WHEREAS a meeting of the Commissioners of Land Tax was held at the White Hart Inn, Lewes, in the county of Sussex, on the 8th day of July last, pursuant to a notice published in the London Gazette, agreeably to the directions of the Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, intituled "An Act for granting to Her Majesty duties on profits arising from property, professions, trades, and offices," for the purpose of choosing fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for the execution of the said Act, for the upper division of Pevensey rape, in the said county of Sussex; and whereas it appears that most of the several Commissioners, chosen and set down on the list to supply vacancies for the said upper division of Pevensey rape, have signified their intention of declining to act as Commissioners; and therefore it is necessary that another meeting of the Land Tax Commissioners for the said county should be held for the purpose of appointing Commissioners to supply vacancies for the division aforesaid;

Now we, two of the Commissioners of Stamps and Taxes, do, in pursuance of the powers vested in us, hereby accordingly convene a meeting of the persons appointed to act as Commissioners of Land Tax for the county aforesaid, to be holden at the Ram Inn, Westfisle, on the 28th of the present month, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of appointing such Commissioners for the said upper division of Pevensey rape.
