

Edwin William Yarrington, formerly of Cross-street West, Pottergate-street, Heigham, Norwich, Clerk to a Wholesale Stationer, then of London-street, Norwich, Stationer and Bookbinder, trading in partnership with Charles John Taylor, and late of Gun-lane, St Stephen, Norwich, out of business.

George Nathaniel Stewardson, formerly of Magdelene-street, St Clement, Norwich, Printer, Stationer, Bookbinder, Retailer of Beer, Dealer in Glass, China, and Earthenware, same time of Magdelene-street aforesaid, out of business.

William Girling the younger, formerly of Carrow, Norwich, Boat Builder and Beer Seller, and late of Trowse, Millgate, Norwich, Boat Builder, Dealer in Linen Drapery and Grocery, since lodging in St. Martin, at Oak-street, Norwich, out of business.

Charles John Taylor, late at the Castle Inn, Castle-meadow, in the parish of Saint Peter of Mancroft, and carrying on the trade of Bookbinder, at Orford-hill, in the parish of St. Stephen, previously of London-street, in the parish of Saint Andrew, carrying on the aforesaid trade, and at the same time residing at the Castle Inn aforesaid, before that of London-street aforesaid, all in Norwich, in partnership with Edwin William Yarrington, as Booksellers, Bookbinders, and Stationers, under the name and firm of Yarrington and Taylor, formerly at the Castle Inn aforesaid, Bookbinder.

At the Court-House, at Norwich Castle, in the County of Norfolk, on the 31st day of October 1842, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon precisely.

Henry Wellington Riom, formerly of Burnham, Westgate, Superintendent of Police for the Hundreds of Smithdon and Bertherews, then of Swafham, Relieving Officer of that Union, then of Lynn Regis, Norfolk, Wine, Spirit, Corn, Coal, and Stone Merchant, then of No. 31, George-street, Lambeth, Surrey, out of business, afterwards an Accountant, then of Braintree, Essex, Superintendent of the Essex Constabulary Force, then of the Duke's-place Inn, Duke-palace, Norwich, and at Fulsham, Norfolk, Attorney's Clerk, and late Stationer, Bookbinder, Grocer, and Tea Dealer, since a Stationer, Bookseller, and Tobaccoconist.

Harrison Adkins, formerly of Outwell, Norfolk, Farmer and Collector of Drainage Rates, and Tool Seller, then Farmer, in partnership with his Son, James Adkins.

George Browne, formerly of East Dereham, Norfolk, Journeyman Coach and Gig Maker, and late of Walton, in the same trade.

John Filby Ward, late of Weasenham, Norfolk, Cattle Dealer.

Thomas Withnoe, late of Downham-market, Norfolk, Printer, Stationer, Newspaper Agent, and Dealer in Tobacco and Cigars, previously of Long Sutton, Lincolnshire, Printer and Stationer, then a Prisoner for Debt in the County Gaol, Lincoln, and formerly of Long Sutton aforesaid, Printer and Stationer.

John Howell, late of Great Yarmouth, Norfolk, Currier and Leather Dresser, previously of Golden Bull-lane, Norwich, Currier and Leather Cutter, then Beer Seller by Retail, and formerly of Weasum-street, Norwich, Currier and Leather Cutter.

David Train, formerly of Hatfield Peveril, Essex, Carter, Excavator, and Embanker, then of Witham, Essex, in the same business, and late of Terrington, St. Andrews, Norfolk, in the same trade.

John Withers, late of Blofield, Norfolk, Bricklayer, Builder, and Farmer, lately Bricklayer and Farmer.

John Robertson, formerly of Norfolk-street, King's Lynn, Norfolk, Rope and Twine Maker, General Dealer, and Dealer in Linen Cloth, Sacks, Canvas, and Tarpaulin, then of Jew's-lane, King's Lynn aforesaid, in the same trades, and late of No. 5, Fryer's-street, South Lynn, King's Lynn aforesaid, in the same trades, since out of business.

At the Court-House, at Durham, in the County of Durham, on the 29th day of October 1842, at Ten o'clock in the Forenoon precisely.

William Robinson, late of Stot-lane, Sunderland, Durham, Journeyman Bread Baker.

John Armstrong, formerly in Lodgings, at Wolsingham, Durham, Hawker and Draper, afterwards of the same place, Draper, and late lodging at Crook, Durham, Draper.

