

Mahomed Akbar Khan from Cabool, to co-operate with the Ghilzies.
Ibrahim Khan, and Mullick Suddoo.—Lughman Chiefs.

The petty Chiefs of Hissaruck were also engaged, and indeed the whole strength of the Ghilzie force may be considered to have been brought against us, numbering on this occasion from four to five thousand men.

Let me now express how much I owe to the brave Officers and soldiers who have thus gallantly asserted their superiority in arms; were I to name all who merit eulogy, I should feel obliged to enumerate every Officer who was present.

I feel considerable diffidence in mentioning the name of Major-General Sir R. Sale, G. C. B., whose heroic conduct in the field stands so little in need of my commendation. On this occasion I was an eye-witness to the personal intrepidity of this highly distinguished Officer, as he led up the heights in advance of his own regiment under a very hot fire.

To the Officers in command of regiments and detachments, and to the heads of departments, also to the Officers of my personal and the general staff, I feel especially indebted for the zealous and efficient manner in which they performed their respective duties; and I trust his Excellency the Commander in Chief will bring to the notice of his Lordship the Governor-General, that every individual engaged has exerted himself to the utmost to serve his country.

I have the honour to enclose a rough sketch of the scene of operations, and a return of the killed and wounded. I have, &c.

GEORGE POLLOCK, Major-General,
Commanding in Afghanistan.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acquaint you, that on the morning of the 28th instant, a body of the enemy attacked our rear guard. I directed the officer in command of the cavalry to detach a party to assist in dispersing it.

The accompanying letter from Captain Christie details the result.

I have, &c.

W. NOTT, Major-General,
Commanding Field Force, Afghanistan.

From Captain J. Christie, Commanding the Detachment, to Captain Delamain, Senior Officer of Cavalry.

*Camp, Kareez Oosman Khan,
August 28, 1842.*

SIR,

AGREEABLY to the instructions conveyed to me through Lieutenant Forbes, Adjutant, 3d light cavalry, I proceeded to the rear with two ressellahs of the 1st Bengal irregular cavalry and three ressellahs of my own regiment, and now do myself the honour to report the result as follows, for the information of Major-General Nott:

I proceeded at a trot for about a mile and a half, when we were closing well with the enemy; all of a sudden we came on a ravine with steep sides, which for a time completely brought us up; however we managed to file down and form again on the opposite side. This delay allowed the enemy to move a long way a-head, but getting the detachment into a smart gallop, we succeeded in coming up with them just as the foremost of them had reached the bottom of the hills. We cut up about fifty of them; Lieutenant Chamberlain's party from the other flank destroyed twelve more.

The enemy, I should think, amounted to about 300 horse and foot.

Every man did his duty; so it is impossible to offer any remark on individuals, and I shall only
