FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1843.

At the Court at Windsor, the 2d day of October 1843.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by Her Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Thursday the nineteenth day of October instant, be further prorogued to Tuesday the fourteenth day of November next.

India Board, October 9, 1843.

DISPATCHES, of which the following is a copy, have been this day received at the East India-house:

Major-General Sir Charles Napier, G.C.B. commanding in Sind, to the Governor-General of India.

My Lord, Hyderabad, June 17, 1843.

I HAVE now the honour to forward to your Lordship the copy of the dispatch, received on the 13th instant, from Lieutenant-Colonel Roberts, giving a detailed account of his attack upon, and capture of, the Ameer Shah Mahomed, which attack appears to have been conducted with a degree of skill and courage worthy of its complete success.

I have, &c.
C. J. NAPIER.

Lieutenant-Colonel H. G. Roberts, Commanding Field Brigade, Sehwan, to Captain Green, Assistant-Adjutant-General, Hyderabad.

SIR, Camp, Sehwan, June 8, 1843.

I HAVE the honour to inform you, for the information of his Excellency the Governor, that I marched, at twelve o'clock A.M. this morning, with the details, as per margin,* to attack Meer Shah Mahomed, who was encamped at Peer Aasee, a place under the hills, about fourteen miles to the westward, with two thousand men.

2. At daylight we were still at a distance of between two and three miles, and on approaching near his position, which was a large oblong enclosure of fine trees, surrounded by a thick and almost impenetrable hedge, I could perceive the enemy were retreating, and at this time I requested Captain Walter to lead his troop to the left, and, if possible, prevent their doing so, and turn them across our right.

3. I have the honour to enclose Captain Walter's account of his proceedings.

4. At the same time the detachment advanced steadily. On the right was Major Blood's battery, and the right wing of the 15th native infantry, under Major Benbow, covered by the light company of the 20th regiment native infantry, under Captain Baynes, and the whole supported by the grenadier company 20th regiment native infantry, under Captain Keily. Two companies of the 6th regiment native infantry, under Lieutenant Johnstone, advanced in echelon on the centre and right of the enemy's position; on gaining which one halted, and the other (the light company) advanced a considerable distance.

* Major Blood's battery, four guns; Captain Walter's troop, 3d regiment light cavalry; three companies 6th regiment native infantry; two companies 15th regiment native infantry; two companies 20th regiment native infantry.

5. A party of the grenadier company 20th regiment native infantry were ordered to scour the enclosure, and here, I am happy to say, they discovered Meer Shah Mahomed under some very thick bushes. He at first refused to surrender, but he eventually did so to Captain Travers, 23d regiment Bombay light infantry. I beg to enclose a letter from Captain Keily on this subject.

6. The result of the expedition has been the capture of Meer Shah Mahomed, his guns, and standard, and the total dispersion of his force, together with the release of some horsemen of his Highness Meer Ali Morad, taken prisoners by the enemy on the 6th instant.

7. The loss of the enemy was great, about ninety dead on the field; and we have seventeen prisoners; our own loss, as you will observe by the return, has been trifling.

8. I beg to bring to the notice of his Excellency the valuable services rendered me by Major Benbow, 15th regiment native infantry; Major Blood, artillery; Captain Keily, 20th regiment native infantry; and Lieutenant Johnstone, of the 6th regiment native infantry; and I cannot sufficiently express my admiration of the gallant conduct of Captain Walter, who charged with his small, but intrepid, band, into the midst of a large body of the enemy.

9. I have also to bring to the notice of his Excellency the great assistance rendered me by Captain Mayor, Major of Brigade, Captain Baynes, A. Quartermaster-General (who also took command of the advance, consisting of the light company 20th regiment native infantry), and of Captain Travers, 23d regiment Bombay light infantry, Assistant-Commissary-General, who kindly volunteered his services on my staff.

10. I must not forget to mention the important services I have received from a Patan, by name Aliff Khan, well known to many officers of the Sukkur agency. His information principally led to the success we have met with; and, when with Captain Walter, he killed four of the enemy.

11. I regret extremely to have to inform you, that two European artillerymen died of coup de soleil; the heat, after nine o'clock, became most awful, and the whole detachment much distressed by the time we returned to this place, at one o'clock P.M. Had we moved with camp equipage, &c. the operation could not have been accomplished with the secrecy necessary to ensure success.

12. There was no valuable property, and I burned as much as I could not remove from the spot. A few camels I have transferred to the commissariat department. Some tattoos, mules, swords, and matchlocks will be sold this evening by public auction. I have, &c.

H. G. ROBERTS, Lieutenant-Colonel,
Commanding Field Brigade, Sehwan.

Captain E. Walter, 3d Regiment Light Cavalry, to Captain Mayor, Brigade Major.

