TUESDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1843.

Whitehall, December 5, 1843.

THE following Address, having been received by His Royal Highness Prince Albert, on the occasion of His visit to Birmingham, for presentation to Her Majesty, the same was presented by His Royal Highness to Her Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously:

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and devoted subjects, the Governors of the Free Grammar School of King Edward the Sixth, in Birmingham, desire humbly to present to your Majesty our assurances of continued loyalty and affection, and of the unfeigned satisfaction with which we welcome your Majesty's august presence in the midland districts of your Majesty's dominions in this island.

We gratefully acknowledge the blessings which, by the favour of Divine Providence, we enjoy under your Majesty's auspicious Government, entrusted as we are, by a beneficent predecessor of your Majesty, with the charge of diffusing the principles of religion and sound knowledge, according to the doctrines of the Church of England, among the inhabitants of a most populous and important manufacturing portion of this kingdom, we hail, with unmixed pleasure, the arrival, in these parts, of your Majesty, whose deep interest for the welfare of your people, and attachment to the Protestant Religion, cannot but remind us of our pious and venerated Founder; while your Majesty's domestic virtues no less demand our affection and esteem.

For the honour conferred on King Edward's School, this town and neighbourhood, by the late visit of your Majesty's Royal Consort, and the interest taken by His Royal Highness in our manufactures, we are deeply grateful. The encouragement given by His Royal Highness, in common with your Majesty, to the promotion of the liberal arts, has given rise to anticipations the most favourable, as regards the advancement of science and literature in these kingdoms.

That your Majesty, your Illustrious Consort, and Royal Offspring, may long enjoy the devoted affection of a prosperous people with every blessing of public and domestic happiness a gracious Providence in its fulness can bestow, is, and ever will be, our fervent prayer.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness Prince Albert, on the occasion of His Royal Highness's visit in the Midland Counties, and were very graciously received:

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Principal, Vice-Principal, Treasurer, Dean of the Faculty, Council, and Professors of the Queen's College at Birmingham, gladly embrace the occasion afforded by your Royal Highness's visit to this town, to offer the homage of our loyal and devoted attachment to your Royal Highness's Person, and our deep sense of gratitude for the patronage your Royal Highness has been graciously pleased to extend to the Queen's Hospital for Clinical Instruction, in connection with this College.

We rejoice in the honour and respect which the empire so unanimously offers to one, the influences of whose high station have been uniformly devoted to the promotion of the religious and charitable, the literary and scientific, institutions of the country.

May the Supreme Disposer of human events, vouchsafe to your Royal Highness and to our gracious and beloved Queen, a continuance of that ample measure of health and happiness so essential to the best interests of this great nation; and may your Royal Highness long live to pursue the patriotic course which Christian philanthropy has pointed out for the improvement of the personal as well as the social condition of mankind.

Edward Johnstone, Principal.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT, of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha.

WE, the Members of the Society of Artists in Birmingham, humbly approach your Royal Highness on the fortuitous occasion of your gracious and condescending visit to this borough with the expression of our duty and reverence.

The encouragement which your Royal Highness's accomplished mind and refined taste have given to the various branches of art in this country, but more especially to those of composition and design, which are so eminently calculated to improve and elevate the taste for high art, as well as to advance the best interests of the manufacturing districts in Great Britain, demand of us that grateful tribute of homage and esteem, which we now so gladly render.

We unfeignedly rejoice in the uninterrupted happiness and prosperity that has followed your Royal Highness's union with our Most Gracious Queen; and we fervently pray that, both here and hereafter, it may please Almighty God to continue His blessings on you, and that our Queen may ever reign over a loyal, happy, and united people.

Signed on behalf of the Society,
Peter Hollins, Vice-President.

November 29, 1843.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT, of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha.

WE, the Committee and Members of the Royal Birmingham and Midland Counties Art Union, beg leave to approach your Royal Highness, on this occasion, with an expression of our gratitude for your Royal Highness's condescension in so readily accepting the office of Patron of our Institution, in conjunction with Her Most Gracious Majesty.

