Whitehall, August 29, 1842.

THIS morning, at seven o'clock, Her Majesty embarked, from the Dock-yard at Woolwich, on board Her Majesty's yacht the Royal George, and immediately proceeded on Her voyage to Scotland.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the sixteenth day of August one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of an Act, passed in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and “ amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England,” have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for dividing the archdeaconry of Northumberland, in the diocese of Durham, and constituting a new archdeaconry of Lindisfarne; and for endowing both archdeaconries.

“ Whereas by the first recited Act, power is given newly to arrange the limits of deanries and archdeaconries, so that every parish and extra-parochial place be within a rural deanry, and every deanry within an archdeaconry, and to provide that all the archdeaconries of England and Wales be in the gift of the bishops of the respective dioceses in which they are situate; and it is provided that it shall be competent to us to propose that all parishes, churches, or chapelries which are locally situate in any diocese, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese in which the same are locally situate, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the bishop of the diocese within which such parishes, churches, or chapelries are locally situate:

“ And whereas by the secondly-recited Act it is enacted, that in any case in which it shall appear, upon the representation of the bishop, to be proper to divide any archdeaconry or rural deanry on account of the magnitude thereof, or any other peculiar circumstances connected therewith, such archdeaconry or rural deanry may be divided into two or more portions, and each of such portions may be constituted a separate archdeaconry or rural deanry, as the case may be, and a district may be assigned thereto; provided that no such division shall be made without the consent of the bishop, under his hand and seal:

“ And whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that any archdeaconry may, subject to the consent of the bishop, be endowed by the annexation of a canonry, or by augmentation out of the common fund in the same Act mentioned, provided that the said augmentation shall not be such as to raise the average annual income of any archdeaconry to an amount exceeding two hundred pounds: provided always, that no archdeacon shall be entitled to hold any endowment or augmentation or other emolument as such archdeacon, under the provisions of the same Act, unless he shall be resident for the space of eight months in every year within the diocese in which his archdeaconry is situate:

“ And whereas it is by the same Act enacted, that upon the endowment of any archdeaconry by either of the modes of endowment therein provided, and with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, any benefice annexed to such archdeaconry may, by the authority therein provided, be disannexed therefrom; and the patronage of such benefice shall thenceforth revert to the patron to whom it belonged before such annexation:

“ And whereas it is by the thirdly-recited Act enacted, that, notwithstanding any thing in the said secondly-recited Act contained, it shall be lawful, with the consent of the bishop of any diocese, and of the patron of any benefice within the limits of any archdeaconry in such diocese, to endow such archdeaconry, by the annexation thereto of such benefice; such annexation to take effect immediately if the benefice be vacant at the time of such endowment, or otherwise upon the then next vacancy thereof:

“ And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Edward Bishop of Durham to be expedient, that the said archdeaconry of Northumberland should, on account of the magnitude thereof, be divided into two archdeaconries; and that the rural deanries therein should be newly arranged, and certain new deanries constituted:

“ We, therefore, humbly recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, that the said archdeaconry of Northumberland be divided into two portions, by a line drawn from west to east along the northern boundaries of the parishes of Falstone, Thorneyburn, Bellingham, Corsenside, Whelpington, Kirkharle, Stamfordham, Ponteland, and Stannington, in the county of Northumberland, and Bedlington, in the county of Durham; and that the whole portion of the said archdeaconry lying to the south of the said line shall continue to be and be called the archdeaconry of Northumberland; and the said parish of Bedlington shall be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Northumberland; and that the whole portion of the said archdeaconry lying to the north of the said line shall be constituted a new archdeaconry, and shall be and be called the archdeaconry of Lindisfarne; and all that part of the said county of Durham which lies to the north of the said county of Northumberland, shall be included in and form part of the said archdeaconry of Lindisfarne.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the limits of the deaneries of Alnwick, Bamburgh, Corbridge, Morpeth, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in the existing archdeaconry of Northumberland, shall be newly arranged, and that the same shall be respectively divided, and out of the portions thereof four new deaneries shall be constituted, which shall be and be called respectively the deaneries of Norham, Rothbury, Bellingham, and Hexham; and that the deaneries of Bellingham, Corbridge, Hexham, and Newcastle-upon-Tyne, shall be in the archdeaconry of Northumberland, and the deaneries of Alnwick, Bamburgh, Norham, Morpeth, and Rothbury, shall be in the archdeaconry of Lindisfarne; and that the said deaneries respectively shall contain and consist of the several parishes set against their respective names in the schedules hereunto annexed, marked A. and B. respectively.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that all parishes, churches, or chapelries locally situate within either of the said archdeaconries, but subject to any peculiar jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Durham, shall be only subject to the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Durham for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that the said Edward Bishop of Durham may and shall forthwith collate some fit and proper person to the dignity or office of archdeacon of the said archdeaconry of Lindisfarne; and that the right of appointing the archdeacon of Lindisfarne shall be vested in the said bishop, and his successors bishops of Durham, for ever.

