

diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapel shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the Curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect;

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that when the last census was taken the parish of St. John, Thanet, in the county of Kent, and arch diocese of Canterbury, contained a population of 10,946 persons:

"That besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1700 persons, there is one chapel in the said parish, called Trinity Church, Margate, built by your Majesty's said Commissioners, which affords accommodation to 2000 persons, including 1200 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor;

"That the said chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein;

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said chapel, called Trinity Chapel, Margate, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and that such district should be named "The Trinity District Chapelry, Margate, with boundaries as follow;

"The district is to comprise the north easternmost part of the parish, being bounded on the north and north west by the sea, on the east and south east by the parish of St. Peter, and on or towards the west and south west by the following boundary line, videlicet; commencing on the sea shore (at the point marked A on the map) opposite to the upper part of Upper Marine-terrace, which it passes through to High-street; then through Queen-street, Cecil-square, Union-crescent, through the road to the north of Addington-square, down Long Mill-lane to the Dane, and Lower Dane-road to St. Peter's parish, including all the houses on the left or eastern and north easternmost side thereof, as shewn by the map hereunto annexed, and thereon tinted yellow;

"That baptisms and churchings should be performed in the said chapel; and that the fees arising therefrom should forthwith be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel;

"That the consent of the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Archbishop has signed and sealed this present instrument;

"Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto, as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