We would, at the same time, express our admiration of the efforts already made by your Royal Highness for the promotion of the fine arts, and of your enlarged and noble plans for their future encouragement.

Under your fostering care, aided by that of our beloved Sovereign, we indulge the hope that British art will attain a high rank, and extend its usefulness and beneficial influences to all classes of society.

The importance of the fine arts, in improving and exalting the national character, is evidently appreciated by your Royal Highness, while your considerate patronage of our Institution assures us that you are aware of the advantages which an extended knowledge of art will confer upon the manufactures of Great Britain.

Signed on behalf of the Committee and Members,

John Percy, M. D. Chairman.

29th November 1843.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT, of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha.

WE, your Royal Highness's humble and devoted servants, the Governors of the Free Grammar School of King Edward the Sixth, in Birmingham, desire to approach your Royal Person with the most sincere assurances of respect, attachment, and devotion to your Royal Highness.

Owing, as we do, our foundation to a youthful Monarch, the protector and bulwark, under Providence, of the Protestant Religion in this kingdom, and enjoying the blessings and advantages of a free constitution, under the benevolent rule of our beloved Sovereign, it is with unfeigned satisfaction we respectfully welcome the presence of your Royal Highness among us, the Consort of a Queen who has no less endeared herself to us by the exercise of every private and domestic virtue, than commanded our admiration and affection by the manner in which she has swayed the sceptre of Her illustrious Ancestors.

And, as Governors of a royal foundation, established for the dissemination of sound religion and knowledge, on the principles of the Church of England, we more especially would hope for the countenance and protection of your Royal Highness, yourself a supporter of the Protestant Religion by hereditary descent as well as personal example, a patron and encourager of the liberal arts, and whose zeal has been already so conspicuous for the advancement of them in this country.

That, on our gracious Sovereign, your Royal Highness, and your Royal Offspring, a bounteous Providence may ever shed its choicest blessings, is the fervent prayer of every faithful subject of your august Consort, and of none more fervently than your Royal Highness's most devoted servants, who now have the honour to address you.

To His Royal Highness Field Marshal PRINCE ALBERT, of Saxe Cobourg and Gotha.

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the borough of Birmingham, approach your Royal Highness's presence with feelings of exultation and gratitude for the distinguished honour conferred upon us by your Royal Highness's gracious visit to our borough. We hail it as a mark of the confidence of your Royal Highness in the loyalty and affection of our hearts towards our beloved Queen, and of your Royal Highness's appreciation of the high respect and esteem that we entertain for Her Majesty's Illustrious Consort.

The personal virtues which so eminently distinguish your Royal Highness as a man, a husband, and a father, it is our happiness to know and our pride to acknowledge.

We welcome your Royal Highness to this seat of industry and the arts; and we fervently pray the Supreme Ruler of the universe to vouchsafe to our Most Gracious Sovereign the Queen, to your Royal Highness, and to your Royal Offspring, a continuance of His special favour and protection; and that you may ever possess and enjoy the affection and esteem of a loyal, a prosperous, and a happy people.

In testimony whereof, the corporate common seal of this borough is hereunto affixed, this 29th day of November 1843.

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Committee of the Council of the Queen's Hospital, Birmingham, ever mindful of the important benefits which your Royal Highness was pleased to confer upon our institution, when as yet it was in the infancy of its ministrations, by bestowing upon it your royal patronage, and by becoming its first President, gladly and gratefully take advantage of your Royal Highness's auspicious visit to our great commercial and manufacturing town, to renew the assurances of our thankfulness, whilst, in common with our fellow townsmen, we give utterance to the warmth of our welcome, and the greatness of our happiness.

