

said church, is vacant, and is the canonry so secondly vacant according to the said recited Act; and it has been made to appear to us, that the future average annual income of a canonry in the said church will exceed seven hundred and fifty pounds:

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry Bishop of Exeter, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said canonry in the said cathedral church of Exeter shall become and be annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Exeter, and be held by the archdeacon of Exeter for the time being, so long as he shall hold such archdeaconry, and no longer; and that the Venerable John Moore Stevens, the present archdeacon of Exeter, being one of the prebendaries of the said cathedral church, and every future archdeacon of Exeter, although he may not be a prebendary of the said church, shall, as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with, and so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Exeter, and no longer, shall hold and enjoy all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon residentiary of the same church, subject, nevertheless, to the charge upon the income of such canonry hereinafter mentioned:

“ And whereas the only property now belonging to the said archdeaconry of Exeter is the sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock in the Three Pounds per Centum Consolidated Bank Annuities, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, being the produce of the sale of a house formerly belonging to the said archdeaconry; we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said John Moore Stevens, in testimony whereof he has also signed and sealed this scheme, that upon his installation as aforesaid, the said sum of two thousand five hundred and twenty-two pounds sixteen shillings and two pence stock shall become and be vested in us for the purposes of the said recited Act.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Henry Bishop of Exeter, testified as aforesaid, that from and after such annexation as aforesaid, all sums of money, whether arising from rents, fines, compositions, dividends, or other emoluments whatsoever, from time to time payable, according to the statutes and customs of the said cathedral church, or the chapter thereof, to the canon of the canonry so annexed, shall, as the same respectively become due and payable, be, by the treasurer or other proper officer for the time being, divided into three equal parts, and two only of such parts shall be paid to such canon, and the remaining third part shall be paid to the archdeacon of Cornwall for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to any of the matters to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the said Act.”

And whereas notice of the said scheme has been duly given to the Dean and Chapter of Exeter, and no objection has been made thereto:

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Exeter.
