WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in certain causes Milbank and others v. Stevens and others, it was referred to Nassau W. Senior, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire who was or were the next of kin of John Cliff, late of South Ockenden, in the county of Essex, Esq. deceased, the testator in the pleadings named (who departed this life on the 21st day of December 1833), living at the time of his death, and, in case any of them had since died, who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; and also to enquire who was or were the heir or heirs at law, and customary heir or heirs of the said testator at the time of his death, and, in case any of them had since died, who was or were the real representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, at law and by custom, and who was or were the personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying; and also to enquire who were the children of Elizabeth Milbank, Ann Skiggs (the daughter of the testator's sister, Elizabeth Bush), Sarah Cliff, and Mary Rickett, deceased, in the testator's will, by mistake called Mary Ricketts, the nieces of the said testator, living at the time of his decease, and whether any of such children had since died, and whether there had been any and what children of the said testator's said nieces born since the said testator's decease, who were now living; any person or persons claiming to be the heir or heirs at law, and customary heir or heirs and next of kin of the said testator, living at the time of his decease, or in case any of them, respectively, have since died, the real or personal representative or representatives of him, her, or them so dying, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 24th day of December 1842, to leave their claims before the said Master, at his office, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and are, on or before the 15th day of February 1843, to come in before him and prove their heirships and kindred respectively, and to make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree and the General Orders of the said Court.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Shallcross against Wright, the creditors of Francis Brookes, late of Stafford, in the county of Stafford, Attorney at Law, deceased (who died in or about the month of November 1836), are, on or before the 19th day of December 1842, to come in and prove their debts before Samuel Duckworth, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Walker against Milne, the creditors of Thomas Telford, late of Abingdon-street, in the county of Middlesex, Esq. deceased (who died on or about the 2d day of September 1834), are, on or before the 9th day of December 1842, to come in and leave their claims before Andrew Henry Lynch, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and the said Master will, on the 15th day of December 1842, proceed on all the claims which shall be so left, and, in default of the claims being then established, the person or persons claiming to be creditors will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Knapp against Gibbs, the creditors of Sarah Noyes, late of Montagu-square, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, deceased (who died on or about the 19th day of April 1842), are, on or before the 12th day of January 1843, to come in and prove their debts before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Knapp against Gibbs, any persons claiming to be the next of kin of Sarah Noyes, late of Montagu-square, in the county of Middlesex, Spinster, deceased, living at the time of her decease (which took place on or about the 19th day of April 1842), or the personal representatives of such of them as may have since died, are, on or before the 12th day of January 1843, to come in before William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his chambers, in Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, London, and prove their kindred and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
