THE Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury having certified to the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, in pursuance of the Act, 10th Geo. 4th, c. 27, sec. 1, that the actual expenditure of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland exceeded the actual revenue thereof, for the year ended the 5th day of July 1842, by the sum of one million four hundred and sixty-seven thousand seven hundred and four pounds, twelve shillings; The Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt hereby give notice, that no sum will be applied by them on account of the Sinking Fund, under the provisions of the said Act, between the 12th day of October 1842, and the 5th day of January 1843.

S. Higham, Comptroller General.

National Debt-Office, October 13, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a separate building, named Footscray Chapel, situated at Footscray, in the parish of Chislehurst, in the county of Kent, in the district of Bromley, being a building certified according to law as a place of religious worship, was, on the 6th day of October 1842, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of the 6th and 7th William 4, cap. 85.

Witness my hand this 11th day of October 1842,

Henry Nottingham, Superintendent Registrar.

In the matter of Letters Patent granted to David Stead, formerly of Great Winchester-street, in the city of London, and now of George-street, Adelphi, in the county of Middlesex, Merchant, for "Making or Paving Public Streets and Highways, and Public and Private Roads, Courts, and Bridges, with Timber or Wooden Blocks," bearing date at Westminster, 19th May 1838.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, under and by virtue of the second section of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law touching letters patent for inventions;"

I, David Stead, the patentee of the said letters patent, bearing date the 19th May 1838, for making or paving public streets and highways, and public and private roads, courts, and bridges, with timber or wooden blocks, intend to petition Her Most Gracious Majesty in Council, to confirm the said letters patent, or to grant new letters patent.

And notice is hereby further given, that an application will be made, on the 19th day of November next (or so soon afterwards as Counsel can be heard), to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, for a time to be fixed for hearing the matter of the said petition.—Dated the 14th day of October 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the trustees of John Kendrick's charity, in the borough of Reading, under the sanction of the High Court of Chancery, to sell or exchange all or any part or parts of the lands, hereditaments, and other property vested in them as such trustees; and to purchase other lands, or to grant building leases of all or any part of such lands and hereditaments, for such terms, and to take such fines, and reserve such rents on the said leases, as may be deemed proper; and to pay and apply the moneys to arise by such sale or fines, and the rents reserved upon any of such leases; and to hold the said lands, or any lands purchased or taken in exchange, to and for, and upon such objects, trusts, intents, and purposes, consistently with the nature of the said charity, as shall be sanctioned and ordered by the said Court of Chancery.

Gregory, Faulkner, Gregory, and Bourdillon, Bedford-row, Agents for the Bill;
J. J. Blandy, Reading, Solicitor and Clerk to the Trustees.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal, or alter, amend, and enlarge, so as to consolidate in one Act of Parliament, the powers and provisions of a certain Act, passed in the twenty-fourth year of the reign of King George the Second, c. 26, intituled "An Act for cleansing and enlightening the open places, streets, and other passages, and regulating the nightly watch and bedels in the parish of Saint Mathew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex;" and also of another Act, passed in the thirty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 88, intituled "An Act for paving and repairing certain streets, lanes, and other publick passages and places in the parish of Saint Mathew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for paving and regulating such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and for removing obstructions and annoyances therein;" and also another Act, passed in the fifty-third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, c. 113, intituled "An Act for the better relief and maintenance of the poor, and for making a more adequate provision for the rector of the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the county of Middlesex, and for more effectually lighting, watching, cleansing, and improving the streets and other public places of and within the said parish;" and also of a general Act, passed in the fifth and sixth years of the reign of King William the Fourth, c. 50, intituled "An Act to amend and consolidate the laws relating to the highways of that part of Great Britain called England," so far as relates to the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, in the county of Middlesex.

By which Bill it is intended to repeal the rating clauses in the said Acts, and in lieu thereof to authorize the laying of different graduated rates on various descriptions of property in the said parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, whereby the present authorized assessments of such rates will be altered; and generally to remodel the existing system of rating such property, and to consolidate and extend the powers and provisions of the said Acts for assessing and levying the rates so amended, so that the commissioners to be appointed may, by such intended Act, have the sole control of paving, lighting, and cleansing the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and such parts of Old Cock-lane and York-street as are in the parish of Saint Leonard, Shoreditch, and superintending the highways thereof; and also to appoint commissioners to carry into execution the powers and provisions of the said intended Act, and for such powers, alterations, and provisions as may be deemed expedient, or as Parliament, in its wisdom, may ultimately direct.—Dated this seventh day of October 1842.

Overton and Hughes, Solicitors, No. 25,
Old Jewry, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing certain downs, called Flower Down and Littleton Down, and all other the downs, commons, and waste lands within the parish of Littleton, in the county of Southampton, and for extinguishing the rights of common, and other rights and privileges upon and over the same; and for providing for the expence of such inclosure by a rate, or by a sale of land, or by such other means as may be deemed expedient.—Dated this eighth day of October 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable a Company, called "The European Life Insurance and Annuity Company," to sue and be sued in the name of the Secretary, or any one of the Directors for the time being, of the said Company; and to grant other powers and privileges to the said Company.—Dated this fourth day of October 1842.

W. Spike, 15, Clifford's-inn, London,
Solicitor to the Bill.

Great Gransden Inclosure.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for leave to bring in a Bill for dividing, allotting, and inclosing the open and common fields, meadows, commons, and other lands and waste grounds within the parish of Great Gransden, in the county of Huntingdon; and in which Bill power is intended to be given for raising money, from time to time, for defraying the expences of the said Bill, and other the expences of the said inclosure, by a rate or rates upon the proprietors of the said lands and grounds, or by such other means as may be thought expedient.

Wm. Day.

St. Neots, September 22, 1842.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to extend the term, and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions, of an Act relating to the turnpike road from Sheffield to Langset, both in the west riding of the county of York, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first and second years of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Victoria, entitled "An Act to repeal the Wadsley and Langset turnpike road Act, so far as relates to the Wadsley and Langset district of the said road, in the west riding of the county of York, and to make new provisions in lieu thereof; and also for extending the said district of road to or near to Moorfields, in the parish of Sheffield, and for other purposes."

And it is intended by the Act, so to be applied for, to alter and increase the tolls at present authorized to be taken under the said recited Act.—Dated this first day of October 1842.

By order,
Wilson and Younge, Clerks to the Trustees
of the said turnpike road.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act to extend the term, and to amend and enlarge the powers and provisions, of three several Acts relating to the turnpike roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbro' Green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby, that is to say, an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, entitled "An Act for repairing and widening the road from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the west riding of the county of York, and also the road branching out of the said road at or near Mosbrough-green, in the said county of Derby, to Clown, in the same county;" an Act, passed in the thirty-ninth year of the same reign, entitled "An Act to continue, for twenty-one years, and from thence to the end of the then next session of Parliament, the term, and to alter and enlarge the powers, of an Act, passed in the nineteenth year of the reign of His present Majesty, for repairing and widening the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosborough-green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby;" and an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled "An Act for continuing and amending two Acts of His late Majesty, for repairing the roads from Gander-lane, in the county of Derby, to Sheffield, in the county of York, and from Mosbrough-green to Clown, both in the said county of Derby; and also for widening and altering certain parts of the said roads, and making and maintaining certain branches of road communicating therewith."

And it is intended by the Act, so to be applied for, to alter and increase the tolls at present authorized to be taken under the said recited Acts.—Dated the first day of October 1842.

By order,
Wilson and Younge, Clerks to the Trustees
or Commissioners of the above turnpike roads.
