FRIDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1842.

By the QUEEN.
A PROCLAMATION.

VICTORIA, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Tuesday the thirteenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of Our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said thirteenth day of December instant, to Thursday the second day of February next; and We have given order to our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do hereby further, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said Thursday the second day of February next, assemble and be holden for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said Thursday the second day of February next.

Given at our Court at Windsor, this tenth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, and in the sixth year of Our reign.

GOD save the QUEEN.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 10th day of December 1842,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the second and third years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for regulating the police courts in the metropolis," it was, amongst other things, enacted, "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to alter the number of the police courts, and to order such changes to be made of the places in which they should be holden within the metropolitan police district as should be found expedient, and every such court should thenceforth be holden in the place in or to which it should be so ordered to be established or removed;" and whereas also by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for better defining the powers of justices within the metropolitan police district," it was, amongst other things, enacted, "that it should be lawful for Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to constitute, within the metropolitan police district, so many police court divisions as to Her Majesty should seem fit, and to define the extent thereof, and, from time to time, to alter the number and extent of such police court divisions, and to assign a division to each of the police courts already established, and to establish a police court for each of the other divisions;" Her Majesty is pleased, with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and direct, and it is hereby ordered and directed, that the police-court now established in Wapping, and known by the name of "Thames Police Court," shall, from and after the twenty-first day of December instant, be removed therefrom to a certain building lately erected in Arbour-square, in the hamlet of Mile-end Old-town, in the parish of Saint Dunstan, Stepney, and within the metropolitan police district, and shall be thenceforth there holden by the name of "Thames Police Court, Stepney," and that the space included within the following boundary, that is to say, from the river Thames, at the eastern entrance of the London Docks, in a line running along the north side of the said entrance to Fox's-lane; thence northward along the centre thereof to High-street, Shadwell; thence westward along the centre thereof, and of Ratcliff-highway, to Cannon-street; thence northward along the centre of Cannon-street, Cannon-street-road, and the New-road, to the Whitechapel-road; thence eastward along the centre of the said road, and of Mile-end-road, to Grove-road; thence northward along the centre thereof to the Eastern Counties Railway; thence eastward along the northern line of the said railway to the river Lea; thence southward along the said last-mentioned river to the river Thames; and thence westward along the boundary of the said river Thames to the said eastern entrance of the London Docks aforesaid, shall constitute a police court division, and be assigned to the police court to be called "Thames Police Court, Stepney," as hereinbefore mentioned:

And Her Majesty is further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that the space within the boundary line hereinafter named, that is to say, a line running northward from the said river Thames, at Hermitage-dock, along Nightingale-lane, to East Smithfield; thence eastward, along the centre of East Smithfield, Parson's-street, Ratcliff-highway, and High-street, Shadwell, to Fox's-lane; thence southward, along the centre of the said lane, to the river Thames, at the eastern entrance of the London Docks aforesaid; and thence westward, along the line of the said river to Hermitage-dock aforesaid; shall be added to, and form part of, the division attached to the police court called "Lambeth-street Police Court:"

And the Right Honourable Sir James Graham, Bart. one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

C. C. Greville.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 5, 1842.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 20th December instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering,

At Bathurst, on the River Gambia, a cargo of about 400 tons of Coals, fit for the Service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

The Coals to be sent out immediately.

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract.

CONTRACT FOR COALS FOR TRINCOMALEE.

Department of the Storekeeper-General of the Navy, Somerset-Place, December 7, 1842.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that, on Tuesday the 20th December instant, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering,

At Trincomalee, 1500 tons of Coals, fit for the Service of Her Majesty's Steam Vessels.

Half to be dispatched by the 31st January 1843, and the remainder by the 28th February 1843.

The conditions of the contract and a form of the tender may be seen at the said Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Coals," and must also be delivered at Somerset-place, accompanied by a letter, signed by two responsible persons, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £1000, for the due performance of the contract.

East India-House, December 14, 1842.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That the rate of exchange, at which they will receive cash for bills on Bengal, will, from the present date and until further notice, be 2s. the Company's rupee, and for bills on Madras and Bombay, 2s. 0½d. the Company's rupee.

James C. Melvill, Secretary.

East India-House, December 14, 1842.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company do hereby give notice,

That a Proprietor of East India Stock has further postponed, until the Quarterly General Court of the said Company, appointed to be held at their House, in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday the 21st instant, the motion of which he had previously given notice, viz.

"That there be laid before the Court of Proprietors an estimate of the expence incurred by the war in Affghanistan to the 31st December 1841."

"That there be laid before the Court of Proprietors a statement of the amount of any loan or loans raised in India, with the rates of interest at which such loan or loans may have been raised, since the commencement of the Affghan war."

"That the protest of Mr. Tucker, or of any other individual Director or Directors, against the Affghan war be laid before the Court of Proprietors."

The said Court of Directors do also give notice, that another Proprietor has postponed, until the said Quarterly General Court, his proposed motion,

"To call the attention of the Court to the papers which have recently been printed and laid before the Proprietors, in relation to the Commission of Enquiry, held at Sattara, on the Rajah of Sattara, in October 1836, and the conduct of the Commissioners who sat on that enquiry."

The said Court of Directors do further give notice, that the same Proprietor has stated his intention to submit the following motion at the said Quarterly General Court, viz.

"That it is not competent to any Proprietor after a motion has been read to move an adjournment of the Court before such motion has been moved and seconded. That such a practice is objectionable on principle, and contrary to all usage, and, if permitted, would be subversive of the independence and utility of the Court as a component part of the Indian Government."

The said Court of Directors do likewise give notice, that another Proprietor has notified his intention to submit the following motion at the said Quarterly General Court, viz.

"That in the opinion of this Court the substitution to a greater extent of the agency of natives of India for that of Europeans, in the civil administration of their own country, is a measure which is equally called for by considerations of justice, economy, and sound policy; that it is desirable to give full effect to sec. 87, cap. 85, of 3 and 4 William IV. which enacts 'that no native of the said territories, nor any natural born subject of His Majesty resident therein, shall, by reason only of his religion, place of birth, descent, colour, or any of them, be disabled from holding any place, office, or employment under the said Company; and that the Court of Directors be recommended, in furtherance of this object, to instruct the Governments of India to appoint natives to all offices in the civil administration, under the different presidencies, for which they may be duly qualified."
