

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority,

From Thursday April 9. to Sunday April 13. 1684.

Whitehall, April 11.

His Grace the Duke of Norfolk and the Right Honorable the Earl of Tarmouth, accompanied with several of the Principal Gentlemen of the County of Norfolk, presented to His Majesty the following Address, Signed by about 6000 Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Militia Officers, Chief Inhabitants, and Freeholders of the County of NORFOLK.

Great SIR,

Should we only reflect upon the Death of your Royal Brother our late Gracious Sovereign, we might forget our present Duty, but when we see your Sacred Majesty justly and peaceably Enthron'd, the Designs of Your Implacable Enemies defeated, our Rights and Religion secured by your Majesties most Gracious Declaration, these pleasing Thoughts are so Transporting, that we cannot find Expressions full enough for our Joy and Gratitude.

And we do assure your Majesty, that whatever can be in the power of the most resolved Loyalty to preserve your Sacred Majesty and Government, and to support the Honour and Grandure of your Majesty and Monarchy, shall be faithfully and readily effected by,

Great SIR
Your Majesty's most Loyal,
Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects,

Whitehall, April 11. There have been likewise presented to His Majesty very Loyal Addresses, From the Lord Bishop, Dean and Chapter and Clergy of the Diocess of Exeter. From the Grand Jury for the County of Cornwall. From the Grand Jury for the County of Devon at the Assizes held at the Castle of Exon the 10th March 1684. From the Grand Inquest for the County of Hereford at the Assizes held at the City of Hereford the 14th of March. From the Grand Jury for the County of Stafford, with the Concurrence of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace at the Assizes held at Stafford the 24th of March 1684. From the Bayliff and Burghers of the Borough of Stockbridge in Hampshire. From several Reformed Officers that faithfully served His Majesty's Royal Father of Blessed Memory. Which His Majesty received very Graciously.

Venna, March 20. The Ambassadors for England are preparing for their departure. The Senate have ordered 40 thousand Ducats to be paid to the Elector of Saxony for the 3000 Foot that Prince is to send to the assistance of the Republick. The Troops of the Princes of Lunenburg begin to arrive. We have advicethat the Turks will have 60 Gallies, 40 men of War, and 10 Galeasses at Sea this Summer; And that they will have 70000 men in Hungary, 12000 in the Morca, and 60000 Tartars and 15000 Turks against the Poles.

Vienna, March 18. The account was had of Colonel Heussler's having defeated 6000 Turks who were going with a great Convoy to Newbusek is confirmed; and we are assured that the Garrison of that place cannot subsist longer then six Weeks, without a very considerable supply of Provisions.

Alba Regalis, Camisia, and Buda are in great want of all Necessaries, Count Teckelby is in great fear of being abandoned by those that have hitherto taken part with him. The Envoy from the Prince of Transylvania has made some Proposals of Peace; but the Emperor will not hearken to them.

Vienna, March 25. All possible care is taken to Block up Newbusek; for which purpose several Troops are on their March to reinforce Colonel Heussler, and two Forts are raised upon the River Gran: At the same time the Turks we are told make great preparations to succor the place. General Schuita, who commands in Upper Hungary, desires some Troops may be sent to his Assistance, that so he may be in a condition to execute his design upon Esperies. The Turks, its said, will have a great Army in Hungary this Summer, but their men are most of them raw and undisciplined, and are forced into the War. The Ambassadors from the Elector of Bavaria are not yet arrived.

Hamburg, April 10. We have an account from Zell that the Troops of Lunenburg are on their March for Hungary. From Stockbolme they write of the 31 past that Count Bigke Lieutenant General in the Service of the King of Sweden was going with his Majesty's leave to serve the Elector of Bavaria. The Letters from Copenhagen give an account that the King of Denmark is reducing his Troops; That 5000 Regiments of Horse are put into one, and 30 Men disbanded in every Company of Foot: and that the King intends to be the next Month in Halstein. We are told from Berlin that an Envoy was arriv'd there from the Emperor to sollicite succor against the Turks: And from Dresden that the Elector of Saxony had sent Orders to draw out of his Troops 3000 Men for the assistance of the Republick of Venice who are to begin their March the first of the next Month. The Letters from Warsaw of the 26th past, say, the Dyer was to sit but 8 days longer, but that it was hoped they would in that time come to a conclusion in the most important matters before them.