SIR, Camp, Sehwan, June 9, 1843.

IN accordance with orders received from Lieutenant-Colonel Roberts, I advanced, on the morning of the 8th of June, with the troop under my command, for the purpose of holding in check the enemy under Meer Shah Mahomed, until the arrival of the remainder of the force. On approaching the spot, towards which I had seen small bodies retreating, and perceiving larger parties dispersing to the right and left, I attacked a party of horse and foot, to the number of about two hundred and fifty, who were drawn up in rear of two guns, which they discharged at the time of my passing. I succeeded in cutting up between seventy and eighty; and their loss would have been greater but for the thick jungle, which favoured their escape. I am happy in being able to report, that all under me did their duty. I do myself the honour to forward casualty rolls of men and horses.

I have, &c.

E. WALTER, Captain 3d Regiment
Light Cavalry.

*Captain J. R. Keily, Commanding 20th Regiment
Native Infantry, to Captain Mayor, Brigade
Major, Sehwan.*

SIR, Camp, Sehwan, June 9, 1843.

IN compliance with yesterday's orders, I do myself the honour to state, that the sub-division of the grenadier company, which I detached at the desire of Lieutenant-Colonel Roberts commanding, for the purpose of searching the garden and burial ground occupied by Meer Shah Mahomed and his followers, fortunately discovered him concealed in some thick underwood, together with three or four servants.

On seeing the sepoy, he raised his gun, and one of his followers drew his sword; the men, supposing that he intended opposition, levelled their musquets, and would have shot him, had he not called out that he was the Meer, and, Captain Travers coming up at the time, he delivered up his sword to him.

I consider that the men shewed great forbearance in not firing, as they had been much exasperated at the conduct of a Belooch, who, only a few minutes before (after the firing was over), had jumped out of a bush, and severely wounded Lieutenant Lancaster, the acting Adjutant, in the arm. He was, however, immediately afterwards killed by a sepoy, named Khyrula Khan, who most probably saved that officer's life.

I beg to forward the arms taken from the Meer and his followers, viz.:

One English doubled barrell'd gun; one matchlock, with flint lock, inlaid with gold, and silver clasps; two swords, one with a gilt handle. The Meer's sword was delivered over to him yesterday.

I have, &c.

J. R. KELLY, Captain,
Commanding 20th Regiment Native Infantry.

Casualty Roll of Killed and Wounded, in Action with Lieutenant-Colonel Roberts' Brigade at Peer Aasee, on the 8th June 1843.

Captain Walter's Troop 3d Regiment Light Cavalry—2 havildars, 6 troopers, wounded; 1 horse killed; 7 horses wounded.

Detachment 20th Regiment Native Infantry—1 lieutenant wounded.

Total—1 lieutenant, 2 havildars, 6 troopers, wounded; 1 horse killed; 7 horses wounded.

Lieutenant and Adjutant Lancaster, severely wounded.

H. G. ROBERTS, Lieutenant-Colonel, Commanding Field Brigade, Sehwan.

F. MAYOR, Captain, Major of Brigade.

Major-General Sir Charles Napier to the Governor-General of India.

MY LORD, Hyderabad, June 19, 1843.

THE several movements made for some time past, for the purpose of surrounding Meer Shere Mahomed, I had the honour to state in my former letters. I have now the gratification to communicate to your Lordship the result of those movements.

On the 13th instant, the Ameer, finding that Lieutenant-Colonel Roberts' column was crossing the river on the north, and that the troops under my command were marching upon him from the south, determined to attack Captain Jacob, whose corps cut him off from the desert, and was the weakest of the three. This resolution he put in execution on the morning of the 14th, and was met by that excellent officer, who overthrew and dispersed his army; the Ameer fled, with ten followers, towards the river. I delayed this dispatch, in hopes of being able to inform your Lordship of his capture; but I fear he has retraced his steps, and, in disguise, escaped to the desert.

I have the honour to enclose to your Lordship, Captain Jacob's dispatch of this very brilliant affair.

The troops have all returned to their cantonments, except Colonel Roberts' column, which I expect in a day or two.

I regret to say, that a sudden change of the weather to extraordinary heat took place just after the troops marched from Hyderabad, towards the north, in consequence of which a number of Europeans were struck down, dying in a few hours. It was not owing to the march, for those in the fortress suffered in equal proportion. The number that have fallen in this manner is as follows:

In the field, one lieutenant, two serjeants, twenty-nine rank and file. In the fort of Hyderabad, three serjeants, one drummer, fourteen rank and file.

