FRIDAY, DECEMBER 29, 1843.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled, "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for carrying into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to explain and amend two several Acts relating to the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England;" have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for effecting an exchange of certain advowsons between the Bishop of London and the Principal and Scholars of Brase-nose College, in Oxford.

"Whereas it is enacted by the first-recited Act that, with an especial view, to the better care of populous parishes, arrangements may, from time to time, be made, by the authority therein provided, for improving the value or making a better provision for the spiritual duties of ill-endowed parishes, by means of such exchange of advowsons, or of such other alterations in the exercise of patronage as may be agreed upon by patrons, with the consent of the Bishop in every such case; and, by the secondly recited Act, it is enacted, that it shall be competent to the authority in the first-recited Act provided, to make such arrangements, with respect to the exchange of advowsons or other alteration in the exercise of patronage, notwithstanding that such advowsons, or any or either of them, or such patronage, shall be vested in, or belong to, any ecclesiastical corporation, aggregate or sole:

"And whereas the Right Honourable and Right Reverend Charles James Bishop of London is, in right of his see, patron of the rectory of Weeley, in the diocese of London and county of Essex, and the Principal and Scholars of Brase-nose College, in Oxford, are patrons of the rectory of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, in the same diocese, and in the county of Middlesex, and of certain of the churches within the parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and would also be patrons of all other churches or chapels erected therein:

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that it is expedient, for the objects contemplated and intended by the said first-recited Act, and would be conducive to the interests of religion, to exchange the advowson or right of patronage of the said rectory of Weeley, for the advowson or right of patronage of the said rectory of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, so that the advowson and right of patronage of the said rectory of Weeley may, after such exchange as aforesaid, be vested in, and exercised by, the said Principal and Scholars; and the advowson and right of patronage of the said rectory of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, and the right of patronage and nomination of and to all churches and chapels now or hereafter erected within the said parish of Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green, may, in like manner, be vested in, and exercised by, the said Charles James Bishop of London, and his successors, Bishops of London :

" We, therefore, with the consent of the said Charles James Bishop of London, in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this scheme, and also of the said Principal and Scholars, in testimony whereof they have hereunto affixed their corporate seal, do humbly recommend and propose, that such exchange of advowsons and right of patronage and nomination, respectively as aforesaid, shall be forthwith made and fully carried into effect."

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of London.

Wm. L. Bathurst.

At the Court at Windsor, the 13th day of December 1843,

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to alter and amend the laws relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-eighth day of November one thousand eight hundred and forty-three, in the words and figures following, that is to say :

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled " An Act for carrying into effect the reports of the Commissioners appointed to consider the state of the Established Church in England and Wales, with reference to ecclesiastical duties and revenues, so far as they relate to episcopal dioceses, revenues, and patronage;" and of an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to carry into effect, with certain modifications, the fourth report of the Commissioners of Ecclesiastical Duties and Revenues;" and of another Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the fifth and sixth years of your Majesty's reign, intituled " An Act to alter and amend the law relating to ecclesiastical houses of residence," have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme, for affording compensation to the Bishop of Bangor for his immediate surrender of a benefice with cure of souls, accustomedly held by the Bishops of Bangor as part of the revenues of the see of Bangor.

" Whereas by the first-recited Act it is enacted, that, after the passing thereof, no ecclesiastical dignity, office, or benefice shall be held in commendam by any bishop, unless he shall so hold the same at the time of passing thereof, and that every commendam thereafter granted, whether to retain or to receive, and whether temporary or perpetual, shall be absolutely void to all intents and purposes :

" And whereas by the secondly-recited Act it is enacted, that, by the authority thereafter provided, and for the purpose of fully carrying into effect any of the provisions of the Act now in recital, or of the said first-recited Act, any sum of money which shall have been invested in the public funds, or in other security or securities, in trust, for any ecclesiastical body corporate, aggregate or sole, may, upon an application in writing, to us, under the hand and seal of such body corporate, be directed to be sold, and the same shall be sold accordingly; and the produce of such sale shall be applied to such purpose, and in such manner, as shall appear most conducive to the permanent benefit of such body corporate :

" And whereas by the thirdly-recited Act, it is declared and enacted, that the provisions of the said secondly-recited Act, relating to the sale and application of any sum of money invested, in trust, for any ecclesiastical body corporate, do and shall include and apply to all moneys, and securities for money, and to all stock in the Government funds, or elsewhere, standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, or in the name or names of any other public officer, or of any individual or individuals, for or to the credit, or for the benefit of, or in trust, for any bishop, whether for the purpose of being laid out in land, or otherwise:

