to take such measures in the management and settlement of the said bankrupts' estate and effects as they may deem expedient; and on other special matters.

THE creditors of Isaac Solly the elder, and also of Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy issued and now in prosecution against Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, of Saint Mary Axe, in the city of London, Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the separate estate and effects of the said Isaac Solly the elder, and also of the said Isaac Solly and Isaac Solly the younger, on Friday the 22d day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court of Bankruptcy, in Basinghall-street, in the city of London, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees of the separate estate of the said Isaac Solly the elder compounding or agreeing with Sir William Domville, executor of Elizabeth Solly, deceased, in respect of a claim of £84,940 4s. 11d., which he has made upon the estate of the said Isaac Solly the elder, and of all other claims (other than those under certain mortgages made to him by the said Isaac Solly the elder) which the said Sir William Domville, as such executor as aforesaid, or otherwise, has upon the said Isaac Solly the elder or his estate; and to or from the said assignees, either in conjunction with certain persons claiming to be equitable mortgagees of certain property of the said Isaac Solly the elder, already in mortgage to the said Sir William Domville, or otherwise, paying to the said Sir William Domville such sum or sums of money in compromise or satisfaction of his said claim or claims; and to or from their entering into and making such other terms and conditions for the compromise or satisfaction of such claim or claims as at the said meeting shall be submitted and agreed upon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees purchasing or redeeming, out of the assets in their hands belonging to the said Isaac Solly the elder's separate estate, the mortgage claims and securities of the said Sir William Domville upon the said Isaac Solly the elder or his property and estate, and thereupon taking from the said Sir William Domville such transfer, assignment, conveyance, or release of his several mortgage claims and securities, and of the property therein or thereby comprised or affected, as at the said meeting may be agreed upon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees applying the residue of the moneys to arise from the sale of the property comprised in the said mortgage securities of the said Sir William Domville (in case the same shall be purchased or paid off by the said assignees), after repaying to the said assignees the amount which they shall pay for the purchase or redemption of the said mortgage claims and property, and interest and charges attending the same, to the parties claiming to be such equitable mortgagees as aforesaid, ratably in and towards the discharge of their respective claims, and admitting such parties to be creditors and to prove upon the separate estate of the said Isaac Solly the elder for the remainder of their respective claims; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding and agreeing with certain persons, being the representatives of James Philips, late of Konisburg, Prussia, Merchant, deceased, in respect of a certain debt due from the said James Philips, deceased, or his estate, to the assignees of the said Isaac Solly the elder's separate estate, upon such terms as at the said meeting may be agreed upon; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding and agreeing with the trustees of the marriage settlement of the said Isaac Solly the elder, in respect of certain claims which the said assignees on the one hand have upon the said trustees or the trust property of the said settlement, and also to certain securities in their hands, and of a certain claim or claims and right of proof which the said trustees on the other hand have upon the said assignees or the separate estate of the said Isaac Solly the elder, upon such terms and conditions and subject to such releases, acquittances, and discharges, or otherwise, as at the said meeting shall be specified and agreed upon.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Protheroe the younger, of Prince-street, in the city and county of Bristol, Iron and Tin Merchant, Commission Agent, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Saturday the 23d day of April instant, at twelve of the clock at noon, at the offices of Brooke Smith, situate in Small-street, in the city of Bristol, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees employing the said bankrupt, or any accountant or accountants, or other person or persons whom the said assignees may think proper, to wind up the trades and businesses of the said bankrupt, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or misfortune which may be incurred in and about the same, and to examine and make up the books of account of the said bankrupt, and to collect, receive, and get in the debts due and owing to the said bankrupt's estate, and to their making such allowance or compensation to the said bankrupt, accountant, and other persons so employed as they the said assignees may think proper; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees allowing and paying, out of the said estate, certain costs and expences incurred in and about the said estate previously and subsequently to the appointment of the said assignees; also to authorize the said assignees to sell and dispose of, either by public auction or private contract, or by such valuation, and at such time or times, and in such lots, parcels, way, and manner as they shall think best, the stock in trade and implements of trade, household furniture, property, and effects of the said bankrupt, or any part or parts thereof, as the said assignees may think proper, either to the said bankrupt or any other person or persons whomsoever, upon receiving such security as may be approved, or upon such valuation or appraisalment, upon such terms, and with such stipulations as the said assignees may think fit, and from time to time to buy in and afterwards resell the same property, effects, and premises, or any of them, or any part thereof, at such time and in such manner as they may deem advisable, without being answerable or accountable for any loss or expence which may be occasioned by any such buying in or reselling; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees instituting all proper and necessary inquiries and proceedings, either before the Commissioners, or at law or in equity, relating to any of the transactions or dealings which may have taken place between the said bankrupt and any person or persons whomsoever, and obtaining all proper and correct statements of all dealings and transactions in respect