“ And we further recommend and propose, with the consent of the said Edward Bishop of Durham, testified as aforesaid, that the canonry in the said cathedral church of Durham which shall next become vacant shall, immediately upon the vacancy thereof, become and be annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Northumberland, and be held by the archdeacon of Northumberland for the time being, so long as he shall hold such archdeaconry, and no longer; and the then and every future archdeacon of Northumberland shall, as such archdeacon, be entitled to installation to the same canonry, and shall be invested with, and so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Northumberland, but no longer, shall hold and enjoy, all the rights, privileges, and emoluments of a canon of the same church; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the eleventh day of August last, relating to the revenues of the dean and certain canons of the said cathedral church.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, from and immediately after the annexation of such canonry as aforesaid to the archdeaconry of Northumberland, the rectory of Howick, now annexed thereto, shall be disannexed therefrom, and shall be a benefice with cure of souls in the patronage of the said Bishop of Durham, and his successors bishops of Durham for ever.

“ And whereas the vicarage of Eglington, within the limits of the said archdeaconry of Lindisfarne, and in the patronage of the see of Durham, has been represented by the said Edward Bishop of Durham, and appears to us, to be a suitable endowment for the said archdeaconry:

“ We, therefore, with the consent of the said Bishop, testified as aforesaid, further recommend and propose, that the said vicarage of Eglington shall, upon the next vacancy thereof, become and be annexed and united to the said archdeaconry of Lindisfarne; and that the then and every future archdeacon of Lindisfarne shall, as such archdeacon, become and be vicar of the said vicarage of Eglington, and shall possess and enjoy all rights, privileges, and emoluments belonging to the said vicarage, so long as he shall remain archdeacon of Lindisfarne, and no longer.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that, until the time of such last-mentioned annexation, there shall be paid by us, out of the common fund in the secondly-recited Act mentioned, to the archdeacon of Lindisfarne for the time being, the annual sum of one hundred and eighty pounds, on the first day of January in every year, and every such annual payment shall be made only upon production to us of a certificate, under the hand of the Bishop of Durham for the time being, that the archdeacon has duly resided during the preceding year; provided that on the first day of January next, and on the day of such annexation as aforesaid, if happening on any other day than the first day of January, there shall be paid by us to the then archdeacon of Lindisfarne, a due proportion only of the said annual payment; and that if, before such annexation, any vacancy in the said archdeaconry shall happen on any other day than any day of payment, the sum then next payable shall be duly apportioned, between the archdeacon making the vacancy or his representatives, and the archdeacon succeeding to the said archdeaconry.

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to any of the matters to which this scheme applies, in conformity with the said recited Acts, or either of them.”

AT the Court at Windsor, the 27th day of August 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS an Act, passed by the Governor General of India in Council, on the eleventh day of October one thousand eight hundred and forty-one, intituled "An Act for prohibiting the importation of rum and rum shrub into the Presidency of Fort Saint George, in Madras," has this day been laid before Her Majesty in Council, and Her Majesty, with the advice of the Privy Council, has been pleased to declare, and doth hereby declare, that the same is satisfactory proof, that rum and rum shrub, the produce of any foreign country, or of any British possession into which foreign sugar or rum can be legally imported, has been prohibited to be imported into the territories subject to the Government of the Presidency of Fort Saint George, in Madras:

And whereas by the said Act, such regulations have been made and provided for the prevention of frauds by the admixture of spirits made from rice, grain, or other substances, not being the produce of the sugar cane, or of the date or palm tree, with the rum or rum shrub to be exported under the Act of Parliament hereinafter mentioned, as in the opinion of the Governor General in Council are calculated for that purpose:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, and in pursuance of the power and authority in this behalf vested in Her by an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to reduce the duty on rum and rum shrub, the produce of, and imported from, certain British possessions in the East Indies into the United Kingdom," doth hereby order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that, from and after the date of this Order, rum and rum shrub, the produce of any portion of the territories subject to the Government of the Presidency of Fort Saint George, in Madras, in respect of which portion the prohibition aforesaid shall continue in force, shall, on importation into the United Kingdom, be admitted to entry at the duties by the said Act of Parliament imposed and set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed, in lieu of the duties to which such rum and rum shrub is now liable on the importation thereof into the United Kingdom; subject, nevertheless, to the provisions in the said Act of Parliament contained with regard to the certificates and declaration thereby required:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Lord FitzGerald, President of the Board of Commissioners for the Affairs of India, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

SCHEDULE.

For every gallon of rum, of any strength not exceeding the strength of proof by Sikes's hydrometer, and so in proportion for any greater or less strength than the strength of proof, and for every greater or less quantity than a gallon, being the produce of the territories subject to the Government of the Presidency of Fort Saint George, in Madras, not being sweetened or mixed with any article so that the degree of strength thereof cannot be exactly ascertained by such hydrometer, nine shillings and four pence.

For every gallon of rum shrub, however sweetened, the produce of, and imported from, such territories, and so in proportion for any greater or less quantity than a gallon, nine shillings and four pence.
