

Preston Water Works.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made in the next ensuing session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills, to enable the Company of Proprietors of the Preston Water Works, to raise a further sum or sums of money, and also to alter, amend, extend, and enlarge the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act for better supplying with water the borough of Preston, and part of the township of Fishwick adjoining thereto, in the parish of Preston, in the county palatine of Lancaster;" and also to empower and enable the said company to make, maintain, vary, extend, and enlarge the works of the said company, and to make certain additions thereto; which works and additions are, and are to be, situate in the several parishes, townships, and places of Fishwick, Grimsargh with Brockholes, Preston, and Ribbleton, in the parish of Preston, the township of Alston with Hothersall, and Dilworth, in the parish of Ribchester, the township of Thornley with Wheatley, in the parish of Chipping, and the township of Fulwood, in the parish of Lancaster, all in the county palatine of Lancaster.

And notice is hereby also given, that, in and by the said Bill or Bills, it is intended to give power to and enable the said Company to purchase and take, for the purposes of the said works, certain lands and hereditaments situate in the township of Alston with Hothersall aforesaid, and certain other lands and hereditaments situate in Grimsargh with Brockholes aforesaid, and certain other lands and hereditaments situate in Dilworth, in the parish of Ribchester aforesaid.

And notice is hereby also given, that duplicate plans and sections of the aforesaid works, together with books of reference, will be deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county palatine of Lancaster, at Preston, in the said county of Lancaster, on or before the thirtieth day of November next; and a copy of so much of the said plans, sections, and books of reference as relates to each of the parishes hereinbefore mentioned, will be deposited, for public inspection, on or before the thirty-first day of December next, with the Parish Clerks of each of the said parishes respectively, at their respective places of abode.—Dated this 31st day of October 1842.

Clarence Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers and provisions, or some of the powers and provisions, of the Acts of Parliament, or some, or one of them, relating to the railway company called the Company of Proprietors of the Clarence Railway, and to their railway, and the several branches thereof, all in the county of Durham, (that is to say), an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for making and maintaining a railway from the river Tees, near Haverton-hill, in the parish of Billingham, to a place called Sim Pasture Farm, in the parish of Heighington, all in the county of Durham, with certain branches therefrom;" another Act, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Clarence Railway Company to vary and alter the line of their railway, to abandon some of the branches thereof, and to make other branches therefrom, and for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of the Act passed for making and maintaining the said railway;" another Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, enlarge, and extend the powers of several Acts, passed in the ninth and tenth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, for making and maintaining the Clarence Railway;" another Act, passed in the third year of the reign of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Clarence Railway Company to make certain additional branch railways, and to amend and enlarge the powers of the several Acts for making and maintaining the said railway;" another Act, passed in the said third year of His said late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled "An Act to enable the Clarence Railway Company to make an extension of the line of their railway;" and another Act, passed in the first year of the reign of Her present Majesty Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to alter, amend, explain, and enlarge the powers of the several Acts for making and maintaining the Clarence Railway;" and to facilitate certain arrangements relating to the property and liabilities of the said company, or generally to arrange the affairs and liabilities of the said company.

And notice is hereby also given, that it is intended to apply for powers in the said Act to alter the existing tolls, rates, and duties payable to the said company, or some of such tolls, rates, and duties, and to levy further or other tolls, rates, and duties in respect of their said railways and works, or in respect of some of them, or some part thereof, and to confer, vary, and extinguish exemptions from the payment of all such tolls, rates, and duties, or some of them, or some part thereof.—Dated the ninth day of November 1842.