of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or prosecuting or opposing any petition or petitions to the Court of Review or Court of Chancery, for the division, recovery, defence, or preservation of any part or parts of the said bankrupt's estate and effects; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter relating to the same or in any manner incident thereto; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees being allowed all costs and expences which have been or shall be incurred or expended by them, or either of them, upon any business whatsoever connected with or relating to the affairs of the said bankrupt; also to assent to or dissent from the vesting in the said assignees discretionary power in all matters relative to the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, and for the adjustment, settlement, or beneficial arrangement of the said bankrupt's affairs, and for winding up the concerns thereof; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees consenting and agreeing with any person or persons that the holder or holders of any note or notes, or bill or bills of exchange, drawn or indorsed by the said bankrupt, shall be at liberty to accept of any composition from any person or persons primarily liable upon the same, or any of them, or from any other person or persons for or on account of the said note or notes, bill or bills of exchange, and to give time to or release such parties, or any of them, or any other person or persons in respect of the same, without releasing the said bankrupt's estate, and without relinquishing the right of the holder or holders of the said note or notes, or bill or bills of exchange to prove upon, or to receive a dividend or dividends upon the estate of the said bankrupt; and also to allow and confirm all acts, proceedings, sales, matters, and things which shall have been made, done, taken, or acted in by the said assignees, or either of them, in or about the affairs of the said bankrupt prior to the said meeting; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against John Holroyd, of Wheatley, near Halifax, in the county of York, Cotton Warp Maker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt, on Tuesday the 26th day of April instant, at three o'clock in the afternoon, at the offices of Caistor and Farnworth, being No. 41, Princess-street, in Manchester, in the county of Lancaster, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing an action at law, or taking such other proceedings as may seem most desirable against certain persons to be named at such meeting, who have, since the date and issuing of the said fiat, sold and disposed of certain property belonging to the said bankrupt or his assignees, or to the said assignees adjusting and settling the disputes and differences between the said assignees and the persons so to be named as last aforesaid, respecting the said property, either by submitting the same to arbitration, or in such other manner as to the said assignees may appear most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing and prosecuting any other actions at law, or suits in equity, or taking any other proceedings at law, in equity, or bankruptcy, in respect to the said bankrupt's estate, or which shall be deemed necessary for the protection or recovery of the property and debts of the said bankrupt, which the said assignees may deem advisable; and also to the assignees compromising and arranging the same, and any other dispute or difference which may exist or arise respecting the said bankrupt's estate and affairs upon such terms, and either by submitting the same to arbitration, or otherwise adjusting the same, as the said assignees shall think most advantageous to the said bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from, and in case of assenting to, then to ratify, confirm, and allow the receipts and payments, and all the other acts and proceedings of the said assignees, either in respect to the selling and disposal of the said bankrupt's estate, or otherwise; and generally to give such directions as to the management of the said bankrupt's estate and effects, as to the creditors present at such meeting may appear desirable; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Francis Sandars and Charles Sandars, of Derby, in the county of Derby, Corn Merchants, Dealers and Chapmen, and Copartners, are requested to meet the assignees of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Friday the 22d day of April instant, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, at the offices of Mr. John Moss, Solicitor, in Derby aforesaid, in order to allow and confirm the authority given by the said assignees to the Sheriff of the county of Derby to sell by auction or private contract the corn and other property of the said bankrupts, taken under an extent from the Crown, without proceeding to an inquisition to ascertain that it is the said bankrupts' property; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing by public auction or private contract, or upon valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, in the discretion of the said assignees, for such price or prices as to them shall seem most beneficial for the creditors, the whole or any part of the real estate, or the whole or any part of the stock in trade, household furniture, and other personal estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, to any person or persons whomsoever who shall be willing to purchase the same, or any part or parts thereof; and, in case of such sale or sales by public auction, to assent to or dissent from the said assignees, from time to time, buying in, at the entire risk of the said bankrupts' estate, all or any part of the property which shall be put up to sale, at such price or prices as they shall think proper, and again offering such property for sale and selling the same, without being liable or answerable for any loss or deficiency which may arise in price or value upon resale; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees relinquishing and giving up the tenant right of and in any messuages, warehouses, buildings, yards, land, hereditaments, and other premises which the said bankrupts occupied under leases, or as yearly or other tenants, and paying certain rents in respect of certain parts thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions at law, or suit or suits in equity, or petition or petitions to the Court of Review in Bankruptcy, or any other proceeding at law, in equity, or in bankruptcy, against or at the suit of certain persons, to be named at the said meeting, for the recovery, protection, or defence of any part of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or for ascertaining the validity of any security, assignment, transfer, deed, memorandum, paper, or writing given, signed, or executed, or alleged to be given, signed, or executed, to