It will be satisfactory to your Royal Highness, as President of the Queen's Hospital, to be informed, that those energies of Christian benevolence, and those elements of great public usefulness, which your Royal Highness discerned in our institution, even in its unfinished state and condition, have, since its completion, shewn forth their power and productiveness in the abundance of cases of disease and accident which have been admitted, relieved, and cured; and also in the large amounts of clinical knowledge acquired by the students of the Queen's College by means of their bedside attendances, and practical instruction in the Queen's Hospital, of witnessing the course of medical and surgical treatment of the establishment, and thus, by the combination of collegiate teaching; with the observation of hospital practice, those great ends have been accomplished which, by your Royal Highness's gracious acceptance of the office of President, have been so powerfully sanctioned, and so successfully patronized and promoted; and we beg to assure your Royal Highness, that, whilst we shall endeavour to forward, by all the means in our power, the free operations of Christian charity upon the ills and ailments of human nature, and to secure to the sick and suffering the benefits of mature knowledge and professional experience, we shall feel it our duty to give every facility to the orderly attendance of the pupils of the Queen's College, upon the wards of the Queen's Clinical Hospital, both institutions being bound together by a community of principles and purposes, and both distinguished by royal patronage, the one by Her Majesty's charter of incorporation, the other by the Presidentship of Her Royal Consort.

[Here follow the signatures.]

To His Royal Highness PRINCE ALBERT.

The humble Address of the President and Officers of the Birmingham Philosophical Institution.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the President and Officers, on behalf of the Members of the Birmingham Philosophical Institution, gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity afforded us of offering to your Royal Highness the sincere expression of our profound respect and attachment.

The patronage which your Royal Highness extends to literature, science, and the arts, is to us a source of unfeigned gratification, as it must be to all who are anxious to advance the great interests of the empire.

It is our earnest prayer, that the Supreme Being may grant to our beloved Sovereign and to your Royal Highness, a long continuance of health and happiness, and the enjoyment of the confidence of a loyal, grateful, and devoted people.

Signed on behalf of the Officers and Members of the Birmingham Philosophical Institution, Joseph Hodgson, President.

MARINE BARRACK CANTEENS.

Department of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, Somerset-Place, November 11, 1843.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, on Thursday the 14th of December next, at one o'clock, the Canteens in the under-mentioned Barracks will be let, from the 31st of December next to the 1st of January 1847, by order of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty.

No person but of unexceptionable character, nor any person for more than one Canteen, or who will not undertake, bonâ fide, to reside in or occupy the Canteen, and conduct the business thereof in his own person, will be approved; and two sureties will be required for the regular payment of the rent, and of all sums which may become due in respect to the said Canteen, and for the due performance of the several conditions and stipulations of the indenture of lease. The Revenue or other licences to be paid by the tenant.

The person whose proposal shall be accepted and his sureties must execute an indenture of lease and covenants relating thereto, the particulars whereof may be known by applying to this Office, or to the Barrack-Masters at the several Barracks.

The Christian and surnames of two respectable persons, with their professions and places of abode, who will join the tenant in executing the indenture of lease as his sureties, must be inserted in the proposals. The tenant is to pay half the value of the stamps on the indenture of lease upon executing the same; and it is to be understood, that the said Commissioners will not undertake to procure the tenant a licence.

A printed form of the tender and conditions may be had at this Office, or on application to the respective Barrack-Masters. No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorized in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words, "Tender for Marine Barrack Canteen," and must also be delivered at the Office of the Comptroller for Victualling and Transport Services, at Somerset-place.

By the Mutiny Act Canteens are not liable to have troops billeted on them.

As all persons becoming tenants of Canteens will be bound to the strict performance of the covenants of the indenture of lease, and to the full payment of the rent and privilege of sale to the troops, without any remission or reduction under any circumstances whatever, they are hereby cautioned to make themselves fully acquainted with the conditions of letting, prior to their making a proposal.

The rents of the Canteens as tenements or dwellings are to be proposed at the sums stated opposite to each in the following list, therefore the biddings will be upon what is offered for every ten men per month, exclusive of sergeants, occupying the barracks, the number being ascertained from the Barrack-Master's Returns, made up at twelve o'clock at noon on the first day of every month, and no changes in the occupation of the barrack which may take place in the progress of the month, either for or against the tenant, will be taken into account. No less number than ten will be charged against the tenant, nor will any odd number be calculated; thus, if the barrack should be occupied by 148 men on the first day of the month, only 140 will be calculated for that month. The bidders are also desired to introduce no fractional parts of a penny in their offers, as they will not be noticed, nor will any tenders be noticed except such as are strictly according to the form furnished.