Hague, April 13. The 11th Instant Mr. Skelton Envoy Extraordinary from his Majesty of Great-Britain had publick Audience of the States General, being conducted to it with the usual ceremony. The Count the Baron Foel Ambassador Extraordinary from the King of Denmark had a long Conference with the Deputies of the States concerning the Duties to be paid by our Ships in the Sound; but we do not hear that they came to an agreement therein. The Commissioners for the Business of Bantam have had several Conferences here this Week, and will depart in few days for England. The Regiment lately commandd by Monsieur de Lavergne, who is gone into the Emperors Service, is given to the Sieur Faget, Nephew to the Pensionary Faget, who was a Captain in the Regiment of Guards. The States of Holland are at present assembled, but have not yet taken a resolution concerning the State of the War for this year.

Hague, April 17. Prince Casimir of Nassau Stadtholder of Friseland and Grovingen arrived here on Friday last; The next day he was to visit the Prince of Orange; and afterwards assisted in the Council of State. The Prince and Princesses of Orange are gone to Dieren. The States of Holland are adjourn'd till the 25th of the next Month, without coming to a conclusion concerning the State of the War, Amsterdam.

ven to the Envoy from the Prince of Transylvania, with which the Armenian was lately sent away, to wit, that the Emperor will not receive any Proposals of Peace but with the consent of his Allies. Count Palfi is returned for Hungary to Command the Troops of that Kingdom as well as the Germans that are to be employed in the blocking up of Newheusel, which will make a body of 7 or 8000 Men; all our advices assure us that the place cannot hold our much longer without a supply of Provisions; and that the Turks are drawing their Troops together at Navigrad; and that 3000 Tartars have joynd them. Upon which Orders have been sent to the Troops that are to reinforce Colonel Heuller to hasten their March. Count Rabata, Commissary General of the Emperors Army has directions to provide Magazines at Papa, Gran, Vefprin, and other places in Hungary; Several Pieces of Cannon were brought hither this Week from Linz, which will be sent to Hungary. Two Thousand Horse of the Regiments of Montecuculi and Palfi who had their Winter-quarters in Bohemia, passed two days ago through this place in their March for Hungary to joyne Colonel Heuller.

Hamburg, April 13. The Letters from Warsaw of the 30th past give an account that the Popes Nuncio had Audience of the Dyet the 25th, and that he exhorted them to a vigorous prosecution of the War against the Turks, to which he assured them the Pope would contribute very considerable supplies of Money. And that the Deputies had entred upon the Debate of recruiting the Army, and raising the Monneys necessary for that and the other preparations for the Campagne, and proceeded therein with that application, that no doubt was made of the Dyets having a very happy Conclusion. The differences between the Duke of Zell and this City are not yet composd, though the Elector of Brandenburgs Ministers uses great endeavours for that purpose. Here are several Officers who have Commissions to raise men for the Service of the Elector of Bavaria.

Hague, April 20. Prince Casimir of Nassaw is gone to Dieren to pass three or four days there with the Prince of Orange, after which he will return to Leeuwerden. The Baron Craeg Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark had the 17th Instant Audience of the States General. There are Letters from Vienna of the 8th Instant, which say that the Garrison of Newheusel could not subsist above 15 days longer with the provisions that were then in the place, and that the Turks knowing their condition, were drawing together what Forces they could at Novigrad in order to their relief.

Paris, April 21: The Doge and the four Senators of Genova are arrived here. We have an account from Thoulon that the Squadron of Men of War that's sitting out there against the Tripolins will be ready to put to Sea the beginning of the next Month,

Since our last we have an account of the following Elections.

