

persons, one of which, called Bollington Chapel, built by your Majesty's said Commissioners, and dedicated to St. John, affords accommodation to 701 persons, including 397 free seats appropriated to the use of the poor :

" That the said last-mentioned chapel has been consecrated and divine service is regularly performed therein :

" Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that a particular district should be assigned to the said last-mentioned chapel, called Bollington Chapel, under the provisions of the 16th section of an Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes ;" and that such district should be named " The Chapelry District of Bollington," which should comprize the township of Bollington, the same being bounded on the north and north west by the township of Adlington ; on the north east by the township of Pott Shrigley ; on the east by the township of Rainow ; on the south by the townships of Hurdsfield and of Tytherington ; and on the west by the township of Butley (all the said townships being in the parish of Prestbury), as the same is more particularly described by the map, and thereon tinted pink :

" That baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized and performed in the said chapel ; and that the fees arising therefrom should, from and after the next avoidance of the parish church of Prestbury, be received by and belong to the Minister of the said chapel :

" That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Chester has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act, passed in the 59th year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third ; in testimony of which the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this present instrument :

" Your Majesty's Commissioners, therefore, beg leave to lay before your Majesty the before-mentioned circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the plan thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed assignment be accordingly made and effected, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
