

and are delineated in the accompanying plan, contain an estimated population of five hundred persons :

"Your Majesty's said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances above-mentioned, it appears to them to be expedient to unite and consolidate the said contiguous parts of the said parishes of St. Oswald and Merrington into a separate and distinct district to be assigned to the said chapel, at Croxdale, for all ecclesiastical purposes, and to constitute such district a consolidated chapelry, under the sixth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," for the purpose of affording accommodation for attending divine service to the persons residing in the said district, and for enabling the spiritual person serving such chapel to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the said district attached to such chapel, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendance of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the moral habits of the persons residing therein ; and that such district should be named, "The Consolidated Chapelry District of Croxdale," and that the boundaries thereof should be as follow :

"This district is to consist of the townships of Sunderland-bridge, and a small adjoining portion of the township of Elvet, in the parish of Saint Oswald, Durham, and of the township of Hett, with a small detached part of the township of Ferry-hill, in the parish of Merrington, and is bounded on the west and north west by the parish of Brancepeth; on the north by following the present course of the river Wear, which divides the township of Sunderland-bridge and the above-mentioned small portion of the township of Elvet from the remainder of the parish of St. Oswald, as far as the parish of Shincliff; on the north east and partly east by the said parish of Shincliff; on the south east and east by the parishes of Kelloe and Bishop Middleham; and on the south by the road which divides the townships of Hett and Ferry-hill, in the said parish of Merrington, as shewn by the map, and thereon coloured pink and yellow ;

"That the consent of the Lord Bishop of Durham has been obtained thereto, as required by the above-mentioned section of the said Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third ; and, in testimony of such approbation, the said Lord Bishop has signed and sealed this instrument :

"Your Majesty's Commissioners beg leave, therefore, to lay before your Majesty the above-stated circumstances, and humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your royal consideration, and to make such order in respect thereto as to your Majesty's royal wisdom shall seem meet."

Her Majesty, having taken the said representation, together with the map thereunto annexed, into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to approve thereof, and to order, as it is hereby ordered, that the proposed consolidation and assignment be accordingly made and carried into effect, agreeably to the provisions of the said Acts.