This terrible loss fell upon us between the 13th and 17th instant. I am afraid that a great proportion of these deaths must be attributed, in a great measure, to the rashness of the individuals themselves, in drinking the deleterious spirits of this country, the effects of which spirits become deadly when united to extreme heat.

I have just received a letter from Captain Jacob, informing me that he has taken two more guns, which were abandoned by Shere Mahomed on his march to attack Captain Jacob. One is a brass gun, and the other an iron one.

I have, &c.

C. J. NAPIER.

Captain J. Jacob, Commanding Sinde Irregular Horse, to Sir C. Napier.

Camp, Shah Dad Poor, June 14, 1843.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to report, that I yesterday morning arrived at this place, with the force under my command.

During the day I received information that Meer Shere Mahomed had marched from Hula to a fort, by name Oodeyra, some sixteen or seventeen miles south east from that place. I have not as yet been able to communicate with Colonel Roberts, but concluded that this movement of the Meer's to the southward was caused by the approach of the force under the Colonel from the north, and that, in endeavouring to escape from it, he would inevitably fall into the hands of the troops advancing from Hyderabad; wherefore, believing this place to be an excellent position for enabling me to intercept the Meer, should he attempt to escape to the eastward, I determined to halt here.

At about eleven o'clock last night, a Brahmin servant of Shere Mahomed's came to my camp, and informed me that the Meer was coming to attack me with his whole force, amounting, he said, to eight thousand or ten thousand men.

At about three o'clock this morning, my pickets perceived the enemy coming on in considerable force; and, after sending several parties to reconnoitre, finding that the enemy advanced very slowly, I left a troop and company to protect my camp, and went out with the rest of the force under my command to attack him. As I advanced, the Beloochees formed on the bank of a nulla in considerable strength, both horse and foot, with three guns, which immediately opened on us. The ground in front was of the most difficult nature, being rugged in the extreme, and intersected with deep ravines. As soon as I had formed my line, and our guns commenced firing with some effect, I perceived the Beloochees moving off; and, on my advancing with the Sinde horse, they broke, dispersed, and fled in every direction, leaving their guns and several standards in our hands. From the nature of the country, covered as it is with jungle and sand hillocks, and intersected with canals full of water, effective pursuit was impossible. Five or six of the Beloochees were killed by our artillery fire, and two horses of the Sinde irregular horse by that of the enemy.

We have taken five prisoners, from whom, as well as from the Brahmin above mentioned, I learn that Meer Shere Mahomed has fled with ten horsemen back to the river; and I, therefore (I am happy to say), have succeeded in preventing his flight to the desert, although unsuccessful in the attempt to capture his person.

The undermentioned Sirdars were present with Shere Mahomed's army:

Meer Shere Mahomed; Khan Mahomed; Golan Mahomed Lagaree; Morad Ali (Chang); Meer Mahomed (son of Meer Roostum); Meer Mehrab (Talpooree); Mahomed Sadeek; Mahomed Hussein (brother in law of Meer Nusseer Khan).

The number of Beloochees actually present was about 4000; the remainder of Shere Mahomed's army, and one gun, were left at Oodeyra, or deserted him on the road. The Meer had but four guns in all. The three taken are of brass, and well equipped. The conduct of all officers and men under my command has been most steady and excellent throughout; but in an action, such as that of this morning, there is no room for the display of much military prowess.

My intention is to remain at this place until I can communicate with Colonel Roberts, or until I shall receive other orders from yourself.

I have good information, that Shere Mahomed's family are at a fort called Ruinee, in the middle of the hills, about twelve miles from Schwam, and that the Meer will certainly attempt to cross the river to join them, and not to fly to the desert without them. I have, &c.

J. JACOB, Captain Artillery,
Commanding Sinde Irregular Horse.

THE following is a copy of an Order of Her Majesty in Council, assigning chapelry districts, under the 16th section of the 59th Geo. 3., cap. 134, to the chapels, at Stockingford, and at Attleborough, in the parish of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick :

At the Court at Buckingham-Palace, the 10th of June 1843, present, the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted "that in every case in which the Commissioners appointed for carrying into execution the purposes of the said Act shall be of opinion that it will be expedient to divide any parish into two or more distinct and separate parishes, for all ecclesiastical purposes whatever, it shall be lawful for the said Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese in which such parish is locally situated, signified under his hand and seal, to apply to the patron or patrons of the church of such parish for his consent to make such division, and for such patron or patrons to signify his or their consent thereto under his hand and seal; and the said Commissioners shall, upon the consent of the said patron or patrons so signified, represent the whole matter to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which it is proposed, with such consent as aforesaid, to divide such parish, together with the relative and respective proportions of glebe land, tithes, moduses, or other endowments which will by such division arise and accrue, and remain and be, within each of such respective divisions, and also the relative proportions of the estimated amount of the value or produce of fees, oblations, offerings, or other ecclesiastical dues or profits which may arise and accrue within each of such respective divisions; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division; provided always, that no such division of any parish into distinct parishes shall completely take effect until after the death, resignation, or other avoidance of the existing incumbent of the parish to be divided;" and it is by the 21st section of the said Act further enacted, "that in any case in which the said Commissioners shall be of opinion that it is not expedient to divide any populous parish, or extra parochial place, into such complete, separate, and distinct parishes as aforesaid, but that it is expedient to divide the same into such ecclesiastical districts as they, with the consent of the bishop, signified under his hand and seal, may deem necessary for the purpose of affording accommodation for the attending divine service, according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland, to persons residing therein, in the churches and parochial chapels already built, or in additional churches or chapels to be built therein, and as may appear to such Commissioners to be convenient for the enabling the spiritual person or persons who may serve such churches or chapels to perform all ecclesiastical duties within the districts attached to such respective churches and chapels, and for the due ecclesiastical superintendence of such district, and the preservation and improvement of the religious and moral habits of the persons residing therein, the said Commissioners shall represent such opinion to His Majesty in Council, and shall state in such representation the bounds by which such districts are proposed to be described; and if, thereupon, His Majesty in Council shall think fit to direct such division to be made, such Order of His Majesty in Council shall be valid and good in law for the purpose of effecting such division:"

And whereas by an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, in the same manner and with the like consents as are required in case of division into ecclesiastical districts under the said recited Act, or this Act, to assign a particular district to any chapel of ease or parochial chapel already existing, or to any chapel built, or which may hereafter be built or acquired under the powers of the said Act, or this Act; and such district shall be under the immediate care of the curate appointed to serve such chapel, but subject, nevertheless, to the superintendence and controul of the incumbent of the parish church; and all such curates shall be nominated by the incumbent of the parish to the bishop for his licence, except where the right of nomination shall already be legally vested in any other person or persons, and in every such case by the person or persons possessing such right of nomination, subject to all the laws in force relating to stipendiary curates, except as to the assigning of salaries to such curates; provided always, that it shall be lawful for the Commissioners, with the consent of the bishop of the diocese, to determine whether any and what part or proportion of the fees or dues for marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials shall be assigned to any such curate; and whether banns of marriage shall be published, and marriages or baptisms, churchings or burials, shall be solemnized or performed in any such chapel or not; and in any case in which marriages shall be allowed in any such chapel, the Commissioners shall cause the boundaries of the district assigned to such chapel to be enrolled in the High Court of Chancery, and in the office of the Registry of the diocese, any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding; and no such chapelry shall become a benefice by reason of any augmentation of the maintenance of the curate, by any grant or bounty under the provision of any Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, for augmenting small livings, any thing in such Act or Acts of Parliament, or law or laws, to the contrary notwithstanding:”

And whereas by another Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and by another Act, made and passed in the first and second years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty, intituled ‘An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” and also by another Act, made and passed in the second and third years of His said late Majesty, intituled “An Act to render more effectual an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled ‘An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;’” further provisions are made for carrying such divisions into effect:

And whereas the said Commissioners have made a representation to Her Majesty in Council, bearing date the first day of May one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words following, viz.

“Your Majesty’s Commissioners for building new churches, appointed by virtue of an Act, passed in the fifty-eighth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” continued by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “An Act to amend the Acts for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and further continued by an Act, passed in the first year of your Majesty’s reign, intituled “An Act to prolong, for ten years, Her Majesty’s Commission for building new churches;” beg leave humbly to represent to your Majesty, that, when the last census was taken, the parish of Nuneaton, in the county of Warwick and diocese of Worcester, contained a population of seven thousand and eighty-eight persons:

“That, besides the parish church, which affords accommodation to one thousand six hundred persons, there are two consecrated chapels in the said parish, one at Stockingford, which affords accommodation to six hundred and sixty persons, including five hundred and sixty-four free seats appropriated to the use of the poor; and the other at Attleborough, which affords accommodation to five hundred and eighteen persons, including three hundred and fifty free seats, appropriated to the use of the poor:

“Your Majesty’s said Commissioners beg leave further to represent to your Majesty, that, having taken into consideration all the circumstances attending this parish, it appears to them to be expedient, that particular districts should be assigned to the above-mentioned chapels, at Stockingford and Attleborough, respectively, under the provisions of the sixteenth section of an Act, passed in the fifty-ninth year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Third, intituled “An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for building, and promoting the building, of additional churches in populous parishes;” and that such districts should be named, respectively, “The Chapelry District of Stockingford,” and “The Chapelry District of Attleborough,” with boundaries as follow:
