PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the nineteenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth “ report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical “ Duties and Revenues;” and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act to explain and amend two several “ Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners “ for England,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making additional provision for the cure of souls, in certain parishes where such assistance is most required.

“ Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that, except as therein otherwise specified, all the monies and revenues to be paid to us, and all the rents and profits of the lands, tithes, and other hereditaments vested and to be vested in us by and under the authority of the same Act, together with all accumulations of interest produced by and arising therefrom, shall be from time to time carried over by us to a common fund, and by payments or investments made out of such fund, or, if in any case it be deemed more expedient, by means of an actual conveyance and assignment of such lands, tithes, or other hereditaments, or of a portion thereof, additional provision shall be made, by the authority therein provided, for the cure of souls in parishes where such assistance is most required, in such manner as shall, by the like authority, be deemed most conducive to the efficiency of the Established Church: provided always, that in making any such additional provision out of any tithes, or any lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes, so vested or to be vested in us, or out of the rents and profits thereof, due consideration shall be had of the wants and circumstances of the places in which such tithes now arise or have heretofore arisen:

“ And whereas, by virtue of the said recited Acts, and for the purposes thereof, certain lands, tithes, and other hereditaments have become vested in us, and divers monies and revenues, rents, and profits have been received by us, and other lands, tithes, and other hereditaments will become vested in us, and other monies and revenues, rents and profits will be yearly and every year receivable by us:

“ And whereas, after having carefully considered how provision may best be made for the cure of souls, in conformity with the intent and meaning of the said Acts, it appears to us to be fit and proper, that grants should be made, either in augmentation of the incomes of, or towards providing fit houses of residence for, the incumbents of certain benefices and churches, with cure of souls, that is to say, being either parish churches, or churches or chapels with districts legally belonging or assigned thereto; in certain classes; subject to such limitations, as are herein-after mentioned, or as may from time to time be determined on: and we are of opinion,

“ That the first class should consist of grants, made unconditionally, to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid, being in public patronage, namely, in the patronage of your Majesty, either in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, of the Duke of Cornwall, of any archbishop or bishop, of any dean and chapter, dean, archdeacon, prebendary, or other dignitary or officer in any cathedral or collegiate church, or of any rector, vicar, or perpetual curate, as such;

“ That the second class should consist of grants, made to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid; whether in public patronage as aforesaid, or in private patronage, namely, any patronage whatsoever other than as aforesaid; upon condition of such grants being met by benefactions from other sources, either paid to us, on account of the same benefices or churches, or secured in perpetuity to the incumbents thereof; and

“ That the third class should consist of grants, made to benefices or churches with cure of souls as aforesaid, in consideration of their being situate within the places in which any of the tithes vested in us now arise, or in which the tithes in lieu of which any of the lands or other hereditaments vested in us were allotted or assigned have heretofore arisen:

“ And whereas it also appears to us, upon considering the amount of the funds now applicable to the purposes of the said recited Acts, to be expedient, that such grants as aforesaid should, at present, be respectively limited in the manner following, that is to say;

“ In the first class,—To benefices and churches

having a population of two thousand at the least, and an average annual net income below one hundred and fifty pounds; and to the raising of such income as nearly as may be to that amount :

“ In the second class, — To benefices and churches having a like amount of population, and an average annual net income below two hundred pounds ; and

“ In the third class, — So that such grants shall not, in any case, exceed the actual value of the tithes, or of the lands or other hereditaments allotted or assigned in lieu of tithes, in respect of which the same shall be made :

“ And whereas by an Order of your Majesty in Council, issued under the authority of the first-recited Act, and bearing date the sixth day of October last, grants have already been made, in augmentation of the incomes of certain benefices and churches therein mentioned, falling within the said first class, subject to the aforesaid limitations in that behalf ; and we have satisfied ourselves, after due inquiry, that the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked A. fall within the same class, subject to the same limitations, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective amounts stated in the last column of the said schedule :

“ And whereas there has been paid to us, on account of the benefice described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked B., from the source set opposite to the name thereof in the sixth column, the benefaction stated in the seventh column, and we have satisfied ourselves that the said benefice falls within the said second class, subject to the aforesaid limitations in that behalf, and is fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the amount stated in the last column of the same schedule :

