Whitehall, July 22, 1842.

THE following Addresses were presented to the Queen by the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. Secretary of State for the Home Department, and were very graciously received by Her Majesty:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal subjects, the Noblemen, Deputy Lieutenants, Landholders, Commissioners of Supply, and Justices of Peace of the county of Aberdeen, in general meeting assembled, beg leave to approach the Throne with an expression of our unfeigned indignation and abhorrence at the late most atrocious and treasonable attempt against the sacred life and person of your Majesty, and our heartfelt congratulations on your Majesty's happy preservation.

Under a deep feeling of thankfulness for the merciful interposition of Divine Providence, which has been manifested upon this occasion, we would renew our assurances of devoted attachment and loyalty to your Majesty, and our earnest prayer to Almighty God that your Majesty may long be spared to reign in peace and prosperity over this great empire.

Signed in name and by appointment of the meeting, at Aberdeen, the 21st day of June 1842. John Forbes, Bart. Preses.

Disney, 68, Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin, as Agents and Receivers of my estates in Ireland, whatever may be due to me by way of fines for the renewal of the said lease, together with interest thereon, otherwise your right to a renewal of the same will be barred.

Given under my hand the 6th day of May 1842.

DARNLEY.

To Robert Shore, Gent. his Representatives or Assigns.

NOTICE TO GEORGE HENDERSON.

WHEREAS Elizabeth Henderson, late of Levenshulme, in the county of Lancaster, Spinster, by her last will and testament, dated the 1st day of March 1839, gave and devised all the estate and interest in all those closes of land, with the messuage or dwelling-house and buildings erected thereon, situate in Heaton Norris, in the county of Lancaster, and then occupied by William Andrew, of Heaton Norris aforesaid, Brewer, with the appurtenances, unto the said William Andrew and Samuel Sims, of Stockport, in the county of Chester, Druggist, and the survivor of them, and his heirs, upon trust, that they let and receive the rents and profits thereof for the term of seven years from the time of her decease, in case her brother, George Henderson, of whom she had not heard for the last six years, should not sooner return and apply personally to her said trustees, or one of them, and make out and prove his relationship and identity; but in case he should so return, and apply and make out and prove his relationship and identity, at any time within the said term of seven years, she directed her said trustees and the survivor of them, and his heirs, to stand possessed of the said hereditaments and premises, and of the rents thereof received, in the meantime, and all accumulations, in trust, for the said George Henderson, his heirs, executors, administrators, and assigns for ever; but in case the said George Henderson should not so return, and apply and make out and prove his relationship and identity within the said term of seven years, then the said Elizabeth Henderson gave and devised all her estate and interest in the said hereditaments and premises, and all accumulations of the said rents, unto and to the use of the said William Andrew, his heirs and assigns for ever absolutely, subject, nevertheless, to, and she thereby charged the same with, the payment of divers sums of money in the said will particularly mentioned, to be respectively paid within twelve calendar months next after the determination of the said term of seven years; now, notice is hereby given to the said George Henderson, that the said Elizabeth Henderson, the testatrix, departed this life on the 19th day of March 1839, without having revoked or altered her said will, and that the same was proved in the Consistory Court for the diocese of Chester, on the 7th day of August 1839, by the said William Andrew and Samuel Sims, the executors therein named; and that the said Samuel Sims hath since departed this life, leaving the said William Andrew him surviving; and the said George Henderson is requested immediately to return and apply personally to the said William Andrew, who now resides at Heaton Norris aforesaid, and make out and prove his relationship and identity.
