

"Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for making better provisions for the cure of souls in the several parishes of Bradford, in the county of York and diocese of Ripon, of Great Budworth, Nantwich, and St. Oswald Chester, in the county and diocese of Chester; of Solihull, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester; and of Whalley, in the county of Lancaster and diocese of Chester.

"Whereas it is by the said Act enacted, with an especial view to the better care of populous parishes, that arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value, or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes or districts, by means of such alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the bishop :

"And whereas the benefices and churches mentioned and described in the schedule hereunto annexed are respectively in the patronage of the patron or patrons named in the sixth column of the said schedule, and are therefore not within the provisions of an Order of your Majesty in Council, bearing date the twenty-seventh day of April in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty-two, so far as such provisions relate to unconditional grants out of the moneys in our hands under the said recited Act: and whereas, in order to bring them within such provisions, the said patrons respectively desire to transfer such their patronage as hereinafter mentioned :

"We therefore recommend and propose, with the consent of the bishops of the respective dioceses, and of such present patrons respectively, and also with the consent of the proposed patrons respectively named in the seventh column of the same schedule (in testimony whereof all the said consenting parties have signed and sealed this scheme), that the patronage of, and right of nomination or presentation to, such benefices and churches shall respectively become and be transferred to, and absolutely vested in, such proposed patrons so named in the said seventh column, and their respective successors for ever.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measure for making better provision for the cure of souls within the said parishes, or otherwise, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Act."