or by the said bankrupts, or either of them, by or to certain persons, to be named at the said meeting; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise compounding, settling, and adjusting any disputes between the said assignees and such persons, to be so named at such meeting as aforesaid, as to any such security, assignment, transfer, deed, memorandum, paper or writing, debts, sums of money, property, and effects as aforesaid, or any parts or part thereof respectively, and any other debt, claim, matter, or thing relating to the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, and taking the opinion of counsel upon the validity of any such security, assignment, transfer, deed, memorandum, paper, or writing, or upon any claim, demand, matter, or thing arising thereout or connected therewith, and acting upon or abiding by such opinion or opinions when obtained, or not, as to the said assignees shall seem most expedient and beneficial, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees compounding with any debtor or debtors to the estates of the said bankrupts, or either of them, or receiving part of any debt or debts in discharge of the whole, or taking security for payment of the same, or for giving time for any debtor or debtors to the estate of the said bankrupts, or either of them, for payment of his, her, or their debts without security; and also to sanction and confirm the employment by the petitioning creditors and provisional assignee respectively of an accountant, and all acts done by such petitioning creditors and provisional assignee in the management of the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees continuing to employ such accountant, and employing any other accountant, and paying the same accountants respectively such remuneration as the said assignees shall consider reasonable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said assignees paying certain professional and other costs, charges, and expences incurred by the said petitioning creditors and provisional assignee respectively in or about the affairs of the said bankrupts prior to and since the opening of the said fiat; and generally to authorize them the said assignees to act in and about the management of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, as to the said assignees shall seem most expedient and beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE creditors who have proved their debts under a Fiat in Bankruptcy awarded and issued forth against Thomas Whyley Wright and George William Hyde, of the town and county of the town of Nottingham, Dyers and Copartners, Dealers and Chapmen, and bearing date the 15th day of March 1842, are requested to meet the assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, on Wednesday the 27th day of April instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon precisely, at the George the Fourth Inn, in Nottingham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said assignees selling and disposing of the household goods and furniture, stock in trade, vats, coppers, stoves, presses, dyewoods, and dying utensils, and all other the estate and effects, real and personal, of the said bankrupts, or either of them, in one lot or in parcels, and either by public auction or private contract, and for ready money or upon credit, upon such terms as the said assignee may deem most advantageous and fit, and, if upon credit, with such security for payment as the said assignee may think proper, without his being answerable for any loss which may be occasioned thereby; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee paying out of the said bankrupts' estate, to certain persons to be named at the said meeting, certain costs, charges, and expences incurred and made by them in and about the preparing, ingrossing, and executing of a certain indenture of assignment, made by the said bankrupts, or one of them, for the benefit of the said bankrupts' creditors, and also certain other costs, charges, and expences incurred previous to or after the opening of the said fiat, in taking or keeping possession of the said bankrupts' stock and premises, or otherwise, for the discovery, security, and protection of the said bankrupts' estate and effect, and all other costs, charges, and expences whatsoever incurred preparatory or connected with the said fiat; also to assent to or dissent from the said assignee, or such party or parties as may be thought fit and necessary, commencing, prosecuting, carrying on, or defending, at the costs of the said bankrupts' estate, any suit or suits at law or in equity, either already commenced or hereafter to be commenced, for the recovery or protection of or concerning the estate and effects of the said bankrupts, or either of them, and particularly as to the said assignee, or such other party or parties as may be considered necessary, defending and putting in an answer or answers to a bill in Chancery, filed and applying to dissolve a certain injunction or injunctions against one of the said bankrupts and his wife, or either of them, by a certain party or parties to be named at the said meeting, and afterwards to prosecute, at the expence of the said bankrupts' estate, a certain action now at issue between one of the said bankrupts and his wife, and a certain party or parties to be named at the said meeting, and to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or in anywise agreeing in any matter or thing relating to the said action or suit, actions or suits, at law or in equity, or to any debt or debts due from the estate of the said bankrupts, or either of them, to any person or persons, or any claim or claims, dispute or disputes relating thereto, or any other dispute or disputes, claim or claims whatsoever, which shall or may arise with, against, or upon the said assignee in anywise connected with the estate and effects and settlement of the affairs of the said bankrupts, or either of them; also to ratify and confirm all sales, agreements, payments, compositions, arrangements, and other acts and deeds, matters and things, which shall, previously to the said proposed meeting, have been made, done, and entered into, or shall hereafter be entered into, either on account of the said action or actions, suit or suits, or on any other account, by the said assignee in connection with the said bankrupts' estate and effects; and generally to authorize and empower the said assignee to adopt such other steps as he may be advised or think necessary for the interest and benefit of the creditors of the said bankrupts; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted, "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such Act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such Act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 30th day of March 1842, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by
