

tation for receiving the same; and the said annual sums of £36, £600, and £36 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

James Shaw, Chamberlain.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for dividing, allotting, and inclosing certain waste grounds and commonable lands, called Horder's-wood, otherwise Walthamchase, Sherrill-heath, and Shidfield-green, situate in the parish of Droxford, in the county of Southampton; and for extinguishing all rights of common and other rights in, upon, and over the same; and that it is intended to make provision in the said Act for defraying the expences of applying for and passing the same, and making compensation for any existing rights, payments, or fees, now payable in respect of such waste grounds and commonable lands, or the timber growing thereon, and carrying the said Act into execution by sale of a portion of the said waste grounds and commonable lands, and in case the moneys to be raised by such sale shall not be sufficient to defray such expences, then by a rate on the proprietors or persons entitled to allotments of the said waste grounds and commonable lands for the deficiency, or by some other means to be provided for by the said intended Act.—Dated this fourteenth day of October 1842.

W. and C. J. Gunner, Solicitors.

Scarborough Harbour.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, by the Commissioners for improving the pier and harbour of Scarborough, for a Bill to continue, amend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of the several Acts following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the fifth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to enlarge the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the twenty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act to explain and amend an Act, passed in the fifth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled 'An Act to enlarge the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York,' and for making the said Act more effectual;" another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for continuing the duties, and enlarging the powers granted by two Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the eighteenth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties granted by three Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the third year of His present Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the forty-first year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties and altering the powers granted by four Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of His late Majesty King George the Second, and in the third and eighteenth years of His present Majesty's reign, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the forty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for altering and enlarging the powers of several Acts, made in the fifth and twenty-fifth years of King George the Second, and in the third, eighteenth, and forty-first years of His present Majesty, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for further continuing the duties and altering the powers granted by six several Acts of their late Majesties King George the Second and King George the Third, for enlarging the pier and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" another Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for amending an Act of the third year of His present Majesty, for continuing and altering six former Acts of their late Majesties King George the Second and King George the Third, for enlarging the piers and harbour of Scarborough, in the county of York;" or to repeal the said Acts, and to grant other powers, provisions, and authorities in lieu thereof, for the government and regulation of the said piers and harbour, and the several works belonging thereto or connected therewith.

And notice is hereby also given, that in the said Bill powers will be contained for deepening and improving the said harbour, and for making and maintaining certain additions to the present piers, and also one or more new and additional pier or piers, jetty or jetties within the said harbour, and particularly for taking down the present west pier, and erecting another on or near the site thereof. All which new works will be situate wholly within the township of Scarborough, in the parish of Scarborough, in the north riding of the county of York. Duplicate plans and sections of which intended works, with books of reference thereto, will be deposited, for public inspection, with the Clerk of the Peace for the north riding of the county of York, at his office at Northallerton, in the same county, and with the Clerk of the Peace for the borough of Scarborough and the liberties thereof, at his office in the said borough of Scarborough, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, a copy of the said plans, sections, and book of reference, will be deposited with the parish clerk of Scarborough aforesaid, at his usual place of abode.

And notice is hereby further given, that in the said Bill provision will be made for levying new, and altering the existing, tolls, rates, or duties; for varying or extinguishing exemptions from
