India Board, March 13, 1843.

THE General Orders issued by the Governor-General of India, of which the following is a copy, have been this day received at the East India House:

GENERAL ORDERS,

By the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

Camp Ferozepore, Dec. 20, 1842.

THE following copy of a letter, this day received from Major-General Nott, is published for general information.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secretary to the Government of India,
with the Governor-General.

Major-General W. Nott, Commanding Field Force, to T. H. Maddock, Esq.

SIR, Camp, Looleannee, Dec. 18, 1842.

I FIND that in my despatch of the 31st of August last, detailing the battle of Ghoin, I unfortunately omitted the name of Captain Ripley, of the 1st European regiment, late Fort Adjutant at Candahar. Although his name was inserted in the duplicate of that despatch, I fear this omission cannot now be rectified, which I am sorry for, as Captain Ripley is a very zealous Officer, and I have frequently derived benefit from his public services. In the battle now referred to, he attended me in the field, and received my thanks for his conduct.

I am, &c.
W. NOTT, Major-General,
Commanding Field Force.

GENERAL ORDERS

By the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India.

*Camp Ferozepore,
January 4, 1843.*

THE Right Honourable the Governor-General is pleased to direct the publication of the following despatch from Major-General Pollock, C. B., and of a return of casualties in the affair of the 3d November last, which took place in the Khyber Pass (not before received), for general information.

By order of the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India,

T. H. MADDOCK,
Secretary to the Government of India,
with the Governor-General.

*Major-General George Pollock, C. B., commanding
a Field Force, to T. H. Maddock, Esq.*

SIR, *Camp, Ferozepore,
January 1, 1843.*

I HAVE the honour to forward a copy of Major-General M'Caskill's despatch of the 20th October 1842, also a return of casualties in the affair of the 3d November last, which took place in the Khyber Pass; copies of these documents had been despatched subsequent to the transactions to which they relate, but I conclude some accident must have happened to the dāk, by which they were forwarded.

I have the honour to be, &c.
GEO. POLLOCK, Major-General,
Commanding a Field Force.

Major-General McCaskill, K. H., commanding Infantry Division, to Captain Ponsonby, Assistant Adjutant-General.

*Camp, Gundamuck,
October 20, 1842.*

SIR,

I BEG to report to you, for the information of Major-General Pollock, C. B., that the force of the 2d column under my immediate command, and as detailed in the margin,* was attacked by the predatory tribes of the mountains on its march from Tezeen, from which point it was separated from your head-quarters up to the date of its arrival at Gundamuck.

The most serious opposition which it encountered, was in the defiles of Jugdulluck, celebrated for the previous conflicts between the Ghilzies and our troops last year, and during the late advance on Cabool.

I broke up from my encampment at the foot of this pass early on the morning of the 18th instant, and made arrangements as I advanced, in proportion, of course, to my numerical strength, for the occupation of the several strong points, which command the road. Detached parties began to shew themselves as my force reached the crest of the position, and, after despatching flanking detachments on the domineering heights to the right and left, I waited the approach of Brigadier Monteath, with the main body of the column, before I descended into the lower ground beyond. The necessity for this caution was soon demonstrated, for, as the brigadier took up his position on the plateau, partly occupied by the ruins of the well known fort, he observed the enemy collecting in force around him; he, therefore, very properly determined to hold the head of the pass, until the whole of the baggage and materiel had moved down towards the plain below, and the rear guard, under Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, should have joined him on the eminence. He placed his guns in battery, and their fire, and that of the troops, completely held the enemy, who were very numerous, in check; and he reports, with much satisfaction, that though the attempts of the Ghilzies were obstinate and persevering, they did not succeed in making themselves masters of a single article of baggage or military stores; a sharp conflict was, however, sustained upon particular points, whilst the rear guard was coming up in the one direction, and our long train of animals descending in the other. The Brigadier finally gave over charge of the position to Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, and his rear guard, whom he counselled to retain it one quarter of an hour after his own troops advanced beyond it; the succession of lower eminences on either flank, had, in the mean time, been crowned, so far as our limited means permitted, under my personal direc-

* Artillery—2 guns of Capt. Alexander's troop; Captain Blood's battery of 9-pounders.

Cavalry—Head-quarters, and 2 squadrons of 1st light cavalry, 2 rissalabs, 3d irregular cavalry.

Infantry—4th brig. under Brigr. Monteath, C. B., H. M.'s 31st regiment, wing 33d N. I. reinforced by wing 60th N. I., 2d regiment N. I., 16th ditto ditto.

tions, by parties from the advance guard, from Jugdulluck to the valley of Soorkhab, and the baggage was thus protected from the attacks of the predatory bodies which were hovering around it, along that whole line of road. Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond and the rear guard were vigorously pressed by the Ghilzies, as they finally came down from the plateau, but every where most creditably repelled the enemy, and made their way, late in the evening, to our encampment at Soorkhab. I have to regret that Captain Burnett, 54th N. I. who had been recently relieved from a captivity commenced at Ghuznee, was severely wounded on the heights, having volunteered his services with a party of the 16th N. I.; Brevet Captain Pender, H. M.'s 31st foot, had received a bad hurt in a previous skirmish near Seh Baba. Throughout these affairs the conduct of the troops employed, including the 2d and 16th N. I. temporarily attached to me, has deserved my highest approbation, and I feel it to be my duty to record, that in the advance to Cabool, and in retiring from it, the bravery of that portion of the 4th brigade, which took part in the active operations, viz. H. M.'s 31st regiment, and a wing of the 33d N. I. the remaining wing and the 6th N. I. having been detained to garrison Jellalabad and Gundamuck; as well as their endurance of privations and fatigue, have been beyond all praise. No troops could in every respect have behaved better, and I feel myself to be deeply indebted to Brigadier Monteath, C. B. and to Lieutenant-Colonel Bolton, of H. M.'s 31st, and to Lieutenant-Colonel Richmond, 33d N. I. for the able and gallant manner in which they have been led.

I enclose a return of killed and wounded.

I have, &c.

JOHN McCASKILL.

AT the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 24th day of February 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the eleventh day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act " to carry into effect, with certain modifications, " the fourth report of the Commissioners of " Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for severing the Rectory of Elingham from the Mastership of St. Mary Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, and for authorising the sale of the advowson of the said rectory.

" Whereas it is by the said recited Act enacted, " that so soon as conveniently may be, and by the authority thereafter provided, such arrangements may be made with respect to benefices which are annexed by Act of Parliament, or otherwise, to the Headships of Colleges in the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge, as may enable the respective colleges, if they shall think fit, to sell, or themselves to purchase, the advowsons of such benefices, and to invest the proceeds in proper securities, with provisions for the payment of the interest and annual profits thereof, to the respective heads of colleges for the time being; and that, upon the completion of the said arrangements, respectively, the existing incumbents of such benefices, respectively, shall be at liberty, upon resigning the same, to receive the interest and annual profits of the proceeds arising from such sales, respectively;" and whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled " An " Act for confirming the annexation of the Rectory " of Elingham, in the county of Norfolk, to the " Mastership of Magdalene College, in the Univer- " sity of Cambridge," the said rectory of Elingham, in the county of Norfolk and diocese of Norwich, was annexed to the Mastership of Magdalene College, in the University of Cambridge, and is now held by the present Master thereof, the Honourable and Reverend George Neville Grenville, according to the provisions of the same Act, and it is expedient that the said rectory should be disposed of, according to the provisions of the said first recited Act :