“ And whereas the benefices and churches described in the schedule hereunto annexed marked C. are situate within the places set opposite to the names thereof respectively in the fifth column of the said schedule ; and certain of the tithes so vested in us now arise in such places respectively ; and after due inquiry and consideration, we have satisfied ourselves, that the same benefices and churches fall within the said third class, and are fit and proper to be forthwith augmented by the respective amounts stated in the last column of the same schedule, and may be so augmented consistently with the aforesaid limitation in that behalf :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, that there shall be paid by us, in each and every year, out of the monies and revenues, rents and profits aforesaid, to the incumbent for the time being of each of the benefices and churches so described in the said three several schedules, the fixed annual sum, which we have set opposite to the name thereof in the last column of the said schedules respectively ; by equal half yearly payments, on the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, and that the first of such payments shall be made on the first day of May next ; and that whenever a vacancy, in any of the said benefices or churches, shall happen on any other day than the first day of May or the first day of November, the next half-yearly payment shall, in every such case, be apportioned between the incumbent making the vacancy or his representatives, and the incumbent succeeding to the benefice or church so becoming vacant, according to the time which shall have elapsed from the last day of payment to the day of the vacancy inclusive ; and the proportions shall be paid to the respective parties accordingly.

“ And we recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the further augmentation of any of such benefices or churches, if it shall be deemed fit, when there shall be sufficient means for that purpose ; and that if it shall appear to us to be expedient, at any future time, that instead of the annual sum then in a course of payment by us to the incumbent of any benefice, or instead of any part of such annual sum, any land, tithe, or other hereditament should be conveyed to such benefice in fee, nothing herein or in any other scheme contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing such a substitution ; provided that no such change shall take effect before the then next vacancy of the benefice affected thereby, without the written consent of the then existing incumbent.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures for making better provision for the cure of souls, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or either of them ; or from declining to recommend a grant, in any case in which from special circumstances we shall be of opinion that such grant is not expedient.”

April 26, 1842.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for dividing the parish of Saint Andrew Auckland, in the county of Durham, into ecclesiastical districts, and assigning one of such districts as a district parish to St. James's Chapel, at

Coundon, under the 21st section of the 58th Geo. 3., cap. 45 :

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 2d of February 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits, which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels, to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and further continued by an Act, passed in the 1st year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches;" beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that when the last census was taken the parish of St. Andrew Auckland, in the county and diocese of Durham, contained a population of 8414 persons:

"That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation for 800 persons, there are two chapels in the said parish, one called St. Anne, in the town of Bishop Auckland, and the other called St. James, at Coundon, in the said parish; the former of which affords accommodation to 350 persons, and the latter of which affords accommodation for 280 persons, including 205 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor :

" That the said last-mentioned chapel has been consecrated, and divine service is regularly performed therein :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that the said parish should be divided into ecclesiastical districts, under the 21st section of the said Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, and that one of the said districts should be assigned to the said chapel of St. James, at Coundon, for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving the said chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the district attached to the said chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein; and that such district should be named, " The District Parish of Coundon," with boundaries as follow :

Church Commissioners'-Office,
April 26, 1842.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, for assigning chapelry districts to the chapels at Whittle-le-Woods, at Houghton, and at Withnell, in the parish of Leyland, in the county of Lancaster, under the 16th section of the 59th George 3, cap. 134:

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 11th day of March 1842, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" it is, amongst other things; enacted, " that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act, shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division; and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto, under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments, which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided; and it is, by the 21st section of the said Act, further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish or extra parochial place into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the Bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary, for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" it is, amongst other things, enacted, "that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said hereinbefore recited Act, or the said Act now in recital, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which might thereafter be built, or acquired under the powers of the said former Act, or the said Act now in recital; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the Curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such Curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the Bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to Stipendiary Curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such Curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the Bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such Curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws to the contrary notwithstanding;" and whereas by another Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;" and by another Act, made and passed in the 1st and 2d years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled 'An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;'" and also by another Act, made and passed in the 2d and 3d years of His said late Majesty, intituled "An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the 59th year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled 'An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes,'" further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council in the words following, viz.

"Your Majesty's Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the 58th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and continued by an Act, passed in the 7th and 8th years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to prolong for ten years Her Majesty's Commission for building new churches," beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that when the last census was taken, the parish of Leyland, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, contained a population of 14,037 persons:

" That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to 1250 persons, there are five chapels in the said parish, viz. at Whittle-le-Woods, at Hoghton, at Withnell, at Heapey, and at Euxton, which together afford accommodation to 2780 persons; that the said chapel at Whittle-le-Woods affords accommodation to 600 persons, including 313 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; that the said chapel at Hoghton affords accommodation to 465 persons, including 220 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and the said chapel at Withnell affords accommodation to 750 persons, including 420 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor :

" That the said three chapels have been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the said chapels at Whittle-le-Woods, at Hoghton, and at Withnell, respectively, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ; " and that such districts should be named, respectively, " The Chapelry District of Whittle-le-Woods, " " The Chapelry District of Hoghton, " and " The Chapelry District of Withnell, " with boundaries as follow :

" That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third; in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument:

" Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed division and assignments be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