“ And whereas by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the seventh and eighth years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled “ An Act for carrying into effect an agreement for sale of certain messuages or tenements, and parcels of ground in the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the county of Middlesex, part of the possessions of the see of Bangor, and for applying the money arising therefrom in manner therein mentioned,” it was enacted, that it should be lawful for the then Bishop of Bangor, and his successors, to join with the parties therein respectively named and described, in carrying into effect a certain agreement, therein recited, for the sale of the several messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, in the same Act also particularly described, and the estates, terms, and interests of the respective lessees therein; and that the share of the Bishop of Bangor of the purchase money agreed upon for the said messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, amounting to the sum of six thousand two hundred and twelve pounds ten shillings, should be paid into the Bank of England, in the name and with the privity of the Accountant General of the High Court of Chancery, to be placed to his account there, exparte “ the Bishop of Bangor,” and to be, from time to time, laid out by him in the purchase of Navy or Victualling Bills, or Exchequer Bills; and it was further enacted, that it should be lawful for the Court of Chancery, upon a petition to be presented to that Court by the said Bishop, or his successors, to direct the said Accountant General to apply the whole or any part of the money so directed to be paid into the Bank, and the interest arising thereon, for the purchase of a freehold messuage or mansion-house for the residence of the Bishop of Bangor for the time being, to be situate in the city of London, or the suburbs thereof, or in the city and liberties of Westminster, or the suburbs thereof:

“ And whereas the sale of the said several messuages or tenements, hereditaments, and premises, accordingly took place, and the said sum of six thousand two hundred and twelve pounds ten shillings was thereupon paid into the Bank of England, in accordance with the directions contained in the same Act, which said sum is still remaining in the Bank of England, in the name and to the account as aforesaid, the same having been invested in the purchase of Exchequer Bills, and, together with the accumulated interest thereon, now amounts to the sum of eight thousand four hundred pounds:

“ And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Christopher Bishop of Bangor, and it appears to us, that it is not expedient that the said last-mentioned sum, or any part thereof, should be applied towards the purpose contemplated by the said last-recited Act; but that it would be more for the permanent benefit of the said see, to apply such sum in manner hereinafter recommended:

“ And whereas the rectory of Llanddyffnan, with the chapelries of Pentraeth, Llanbedrgoch, and Llanfairmathavarmeithaf thereunto annexed, in the county of Anglesea, and in the diocese of Bangor, has, for a long series of years, been accustomedly held by the Bishops of Bangor, as part of the revenues of the said see; and it is proposed by the said Christopher Bishop of Bangor, immediately to surrender and vacate the same, upon due provision being made for him and his successors in the said see, in compensation for the loss of the emoluments derived from the said rectory:

“ And whereas it appears by the provisions of the said first-recited Act, that one of the purposes thereof was to prevent the necessity for the holding of such benefices by any bishop:

“ And whereas an application, in writing, has been made to us, under the hand and seal of the said Christopher Bishop of Bangor, for the sale of the said Exchequer Bills, and for the appropriation of the produce of such sale in manner hereinafter mentioned:

“ Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that the said Exchequer Bills, now standing in the name of the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery, in the books of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, and placed to his account there, exparte “ the Bishop of Bangor,” shall be forthwith sold, and the produce of such sale shall thereupon be paid to us, and shall be reinvested in the joint names of the Bishop of Bangor for the time being and ourselves, in such Government or Parliamentary Stock, or other public security or securities, in England, as shall be approved by us, with the consent of the said Christopher Bishop of Bangor, or the Bishop of Bangor for the time being, under his hand and seal, and the same shall form part of the possessions of the said see of Bangor, and the dividends, interest, and annual produce thereof shall be received by the said Christopher Bishop of Bangor, and his successors; and that, immediately upon such reinvestment being certified by us, by an instrument in writing under our common seal, and such instrument being published in the London Gazette, the said rectory of Llanddyffnan, with the said several chapelries thereunto annexed, shall become and be absolutely vacant, without any formal resignation thereof by the said Christopher Bishop of Bangor, and the patronage thereof shall be and remain in the said Bishop and his successors, Bishops of Bangor, for ever:

“ And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing other measures relating to the several matters and things herein referred to, or either of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said recited Acts, or any of them.”

And whereas the said scheme has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said scheme, and to order and direct that the same, and every part thereof, shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct, that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the diocese of Bangor. *Wm. NOTICE TO MARINERS.

