

date the second day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the “ Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and “ Revenues,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provision for the cure of souls in the parish of Batley, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon.

“ Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill endowed parishes or districts, by means of such exchange of advowsons, or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage, as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop in every such case :

“ And whereas the perpetual curacy of Morley, in the said parish of Batley, is in the alternate patronage of the Right Honourable James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton :

“ And whereas the said perpetual curacy is a district parish, having a population exceeding two thousand, and an income below one hundred and fifty pounds, and, in all other respects except as to the patronage thereof, possesses the requisites for augmentation specified in our resolutions, as set forth in an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April last :

“ And whereas, in order to enable us to make an unconditional grant in augmentation of the income of the said perpetual curacy, in conformity with such resolutions, the said patrons are desirous and have agreed, that such their patronage shall be transferred to, and permanently vested in, the Vicar of Batley aforesaid :

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said James Thomas Earl of Cardigan and Thomas Earl of Wilton, and of the Right Reverend Charles Thomas Bishop of Ripon, and of the Reverend Andrew Cassels, the present Vicar of Batley aforesaid, testified by their having, respectively, signed and sealed this scheme, that the patronage and right of nomination or presentation to the said perpetual curacy of Morley shall become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, the said Andrew Cassels and his successors, Vicars of Batley, for ever.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council ; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Act ; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Register of the diocese of Ripon.
