FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1843.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, May 19, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty will hold a Drawing-Room, at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday, 6th July, } to celebrate Her Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on the 6th of July next.

Board of Green Cloth, St. James's-Palace, June 30, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the carriages coming to Her Majesty's Drawing-Room, on Thursday the 6th of July, are to fall into the line at the top of St. James's-street, come down the left hand side, and enter at the iron gate nearest to the Palace, set down at the Arcade, return by the iron gate nearest to Marlborough-house, and pass through Pall-mall into St. James's-square, by George-street. When called, they are to pass from St. James's-square, by Charles-street, into Regent-street, Jermyn-street, come down St. James's-street as before, take up, and go away through Pall-mall.

No hackney carriages will be permitted to come within the gates.

For all persons having the privilege of the entrée, tickets will be delivered at the Board of Green Cloth, on TUESDAY next, between the hours of eleven and three o'clock; their carriages are to enter the gate at Constitution-hill, proceed down St. James's-park, through Stable-yard, into the Ambassadors'-court, set down, and go out into Cleveland-row. The carriages of the Ambassadors, Foreign Ministers, Cabinet Ministers, and Great Officers of State may afterwards wait in the Ambassadors'-court, and those of all other persons having the entrée may wait in Stable-yard or St. James's-park till called; they are then to take up in the same order as they had set down, and pass away up the left hand side of St. James's-street.

No carriage will be admitted with company a second time with the same ticket, to prevent which, it must be produced at Constitution-hill-gate, and Stable-yard-gate also, where a corner of it will be torn off by the Marshalmen in attendance; and no person can be allowed the privilege of the entrée by any other approach to the Palace than the gates last mentioned.

LIVERPOOL, Lord Steward.

Buckingham-Palace, June 28, 1843.

LIST of Addresses of congratulation, transmitted for presentation to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, on the occasion of the Birth of a Princess, and presented to His Royal Highness by the Right Honourable the Marquess of Exeter:

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the ancient and loyal borough of Wigan, in the county palatine of Lancaster.

From the Mayor, Aldermen, and Councillors of the ancient borough of Macclesfield, in the county of Chester.

Admiralty, 30th June 1843.

In pursuance of Her Majesty's pleasure, signified to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the following alterations are to be made in the dress uniform of Officers in the Royal Navy:

Coats.—The coats of all Officers, now having scarlet collars and cuffs, to have white collars and blue cuffs; and the slash in the sleeve, which is now blue, to be white.

Epaulettes.—The bullions of dress epaulettes to be loose, instead of fixed, as at present.

Hats.—All cocked hats to be of the same dimensions as that to be worn by the Admiral of the Fleet, as hereafter described, and with the same distinctions heretofore used, except that the binding, which was formerly of black silk lace, two and a half inches, is to be two inches in width, and of the oak-leaf pattern.

Admiral of the Fleet.

Coats.—To have, in addition to the present lace, four rows of five-eighths inch lace round the sleeve above the cuff, at such distance from each other as place them within the length of the slash; and one and a quarter inch lace along the bottom of the lapel, and down the front and back edges of the skirt.

Hat.—The fan or back part eight and a half inches; seven and a half inches in the front; five and three quarter inches at each corner; bound with gold lace two inches wide, shewing one inch on each side. Black silk cockade five inches wide, looped with six gold dead and bright bullions, three and half-eighth of inches wide, and the two centre twisted, with the button the same size and pattern as that of the coat; and tassels with five gold and five blue bullions each.

Admiral.

Coat.—The same as Admiral of the Fleet, but with only three rows of five-eighths inch lace round the sleeve.

Vice-Admiral.

Coat.—The same as Admiral, but with only two rows of five-eighths inch lace round the sleeve.

Rear-Admiral.

Coat.—The same as Vice-Admiral's, but with only one row of five-eighths inch lace round the sleeve.

Commodores of the First Class and Captains of the Fleet, when not Flag Officers.

Coat.—The same as Rear-Admirals.

Commodores of the Second Class and Captains.

Coat.—The hip buttons to be enclosed with one inch lace, to form a point above them, on the side seam, and to finish under the plait below.

Epaulettes.—Captains, under three years standing, to be distinguished by an embroidered silver crown within the crescent, instead of the anchor, as heretofore.

Commanders.

Epaulettes.—To have an embroidered silver anchor within the crescent.

Lieutenants.

