

Whitehall, August 29, 1842.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Henry Shield, of Helmington-hall, in the county palatine of Durham, Gentleman, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in order to testify his grateful and affectionate regard for the memory of his maternal uncle, the Rev. Robert Spencer, late of Helmington-hall aforesaid, Clerk, deceased, take and use the surname of Spencer only, in lieu of that of Shield, and also bear the arms of Spencer; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise Her Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 30, 1842.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto the Reverend James-Tooke Hales, of Tompson, in the county of Norfolk, Clerk, eldest son and heir of James Hales, late of the city of Norwich, Gent. deceased, by Barbara his wife, youngest daughter of John-Green Baseley, Esq. some time Mayor of the said city, and sister of John Baseley-Tooke (formerly John Baseley), late of Tompson aforesaid, Esq. deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a proviso contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, the said John Baseley-Tooke, assume the surname of Tooke, in addition to and after that of Hales, and that he and they may bear the arms of Tooke; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, August 27, 1842.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Frank Isaac Nalder, of Croscombe, near Shepton Mallet, in the county of Somerset, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named the Primitive Methodist Chapel, situated at Fore-street, in the borough of St. Ives, in the county of Cornwall, in the district of the Penzance union, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 26th day of August 1842, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 29th day of August 1842,
Geo. D. John, Superintendent Registrar.
