BRITISH GUIANA.

Counties of Demerary and Essequibo.

IN pursuance of authority granted by his Honour the Chief Justice of British Guiana, dated the 7th day of May 1842;

I, the undersigned, Provost Marshal of British Guiana, in the name and in behalf of Ann Aves, executrix by and under the last will and testament of John Bachope, lately an inhabitant of the county of Demerary, deceased, do hereby, by edict, cite all known and unknown European creditors of the estate of said John Bachope, deceased, to appear in person, or by their attorneys, at the Roll Court for these counties, to be holden at the Court-house, in the Guiana Public-buildings, George-town, in the month of March 1843, and following days, in order to render their respective claims, properly attested and in due form, in default of which the non-appears will be proceeded against according to law.

Demerary and Essequibo, this 16th day of September 1842.

T. C. HAMMILL, Provost Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Woodman versus Madgen, with the approbation of John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Sun Inn, in Haltwhistle, in the county of Northumberland, some time in the month of December next, of which due notice will be given;

Three freehold messuages or dwelling-houses, and a cooper's shop and garden, together with several pieces or parcels and dales of land; and which said dwelling-houses, shop, garden, and land are situate in and near to Haltwhistle aforesaid, late the property of Simon Musgrave, late of Haltwhistle aforesaid, deceased, and are now in the respective occupations of Miss Lamb, William Gordon, George Pearson, Robert Skelton, William Ord, Robert Bell, and Robert Dent.

Printed particulars may shortly be had (gratis) at the chambers of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London; of Messrs. Gibson, Solicitors, Hexham; Messrs. Chisholme and Co. Solicitors, 64, Lincoln's-inn-fields, London; Messrs. Murrays and Co. Solicitors, Chancery-lane aforesaid; and at the place of sale.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Algar against Cock, the creditors of Samuel Algar, late of Plymouth, in the county of Devon, deceased (who died on or about the 10th day of June 1836), are forthwith, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. at the chambers of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes intituled Hubbard against Young, Drewry v. Davies, and Drewry v. Drewry, the creditors of Elizabeth Hubbard, late of Englefield-green, in the county of Surrey, Widow, deceased (who died on or about the 19th day of August 1824), are forthwith to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Hall against Brown, the creditors of the Reverend Thomas Brown, late of Tideswell, in the county of Derby, Clerk, deceased (who died on or about the 22d day of November 1836), are hereby required forthwith to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause of Thompson versus Findlay, and Wolfe versus Findlay, the next of kin of William Davidson Parkins, late of Calcutta, in the East Indies, Coach Maker (who died in the month of December 1825), living at his death, or the personal representative or representatives of any such next of kin as have since died, are, by their Solicitors, forthwith to come in before Sir Giffin Wilson, one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove their kindred, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order. The said William Davidson Parkins was a native of the city of Carlisle, in England, and left that place in the month of April 1803, for Calcutta, where he resided until October 1825, when he quitted for England, and died at Sea, off Pondicherry, in December 1825; he was brother of Joseph Wilfred Parkins, formerly Sheriff of London and county of Middlesex.