Burnet Smith, previously of William-street, Hackney Coach Proprietor, and late at Furnished Lodgings, in Northumberland-street, Bishop Wearmouth, Durham, in no employment.

George Walker Barnes, formerly at No. 9, Heron-street, Little Shields, Durham, Auctioneer, Appraiser, Ship's Husband, and Commission Agent, and late at Furnished Lodgings, at No. 9, Heron-street aforesaid, in the same business.

Thomas Wilson, formerly of No. 6, Derwent-street, Bishop Wearmouth, and late at Furnished Lodgings, at Horner's Commercial Hotel, High-street, Sunderland, juxta Mare, Durham, Clerk to Messrs. James Hartley and Co. at the Wear Glass Works, Sunderland aforesaid.

Robert Dent, late of York-street, Bishop Wearmouth, Durham, Cabinet Maker and Upholsterer.

James Pringle, late at Furnished Lodgings, at Windmill-hills, Gateshead, Durham, Joiner, previously of No. 21, Leazes-crescent, Newcastle-upon-Tyne, in business, under the name of J. Pringle and Co. at No. 34, Bund Clune, in the said borough, formerly as a Coal Fitter, Ship Owner, and Insurance Broker, Spirit Merchant, Potatoe Merchant, and General Agent, and lately as a Coal Fitter, Ship and Insurance Broker, Potatoe Merchant, and General Agent.

Matthew Watson, formerly of Wellington-street, South Shields, Gentleman, afterwards Soda Water and Lemonade Manufacturer, then in partnership with John Turner, as Soda Water and Lemonade Manufacturers, afterwards Keeper of Watson's Hotel, South Shields, and the Yorkshire Tavern, Wapping, South Shields, and late of Washington Station, Durham, Publican.

Frederick Neeve, formerly at No. 8, St. Thomas's-place, St. Thomas's-square, Hackney, Middlesex, Teacher of Foreign Languages, and late residing at North-gate, Darlington, Durham, Professor of Foreign Languages.

John Ramsay Anderson, formerly of Wapping-street, South Shields, Durham, Boot and Shoe Maker, afterwards of Nile-street, a Town's Missionary on behalf of the Society of Primitive Methodists, at South Shields aforesaid, and late of Wapping-street aforesaid, Boot and Shoe Maker and Dealer in Seamen's Clothes.

Joseph Hudson, formerly of Terry-hill, Durham, Publican and Horse Jobber, Dealer in Horses on Commission, and late Publican.

Joseph Bond the younger, formerly of Old Shildon, Publican and Farmer, and late Cartman.

Matthew Patton, formerly of the Crescent, Seaham-harbour, Durham, Innkeeper, Common Brewer, and Proprietor of an Omnibus, running between Seaham-harbour and Sunderland, afterwards of the same place, Common Brewer and Omnibus Proprietor as aforesaid, and late of the same place, carrying on business as a Common Brewer, under the name of Mary Patton.

Thomas Blumer, late at Lodgings with his father, William Blumer, of South Shields, Durham, Shipwright, out of business, previously of Wellington-street, South Shields, formerly of the Lawe, South Shields, Durham, Joiner and Builder, before that lodging with his said father, of the Lawe aforesaid, Joiner and Builder.

Matthew Park, formerly of Howarth-shore, Durham, and of Walker, Northumberland, Painter, Glazier, and Dealer in Marine Stores; and late of Howarth-shore, Durham, Painter and Glazier only.

Josiah Sutherland Cormack, formerly of Bishop Wearmouth, Durham, Grocer and Tea Dealer, and late lodging at Bishop Wearmouth aforesaid, out of business.

Anthony Bell, formerly of Queen's Head, Market-place, Wolsingham, Durham, Cattle Dealer, Butcher, and Innkeeper, and late residing at Furnished Lodgings, at the Queen's Head, Market-place, Wolsingham aforesaid, Butcher.

Thomas Wilson, formerly of Neastham-square, in business in Law-street, both in Sunderland, Durham, Painter and Glazier.

Ralph Sanderson, formerly of Coronation-street, Bishop Wearmouth, Durham, Boot and Shoe Maker, then of same place and trade, and part Owner of the brig Pheasant, and late of same place, Boot and Shoe Maker.