Epaulettes.—Two gold epaulettes, the bullions to be only three inches long and one one-eighth inch in circumference, in dress and undress.

Patterns or drawings, of each of the before-mentioned articles of dress, may be seen at this Office, and at the Office of each Port Admiral; and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty direct that no uniform shall, after this date, be made of any other pattern.

Uniforms, which have already been made of a different pattern from the foregoing, may be worn until the 30th of June 1844, after which no deviation whatsoever from the establishment will be permitted.

By command of their Lordships,
Sidney Herbert.

In the Matter of Elizabeth Farley, a Bankrupt.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of the Acts of the General Assembly of the province aforesaid, made and in force relating to bankruptcy, a Fiat in Bankruptcy has been awarded and issued and is now in prosecution before me, the Commissioner named in the said Fiat, against the said bankrupt, lately carrying on business together with one Isaac Ketchum, as Copartners in trade, in the said city, under the style and firm of Elizabeth Farley and Company, and the said bankrupt hath surrendered herself to me; public notice is, therefore, hereby given, that, by virtue of the said Acts, Daniel Jordan, of the said city, Gent. hath been appointed Provisional Assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupt; and all persons indebted to the said bankrupt, or having in their possession, power, or custody any property or effects of the said bankrupt, are hereby required to pay all such sum or sums of money, debts, or duties, and to deliver up such property or effects to the said Assignee on or before the 5th day of July next; and all creditors of the said bankrupt are hereby required to deliver in to the said Assignee, and to prove to my satisfaction, within three months from the date hereof, their respective claims and demands, whether the same be actually due or are to become due; and the creditors of the said bankrupt, residing in any part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, are, by the said Acts, required to appoint an agent or agents in this province to act in their behalf in this matter; and notice is hereby further given, that a general meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupt will be held, on Friday the 8th day of September next, at one of the clock in the afternoon of that day, at the office of the said Assignee, in the Commercial Bank-building, in this city, for the purpose of receiving proof of, or of allowing or contesting, any claim presented against the said estate; at which meeting, or an adjournment thereof, the said bankrupt will be examined on oath, touching her estate and dealings, and such other business relating to the said estate will be then and there transacted as may be deemed necessary.—Dated at the city aforesaid, this 5th day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1843.

ROBERT F. HAZEN, Commissioner of the estates and effects of bankrupts in the city and county of Saint John.

City and County of Saint John, in the Province of New Brunswick, in British North America, SS.

In the Matter of Nathaniel Milby and James U. Thomas, Bankrupts.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of the Acts of the General Assembly of the province aforesaid, made and in force relating to bankruptcy, a Fiat in Bankruptcy has been awarded and issued and is now in prosecution before me, the Commissioner named in the said Fiat, against the said bankrupts, lately carrying on business together as Copartners in trade, in the said city, under the style and firm of Milby and Thomas, and the said bankrupts have surrendered themselves to me; public notice is, therefore, hereby given, that, by virtue of the said Acts, Daniel Jordan, of the said city, Gentleman, hath been appointed Provisional Assignee of the estate and effects of the said bankrupts; and all persons indebted to the said bankrupts, or having in their possession, power, or custody any property or effects of the said bankrupts, are hereby required to pay all such sum or sums of money, debts, or duties, and to deliver up such property or effects to the said Assignee, on or before the 3d day of July next; and all creditors of the said bankrupts are hereby required to deliver in to the said Assignee, and to prove to my satisfaction, within three months from the date hereof, their respective claims and demands, whether the same be actually due or are to become due; and the creditors of the said bankrupts, residing in any part of Great Britain and Ireland, are, by the said Acts, required to appoint an agent or agents in this province to act in their behalf in this matter; and notice is hereby further given, that a general meeting of the creditors of the said bankrupts will be held, on Friday the 8th day of September next, at two of the clock in the afternoon of that day, at the office of the said Assignee, in the Commercial Bank-building, in this city, for the purpose of receiving proof of, or of allowing or contesting, any claim presented against the said estate; at which meeting, or an adjournment thereof, the said bankrupts will be examined on oath, touching their estate and dealings, and such other business relating to the said estate will be then and there transacted as may be deemed necessary.—Dated at the city aforesaid, this 3d day of June, in the year of our Lord, 1843.

ROBERT F. HAZEN, Commissioner of the estate and effects of bankrupts in the city and county of Saint John.
