

To the King's most Excellent Majesty James the Second, &c.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistant Burgesses and others the Inhabitants of your Majesties Loyal Burrough of Warwick.

May it please your Majesty

As the Death of our late Sovereign Charles the Second was an unspeakable Affliction to Us; So your Majesties Succession to the Crown fill'd Us with unexpressable Joy. But though your Majesty through a succession of several Ages, has an undoubted right to the Imperial Crown of this Realm; Yet has your Majesty by your late Gracious Declaration Command your self a new, in the hearts of all your Loyal Subjects, for which we return your Majesty our humble and hearty Thanks. And as we do lay our selves and Fortunes at your Majesties Feet, so we doubt not when your Majesty shall be pleas'd to call a Parliament but to send such Representatives to sit there, as shall to the utmost endeavour to advance your Majesties Revenue to such a degree as may support the Government in its due Splendor. maintain your Majesties Navies, encourage Trade, and defend your Majesties Person and Government from all Enemies whatsoever. And that God Almighty would Bless your Majesty with a long Life, and prosperous Reign. is the constant and hearty Prayer of your Majesties most Obedient and Dutiful Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, your Commissioners of your Licentency within your City of London, in the Name of our selves, the Commanders, and Commissioned Officers of your Majesties Trained Bands in your said City, from the bottom of our Hearts Condoie the Death of your Majesties dear Brother, Our late Gracious Sovereign of Blessed Memory; And with all Duty and Sincerity, Congratulate your Majesties peaceable Succession to your rightful Throne, notwithstanding the many violent attempts of unreasonable Men.

And humbly beg leave, to return our hearty Thanks, for your Majesties most Gracious assurances to preserve the Government in Church and State as now by Law established.

And to assure your Majesty that with unshaken Principles of Loyalty, to your Majesty and your Successors, in the Right Line, we will faithfully discharge that Trust your Majesty is pleas'd to repose in Us, though at the expense of our Lives and Fortunes; Utumbly beseeching Almighty God to grant your Majesty a long and happy Reign over Us.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal, Ancients, and the rest of the Gentlemen of the Society of Bernards Inn, London.

May it please your Majesty,

As we do most heartily condoie the Death of our late Dread Sovereign, your Majesties most dear and only Brother of ever Blessed Memory; So we do most humbly congratulate your Majesty's peaceable access to the Throne and Government of these Kingdoms, your Majesties true and undoubted Right; And we beseech your Majesty to accept our most humble and hearty thanks for your Majesties late Gracious Declaration for the Protection and support of the Government as it is now by Law established both in Church and State.

And we shall be ready upon all occasions to signify our Duty and Loyalty to your Majesty, by enjoying our Lives and Estates in the defence of, your Majesties Royal Person and Government, humbly desiring God Almighty to bless your sacred Majesty with long Life, Peace and Prosperity.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal, Ancients, and Gentlemen of the Society of Staple Inn.

WE your Majesties most Loyal Subjects, who we cannot put with due passion lament the loss of our late Dread Sovereign of ever blessed Memory; Yet are bound to pay our incumbents Duty of thanks to Divine Providence, who hath of his infinite bounty given Us such an incalculable blessing, as the Establishment of your Sacred Majesty, his only true and rightful Successor in the Royal Throne, assuring our selves under your Majesties Government all Peace and Tranquillity. Your Majesty being the exact Pattern as well of your Predecessors admirable Mercies, as the Inheritor of his Throne, Weerein, that your Majesty may have a long and prosperous Reign, shall be our constant Prayers.

There have been likewise very Loyal Addresses Presented to his Majesty, From the Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the City of Chester. From the Bayliffs and Citizens of the City of Litchfield. From the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriff, and Common Council of Newcastle upon Tyne. From the Corporation of Donbergh From the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of Harwich. From the Burrough of New Milton. From the Mayor, Recorder, Town Clerk, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Walsingham in Berks. From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Reading in Berks. From the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of Doncaster, with other Gentlemen and freeholders within the Town and Sike of Doncaster aforesaid. From the Mayor, and Burgesses of Wilton in Wiltshire. From the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliffs, Burgesses, and all other Inhabitants of Wiggin in Lancashire. From the Gentlemen, free Burgers, and other Inhabitants of North Aderon in Yorkshire. From the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Assistant Justices, Aldermen, Town Clerk, and Common Council of Bury St. Edmunds. From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Sudbury in Suffolk. From the Bayliffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of Dunwich in Suffolk. From the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Commonalty of Thetford in Norfolk and Suffolk. From the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Justices, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Evesham in Worcestershire. From the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of Rye in Sussex. From the Mayor, High Steward, Jurats, Gentlemen, Common Council, Freemen and Inhabitants of Gravesend and Milton in Kent. From the Justices of the Peace (the Mayor being Head) Aldermen Common Council Militia and Inhabitants of Plymouth From the Officers of His Majesties Royal Citadel at Plymouth. From the Burgesses and Inhabitants of Truro in Cornwall. From the Mayor, Magistrates and other Inhabitants of Grampond in Cornwall. From the Mayor, Town-Clerk, Magistrates and Inhabitants of Trigg in Cornwall. From the Mayor, Recorder, Deputy Recorder, Justices, Burgesses and Assistants of the Corporation Town, and Parish of Tiverton in Devon. From the Lords and Gentlemen of the Loyal Society meeting constantly near Gray's-Inn. From the Master, Governors and Assistants of the Scots Corporation of the Foundation of King Charles the Second of Blessed Memory. From the High Constable, headborough and other the Inhabitants of St. Mar-