SKERRYVORE LIGHTHOUSE.

Edinburgh, December 23, 1843.

THE Commissioners of the Northern Lighthouses hereby give notice, that a lighthouse has been erected upon the Skerryvore Rock, which lies off the island of Tyree, in the county of Argyle, the light of which will be exhibited on the night of the 1st February 1844, and every night thereafter, from sun-set to sun-rise.

The following is a Specification of the Position of the Lighthouse, and the Appearance of the Light, by Mr. Alan Stevenson, Engineer to the Commissioners :

The Skerryvore Rock lies off the island of Tyree, in lat. $56^{\circ} 19' 22''$ N. long. $7^{\circ} 6' 32''$ W.

By compass, the lighthouse bears from Barrahead Lighthouse, S. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 33 nautic miles; from Hynish Point, in Tyree, W. S. W. $\frac{1}{2}$ W. distant $10\frac{1}{2}$ miles; from Iona Island, W. N. W. $\frac{3}{4}$ N. distant 20 miles; from Rhinns of Islay Lighthouse, N. $\frac{1}{4}$ E. distant 44 miles; and from Innistrathull Lighthouse, in Ireland, N. E. by N. distant $58\frac{1}{2}$ miles.

Owing to the distance to which the foul ground extends on every side of the rock on which the lighthouse is placed, and the weight of sea which breaks on the shallow ground all round it, it is necessary to give the light a wide berth. The better to enable seamen to judge of this, their attention is called to a chart, prefixed to a separately printed notice, which exhibits the relative position of the Skerryvore Rock, and the various dangers around it. In particular, it is necessary to notice the position of those rocks which lie seaward of the lighthouse, viz. Mackenzie's Rock, about 3 miles W. by S. $\frac{1}{2}$ S. from the lighthouse; Stevenson's, $2\frac{1}{4}$ miles W. $\frac{1}{2}$ N.; and Fresnel's, which lies between these two rocks. Copies of the notice, with the chart prefixed, will be extensively circulated to all the Custom-houses of the United Kingdom, and will be seen by any mariner on application.

The Skerryvore Light will be known to mariners as a revolving light, producing a bright flash once every minute. The lantern, which is open all round, is elevated 150 feet above the level of the sea. In clear weather, the flashes of the light will be seen at the distance of six leagues, and at lesser distances, according to the state of the atmosphere; and to a near observer, in favourable circumstances, the light will not wholly disappear between the flashes.

And the Commissioners hereby further give notice, that by virtue of a Warrant from the Queen in Council, of date the 13th December 1843, the following tolls will be levied for voyages in respect of which benefit will be derived from this light, viz. from every British vessel (the same not belonging to Her Majesty, or being navigated wholly in ballast), and for every foreign vessel which, by any Act of Parliament, Order in Council, Convention, or Treaty, shall be privileged to enter the ports of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, upon paying the same duties of tonnage as are paid by British vessels (the same not being navigated wholly in ballast), the toll of one penny per ton of the burden of every such vessel; and for every foreign vessel, not so privileged, the toll of two pence per ton.

By order of the Commissioners,
(Signed) C. Cunningham, Alex. Cunningham, Joint Secretaries.

THE Commissioners appointed under the Act, sixth and seventh Victoria, cap. 101, for the Registration and Regulation of Coal Whippers in the Port of London, hereby give notice, that the Office for the Registration of Coal Whippers will be opened at King James's-stairs, Wapping-wall, in the county of Middlesex, on Wednesday the 3d of January 1844.

The hours of attendance for registration will be from nine o'clock in the morning until nine at night, from the 3d of January until the 13th of January, both days inclusive (Sunday excepted), and after the 13th of January, from twelve at noon until two o'clock in the afternoon (Sundays excepted).

All persons, desirous of following, or continuing to follow, the employment of coal whippers, are hereby required to have themselves registered under the Act.—Guildhall, London, 23d December 1843.
C. Green, Chairman.

St. Katharine Dock-House,
December 19, 1843.

THE Court of Directors of the St. Katharine Dock Company do hereby give notice, that a General Half-yearly Meeting of the Proprietors will be held at the Dock-house, Tower-hill, in the county of Middlesex, on Tuesday the 16th day

The books of the Company will close on Saturday the 23d instant, and open on Monday the 22d of January next.

By order of the Court,

John Hall, Secretary.

N. B. The chair will be taken at one o'clock precisely.

London, December 23, 1843.