- Bucks County,*
Lord Brackley,
..... Wharton Esq;
- Litchfield,*
Thomas Orme Esq;
Richard Leuesen Esq;
- Tamworth,*
Sir Hugh Gough,
Richard How Esq;
- Glinberoe,*
James Stanley Esq;
Colonel Edmund Aston,
- Preston,*
Sir Thomas Chicheley,
Edward Fleetwood Esq;
- Dartmouth,*
..... Pomeroy Esq;
Arthur Farewell Esq;
- De Wighshire,*
Sir Richard Middleton,
- Wigh,*
Sir John Trever.

- Pembroke,*
Arthur Owen Esq;
- St. Edmonds Bury,*
Sir Thomas Harvey,
William Crofts Esq;
- Alboreugh,*
Sir Henry Bedingfield,
John Bence Esq;
- Essex,*
Sir Thomas Fanshaw,
Sir William Maynard.
- Retford,*
Sir Edward Nevill,
Mr. Serjeant Millington;
- Westmorland.*
Sir John Lowther,
Allan Bellingham Esq;

East-Retford in Nottinghamshire, April 9. This day was brought hither the New Charter His Majesty hath been Graciously pleased to grant to this Corporation, which was met by the whole Corporation, and a great many Gentlemen of Quality, and received here with great acclamations, and all other imaginable expressions of Duty and Satisfaction.

London, April 14. This day the Heer Van Duyvenvoorden, the Heer Van Citters, and the Heer Dyckvelt, Ambassadors Extraordinary from the States General of the United Provinces, made their Publick Entry. having been received at Greenwich by Sir Charles Cotterel Master of the Ceremonies, and brought by Water in the Kings Barge to the Tower. At their landing they were received by the Lord Tenham, and saluted with the usual discharge of the Cannon, and from thence were Conducted in His Majesties Coach, followed by five Coaches of their own, and a great many others with six Horses apiece, all in Mourning, to their House in St. James's Square, where their Excellency's were soon after Complimented by Colonel Finch from the King, and Mr. Vaughan from the Queen.

Whitehall, April 15.

HIS Grace the Duke of Norfolk Earl Marshal of England, doth hereby give Notice to all the Peers and Peereses that shall attend at the Coronation of the King and Queen on the 23^d of this Instant April, that it is His Majesties Pleasure, that each of them may appoint one Gentleman or Page to wait on them in the Great Hall, where their Majesties Dine at the Palace in Westminster, and shall receive Tickets (after giving in their several Names to such Persons as shall be appointed) for that purpose.

And further does warn all Persons that they do not presume to Print nor Publish any Account or Relation of the said Coronation Ceremonial, without the Licence of the said Earl-Marshal.

Advertisements.

STolen the 14th Instant, from Thomas Willson of Yardly in Hertfordshire Gent. two Geldings, one a whitish Gray 14 hands high, seven years old next Grass, with a great Blaze on his Face; 2 cut Tail, Trotts and Gallops; The other a bright Bay 15 hands high, with three small white Spots on his Chest, and another small white Spot on his near Shoulder, a short cut Tail, Tross, Gallops, and Paces, with two Pad Leather Saddles, the one Brown stitched with Silver, the other Black. Whoever gives notice of them to Mr. Thomas Willson at the Crown in Gutter-Lane, or to the aforesaid Thomas Willson of Yardly, shall have two Guineas reward.

ABright bay Mare with a bob Tail, lost from the Parish of Dallington the 11th Instant in the County of Suffex, about 13 hands and a half high, and 12 years Old, with white Hairs under the Saddle place, and a bunch under her Belly about the bigness of an Egg; Whoever can give notice to John Hyland against St. Margarets-Hill in the Borough of Southwark Distiller, or to Mr. Edward Austin of Burwash in the County of Suffex of the said Mare, shall have Twenty Shillings reward.