The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Robert Fulke Greville, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Robert Fulke Greville), late a Lieutenant-Colonel in the British Auxiliary Legion of Spain, Her royal licence and permission, that he may accept and wear the cross, of the first class, of the National and Military Order of San Fernando, which the Queen of Spain hath been pleased to confer upon him, in testimony of Her Catholic Majesty's approbation of the meritorious services rendered by that Officer before St. Sebastian, in January 1835; and that he may enjoy all the rights and privileges thereunto annexed; provided, nevertheless, that Her Majesty's said royal licence and permission doth not authorize the assumption of any style, appellation, rank, precedence, or privilege appertaining unto a Knight Bachelor of these realms:

And also to command, that Her Majesty's said concession and especial mark of Her royal favour be registered, together with the relative documents, in Her Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, November 30, 1842.

The Queen has been pleased to grant unto Henry John Coore, of Orange-valley, in the parish of Trelawney, in the island of Jamaica, Esq. second son of Frederick Richard Coore, Esq. by Isabella his wife, one of the daughters and coheirs of John Blagrove, late of Ankerwyke-house, in the parish of Wraisbury, in the county of Buckingham, Esq. deceased, Her royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a condition contained in the last will and testament of his maternal grandfather, the said John Blagrove, assume and take the surname of Blagrove, instead of that of Coore; and that he and they may bear the arms of Blagrove only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Herald's Office, otherwise the said royal licence and permission to be void and of none effect:
